CITY & COUNTRY NEWS

Mr. George Gilbert Ritchie, of Seattle and Miss Nina Adessa Dunbar, of Shelton, Mason county, were married at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. John F. Dunlop, on Tuesday evening, Oct. 3, at 8 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie will be at home at 2910 East Pike street.

An honor worthy of special mention is that won by the Smith Premier Type writer at the Paris Exposition. Out of twenty-one typewriting machines exhibited, the Smith Premier was distinguished from others by being awarded the Grand Prix. There was nothing higher and consequently we are to judge that there is no typewriter better. The manufacturers, although well satisfied with the decision of an international jury of twenty-five members, are not content to let this interfere with progress, but are ever on the alert for inventions which prove to be an advantage.—Toronto World. Messrs Newsome & Gilbert are the sole dealers. 63 Victoria St. Toronto. The Mr. Newsome above referred to is a native of Charlotte town.

A. R. S.—M. McLaughlin.
F. S.—George Webster.
T.—Neil McNeill.
Ch.—James Alchorn.
C.—F. Smith.
A. C.—J. Currie.
I. S.—Walter Lane.
O. S.—W. B. Webster.
S. Y. P. W.—K. Ross.
P. W. P.—Donald McKinnon.
Representatives to the Grand Division were elected as follows:—Charles Newson, D. McKinnon and F. McLaughlin.

EAGER TO JOIN.

PRETORIA, September 29.—It is stated that 17,000 applications have been made to join the new police force that is being organized for service in the Transvaal. The eagerness to join is ascribed chiefly to the popularity of general Baden-Powell.

DRINK HABIT CURED AT HOME.

"We are treating and curing more patients than any other drink cure in the world. This is because we treat our patients at their home, saving the time, expense and publicity of an institute treatment; because we use no hypodermic injections with their bad effects, but give healthful tonic; because we not only antidote the drink craving, but cure the diseased conditions arising from the use of toxicants.
By our system of correspondence, each patient receives individual care and instructions. We have received the highest and best endorsements of any cure in the world from leaders among men, whose commendation the whole world could not buy. Among those who vouch for our treatment are Rev. Father Quinlivan, pastor of St. Patrick's; Rev. Father E. Strub, Vicar of St. Ann's; Rev. M. Taylor, Rector of St. James'; Rev. M. Taylor, Pastor Cantenary Methodist Church; Rev. M. Gauthier; Rev. A. M. Coventry; Rev. B. Leo Fitzgerald. Particulars and treatise of Alcoholism sent free on application in plain sealed envelope. Address: Mr. Dixon, 81 Willocks Street, Toronto, Ont.

BISHOP COURTNEY

Makes an Impression in Australia.

HIS LORDSHIP HALLED

As a Grand Speaker and a Fine Man—The Synod Rose to Greet Him.

Extracts from a letter received from Sydney, Australia, by the last mail, written by a Nova Scotian:

"I was at the cathedral here this morning, and heard the Bishop of Nova Scotia preach a grand sermon. I have heard him speak twice and speak at two meetings. On Friday night he was advertised to speak in the Town Hall, which was crowded with between 4,000 and 5,000 people. He kept the attention of the whole house all the time, and was enthusiastically received. The chairman had to remind him that his time was nearly up, still he went on, and finished a splendid speech amid great applause. He is no doubt a splendid speaker, and I was proud of Nova Scotia, for though there were twenty bishops here, none had the attention of the audience more than Bishop Courtney. On Wednesday, when the bishop rose to address the synod, the whole synod rose to greet him. So you see he is appreciated here, He is a fine man in every way."

HIS LORDSHIP'S ADDRESS

TO THE CHURCH SYNOD.

The following is from the Sydney Herald:

"The Bishop of Nova Scotia, said he conveyed from Canada and the United States a message of greeting to the church in Australia. When he looked back upon the country he had just left, and then remembered the events that had recently occurred in South Africa, he could not help recalling the fact that Australia's example in raising the first contingent suggested to Canada to raise a Canadian contingent for South Africa (applause) and to supplement that by a second and a third contingent, enhanced by the magnificent patriotism and generosity of Lord Strathcona, who had raised a splendid body of cavalry at his own expense. The Canadian and Australian boys had stood shoulder to shoulder with the Imperial troops, and by God's grace had established the right of England to establish that rule of justice consistent with their inborn sense of liberty in a country that for some time had been administered in

A VERY OPPOSITE SENSE AND TEMPER.

When he thought of how the Canadian ranchman and the Australian ranchman had managed together to show to the old country and her soldiers some of the advantages of their different modes of scouting and warfare, by means of which reverses had been avoided and disasters put on one side, he could not forget that the Canadian church and the Australian church were engaged in a warfare for a still more glorious Monarch, and for the attainment of nothing less than the kingdoms of this world being brought into the Church of Christ. It might be that these two new churches might show to the mother church from which they sprang the new policy by which success might at last be achieved. There was a great cooperation possible between Canada and Australia. The meetings they were now holding would be a power for good in the future. Additional people would take an interest in their work, and the interest of a co-operation laboring would be deepened and intensified." (Applause.)
