Use Castrol in Your New High Compression Motor

THE high compression motor calls for a quality of toughness and durability in oil which was not demanded by the engine of yesterday.

With the arrival of the high speed motor in American car design, there must be a period of experiment and research on this continent to produce oils that will stand up under the impact of this modern engine.

CASTROL Solved the Problem 10 Years Ago!

America's "new problem" was solved many years ago when British and European pioneer manufacturers developed high compression motors, and over 230 of the leading motor manufacturers today specifically recommend Wakefield CASTROL Motor Oil.

It is available for you today to save you from engine trouble and repair bills. Remember, CASTROL gives you double, treble, four times the mileage. Fill the crankcase of your car today with—

BONSHAW WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.—The regular meeting of the Bonshaw Women's Institute, was held at the home of Mrs. George Carson on Wednesday, the 19th. After the usual opening exercises, twenty members responded to roll call with pickling recipes. The secretary's report of the lecture showed that it had been a success. An interesting report of the institute convention was given by Mrs. L. T. Beaton. It was decided to purchase blinds for the hall, also a boiler and kettle for the use of the institute. Letters of appreciation were received from those who had been visited by the sick committee. Some plans were made regarding the bazaar and committees were appointed for the same. Refreshments were served by the hostess, a verse of the carol was sung, after which the meeting adjourned till next month to meet at the home of Mrs. Ferguson.

WELCOME TO NEW CITIZEN.—The Guardian of today carries the announcement that the well known photographic business of the estate of J. A. S. Bayer has been acquired by Mr. W. H. Flett, of Moncton. Mr. Flett carries on an extensive photographing and developing business in the railway city and has had long and large experience in all branches of photography. He plans certain developments and extension of the business carried on by Mr. Bayer and has already installed a set of Hollywood artificial lights which enable photographs to be taken at night with as great a degree of satisfaction from an artistic point of view as during the day. The Guardian welcomes Mr. Flett to the city and trusts that he will receive a fair share of the business so successfully carried on by the late Mr. Bayer.

AUTUMN WEDDING.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin W. Wood, 111 Dudley Street, Medford, Mass., was the scene of a pretty wedding at 8 o'clock, Saturday evening Sept. 15th, when Miss Dorothy Elizabeth Munn, 1 Waterhouse, St. Cambridge, Mass., became the bride of their son, Roy Earl Wood, Rev. Carl C. Clarke, of the First Methodist church, Otis St. Medford, officiated, and the double ring service was used. The bride was attired in white Satin with Veil and Orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. Her maid of honour, Miss Beth Stewart, 43 Grey Cliff Road, Newton, Centre, wore pale Pink Satin and carried Pink Roses. Little Merion Robertson, Neice of the Groom was flower girl. Willie Rex Wood, brother of the Groom and resident of Medford, attended, and best man, Miss Munn, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Munn, Wood Islands, she attended the school of her native town. Mr. Wood

Had Dandruff And Pimples 2 Years Cuticura Healed

"I was troubled for two years with dandruff and pimples. The pimples were scattered over my face, neck and head. They were hard, large and red, and festered and scalded over. They itched and burned badly, and when I scratched, it caused them to spread. The dandruff affected the growth of my hair, and it fell out badly. I lost a lot of sleep on account of the trouble.

"I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after using it I got relief. I purchased more, and after using three cakes of Soap and two boxes of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) J. W. Polenchuk, Donwell, Sask.

Use Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum to promote and maintain skin purity, skin comfort and skin health; the Soap to cleanse and purify, Ointment to soothe and heal, and Talcum to powder and refresh.

Sample each free by Mail. Address Canadian Dispensary, Ltd., Montreal, P. Que., Dept. 25, Cuticura Soap and Ointment, P. Que., 25c. Cuticura Shaving Stick 25c.

also attended the school of his native town, Bay Fortune, and at present is employed as a carpenter in North Station Boston. Following the ceremony a reception to about 100 people was given. And the parents of the Groom assisted in receiving the beautiful cut flowers and ferns provided a charming background for the occasion. Miss Marion McKie of Greenwood, a cousin of the Groom, was the Violinist. She was accompanied at the Piano by Mrs. Doris Frost, Von Klock, Music teacher of Wakefield, Mass. After a week's honeymoon, the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Earl Wood, will be at Home, 111 Dudley St., to their friends.

SOUTH MILTON.—On Tuesday evening September 18th the Teachers' Service Training School with centre at South Milton was organized. The attendance was not large owing to the unfavorable weather. The following officers and committees were appointed: President, Mr. Brownell Chandler. Vice-president, Miss F. Jean Rodd. Secretary, Miss Carolyn Fraser. Press Committee, Misses Helen L. Terrell and F. Jean Rodd. Entertainment committee, Misses Dorothy Doull and Carolyn Fraser. The speaker for the evening Mr. R. H. Rogers, gave an interesting address on "Training for Service." He emphasized the importance of putting into practical use the learning acquired in college, short courses and training schools. Mr. Howard Court, Supervisor of Schools then gave demonstration lessons on the use of the sand table in teaching Literature, Geography and History. This was the first of a course of lessons similar to that used in one of the leading universities of the Maritimes. The teachers are urged to make an effort to attend this instructive course. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, October 16th, if weather unfavorable Wednesday, October 17th.

INQUESTS

Sir,—My opinion is that you are right regarding the matter of inquests. Dr. Houston, no doubt, is actuated by the best of motives in waving inquests. He may be sure that all is right, but the people would like to know the facts. It would be far better to strictly obey the law in these serious matters. Leaving the holding of inquests to the discretion of the coroner is a system fraught with danger. It may be that criminals would escape punishment, through such a system.

I am, Sir, etc.,

MYERS—DOCKENDORFF NUP-TIALS.—The Methodist Episcopal Church, Hingham, Mass., was the scene of a very pretty wedding on September 1st at 3 P. M., when Wesley Howard Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Myers of Hingham, and Grace Loretta Dockendorff, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Dockendorff of North River, P. E. I., were married. The ceremony being performed by Rev. J. S. Pennepacker, Nantux, Conn. a personal friend of the groom at Boston University. Just previous to the ceremony Mr. Leonard Rich, of Medford, Mass., sang "Oh Promise Me" and "Perfect Day". The wedding march was played by Mrs. Reta White. The maid of honour was Miss Gladys MacLeod of Brookline, Mass. Mr. Morley Myers the groom's brother was best man. Little Gloria White of Medford made a charming flower girl, while William Fraser of Brookline was ring bearer. The ushers were: Leon Rich, Medford; John Fraser, Brookline; Shirley Souther and Frank Wright of Hingham. Immediately after the ceremony the reception was held in the vestry of the church which was decorated beautifully, as well as the church itself. Mr. Myers is a graduate of New York Electric School and holds an excellent position with the Norfolk Telephone Company. Mrs. Myers is a graduate of Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown and one of P. E. I.'s successful teachers. During the past year she was a member of the faculty of Cromel Hall, Stratford, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Myers have the good wishes of a host of friends and relatives as shown by the many beautiful gifts they received. After October 1st they will be at home at 225 Garfield Place, Brooklyn, N. Y. City.
