

BOERS RAIDING ZULULAND

And The Zulus May Rise to Drive Them Out.

THE ENEMY NEAR RENSBURG

Becoming Aggressive—Kimberly Being Bombarded—Canadian Soldier Dead—Landsdowne's Plans Criticised—Change Proposed at Ottawa—The Second Contingent.

OTTAWA, Feb. 13.—(Special).—Col. Donville is asking for all papers concerning General Hutton's removal.

IMPORTANT CHANGE PROPOSED.

Hon. Dr. Borden will introduce a bill permitting an officer of the Canadian Militia to be appointed commander in chief of the forces in Canada.

CANADIAN SOLDIER DEAD.

LONDON, Feb. 13.—(Special).—Private J. J. Purcell of B Company, London, Ont. died today of locomotor ataxia.

He was formerly member of the Royal Canadian Artillery.

BOERS IN ZULULAND.

All England is waiting eagerly for news from Modder River. The Boer raid in Zululand is assuming alarming proportions and fears grow that the Zulus will break all restraints to turn on the invaders.

BOERS AGGRESSIVE NEAR RENSBURG.

Advices show that the Boers were driven from Hobkirk's and Bastard's Nek on Monday morning but recaptured them Monday evening.

They are very aggressive about Rensburg, driving in the British outposts with some losses.

BOMBARDING KIMBERLY.

A private despatch says General Wood has seized Zoutpans Drift in the Orange State.

The Boers' bombardment of Kimberly continues with energy, and the city is believed to be short of food.

LANDSDOWNE'S ARMY SCHEME.

The papers while approving of Lord Lansdowne's army scheme make the criticism that it does not seem to be worked out with any sufficient plan.

RECEPTION TO THE CONTINGENT.

HALIFAX, Feb. 13.—(Special).—The Elder-Dempsters will tender a big reception to the men of the Second Contingent here on Saturday night.

STRATHCONA'S HORSE MOVING.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 13.—(Special).—The first train load of Strathcora's Horse arrived here today and were dined by the City Council and given a great reception.

A Forester Sends Greeting

The following is an extract from a letter received last night by Mr. R. M. Johnson from Corp. Lorne Stewart of G Co. 2nd Bat. Royal Canadian Reg. Infantry Field Force South Africa:

BELMONT, SOUTH AFRICA.

Dear Friend:—

A bright and happy New Year is the wish of your friend in South Africa. I have no news to write you, except that part of our regiment has left for Douglstown to give the Boers a beating and if they don't give them a good one I will be very much disappointed. This is a forsaken country. No grass, no trees, no vegetables of any kind and not a drop too much water.

How is the L. O. F? I have met quite a number of brother Foresters out here that belong to courts in England and Scotland, also a number of Canadians.

Give my best wishes to the officers and members of Court Mt. Stephen for a bright and happy New Year.

Yours in L. B. C.

LORNE STEWART.

Illumination of Paris Exposition.

The Paris Exposition will be brilliantly illuminated at night. There will be 3116 incandescent lamps at the great entrance gate in addition to twelve very large arc lights; on the cupola and minarets there will be eight search lights, and sixteen simple reflector lights upon the pylons. The Alexander III. bridge will be lighted by 508 incandescent lamps of 117 candle power. The Electricity building will be lighted by 5,000 incandescent lamps, 8 search lights and 4 plain arc projectors. On the water palace there will be 1098 incandescent lamps. In all, says The Electrical Review, there will be 12,554 lights. These will only light the buildings as far as the Exposition authorities are concerned. Private individuals, corporations, etc., will, of course require many thousand lamps for lighting their exhibits. There will be 174 arc lights on the Champ; Elysees.
