ONE of the most remarkable aquatic contests ever held on Sydney harbor took place yesterday afternoon. The contestants were two well known oarsmen from P. E. I. and two from the Upper Provinces. The stakes were $25. A side, and the course from Dobson's wharf to Anderson's Point and return. The race started at 3.30 and when turning the first buoy which was one mile from the start—a foul took place by Hugh hitting his oar on the Grand bank of the park. He became so dazed that everything appeared a blank. The wrecked crews were rescued by a passing tug.—Sydney Record 22nd.

F. W. HODGSON, dominion live stock commissioner, is at the Royal. Mr. Hodgson is having his first vacation in twelve years of unremitting attention to the duties of his department. While his health is not all that could be desired, still Mr. Hodgson says the sensational rumors that he was on the verge of a complete breakdown and intended resigning his position as had been stated by a Toronto newspaper, was entirely incorrect. He intends taking a month's rest, and expects at the end of that time to be able to resume his work, and said to the Sun that he had no intention of resigning his position.—St John Sun.

The following letter of condolence was passed to Bro. Ira Munn, Hopetown, P. E. I.: We the officers and members of Jubilee L. O. L. desire to extend to you and the other members of the family an expression of heart felt sorrow and brotherly sympathy in the trial which has come upon you in the death of your beloved sister. But, dear brother, it reminds us each one that our days are as a shadow and we would therefore commend you to the God of all comfort, praying that He will grant unto each sorrowing heart the comfort He alone can bestow, for it is He that heath the broken hearted and bindeth up the wounds of his people. And when we consider the change that your dear sister has passed through in passing from time to eternity and the hope that is given us that she has gone to a happy home where she is free from all pain and sorrow to dwell with Him who hath suffered both pain and sorrow for her, we as he may say, Thy will oh God be done: Signed on behalf Jubilee L. O. L. No 1551.

The eleventh annual picnic of Refuge Division, No. 201, S. of T., Fredericton was held on the beautiful grounds of George W. H. Stevenson, on Saturday, the 22nd inst. The day being an ideal one for such an occasion, a large number of the members and their friends were present and heartily enjoyed themselves in the various games and amusements. After doing ample justice to the good things provided by the ladies, the members of the Division headed by their banner paraded the grounds, at the close of which a short program was rendered consisting of addresses by the Rev. George A. Sellar, Pleasant Valley; Rev. E.S. Weeks, Tabusintac, N. B.; and Rev. S. J. Cann, Newton, Mass. recitations by Phoebe Buchanan and Ada Stevenson and music by Mrs. G. A. Sellar and R. L. Hill. Three hearty cheers were then given for Refuge Division which brought the proceedings to a close.

A VERY pretty wedding took place at the home of H. A. and Mrs. Ling, 43 Glendale St., on Wednesday evening, June 21st., when his sister, Henrietta Marie, was united in marriage to Joseph Hearn, of Auburn, Maine. Rev. Albert L. Ward, pastor of the St. James Street Church of Christ, of Roxbury, performed the ceremony, Miss Elizabeth A. Ling acting as bridesmaid and Ernest C. Phillips, a brother of Mrs. Ling's, as best man. The bride looked very charming in a gown of light grey silk crepe de chine, with trimmings of white lace, and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid was becomingly dressed in an eer silk ponge, embroidered in pale blue, and carried pink carnations. Only immediate friends and relatives were present. The bride, who was given away by her brother, was the recipient of many valuable and useful gifts. Light refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Hearn left amid showers of rice for their home in Auburn, where resides a sister of the bride, Mrs. Albert A. Walker. —(Everett Republican). Mrs. Joseph Hearn is the daughter of Jacob and Mrs. Ling of New Glasgow, P. E. I.]
