DOHERTY TO LEAD U. F. O. RANEY GIVE DRURY SEAT?

TORONTO, Dec. 19.—Hon. Manning Doherty will lead the U. F. O. group in the Ontario Legislature next session. After that there is practically no doubt that Hon. W. E. Raney will resign his seat in East Wellington in order that Hon. E. C. Drury may attempt to find a seat.

One of the most prominent U. F. O. leaders who will attend the annual meeting this week, stated that it was his belief that E. C. Drury would be beaten in East Wellington and added: "I don't think he could be elected in any riding in the province."

WEDDING BELLS.—One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized at St. Dunstan's Cathedral on November 26th, 1924, when Mr. George S. McKenna, potato king of Emerald Jct., led to the altar, Miss Ida May McKenna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McKenna of Mermaid, Lot 48.

The groom was also beautifully attired in blue massiline with black picture hat and white fur. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Fred McKenna, brother of the bride. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the Queen Hotel where they partook of a dainty breakfast, spending the forenoon in town. They later motored to the home of the bride where a sumptuous dinner was served in Mrs. McKenna's usual good style.

Gleanings Here And There

Ex-Premier John H. Bell for the past month has been visiting his brother, Mr. William E. Bell of Cape Traverse. This is near the old Bell homestead, which is the adjoining farm property, owned at present by Mr. William Waddell.

A school concert will be held in Cape Traverse hall on Monday the twenty-second when a suitable programme in aid of the school will be given. The public school teachers, Miss Bearisto and Miss Craswell are very energetic in this undertaking and are doing excellent work in the district.

The Methodist Mission band on Saturday evening held a bazaar and lunch sale in Cape Traverse Hall. Twenty dollars were realized from the bazaar which will augment the Missionary revenue.

The extra trip of the Car Ferry in the forenoon, it is reported, is not greatly patronised by the travelling public, the majority of the passengers coming on the afternoon trip. Some weeks not more than six or seven passengers avail themselves of the morning trip.

Word has been received of the safe arrival of a cargo of two carloads of potatoes and one hundred tons of hay at Murray, St. Ann's Bay, Cape Breton, consigned to C. L. Jackson, manager of the Oxford Paper Company. Mr. Jackson recently visited this province.

A Sabbath School entertainment and Christmas tree will be held in North Tryon church on the evening of the twenty-fourth. Those who know the high class programme given under the training of Mr. Clayton Morrison are expecting something pretty good.

The cold snap of this week has caused farmers who have surplus potatoes or turnips, in sheds to take precautions to have them securely covered.

Messrs Milligan and Morrison of Northam are erecting what is considered one of the largest, if not the largest barn on Prince Edward Island. As it is being built in a rectangular form with wings it is difficult to give the full dimensions.

It is not an uncommon sight these days to see wagons, sleighs and automobiles on the same road, the wagons being more numerous.

Mrs. Joseph Cutcliffe of Cape Traverse returned home from the P. E. I. Hospital last Saturday much improved in health. She speaks highly of the treatment received. Her son Gordon is still in the hospital, but is slowly recovering.

A short time ago while carrying a bag of grain up an outside stair at his barn Mr. Will McManus accidentally slipped and fell backwards landing on his back and badly spraining his arm.

Mrs. W. A. MacQuarrie of Hampton last week dressed a turkey weighing twenty-eight pounds. Beat this who can?

General regret is expected at the passing away by death of the Hon. John Yeo, Senator of Port Hill on the fourteenth. For the past seventy-five years or more the Yeos of Port Hill and the Richards of Hunterford have been leading families in this part of the Province.

An interesting and profitable service was conducted in Hampton Church on the evening of the fourteenth by the members of the Mission Band. Mrs. MacPherson presided and gave an address, Mr. E. C. Holm led in prayer. Miss May Beer and Master Paul MacPherson read the Scripture lessons.

Word has come recently from Montreal where Mr. Brent Lea of Tryon is ill in a hospital there, that there is little improvement in his condition. It is believed that he is suffering from a very malignant type of internal cancer.
