IF YOU TAKE IT AT THE START

And Use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets You'll Never Really Know What Dyspepsia Means. The time to cure indigestion is right at the start, before it makes eating a labor and sleeping a nightmare. Before it gets firmly fixed in the body with all its aches and despondency. Take Dodd's Tablets at the start and your Dyspepsia will cure as quickly as you will never realize what Dyspepsia really means. But if your indigestion has become Dyspepsia—and got you firmly in its clutches there is no reason to despair. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets have cured thousands of cases just as bad as yours. They'll do it again. They never fail. Take the case of Hens Trudel of Three Rivers, Que. He says: "My Dyspepsia made alarming progress to the point that I was discouraged. Every day saw me almost in despair, when I gave Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets a trial. Today I have no headache, no weariness, no pain. I am cured."

RIVER DRIVER DROWNED.

St. John, May 13.—Fred Garrin, a young man, while engaged in ice-driving on the Creek near Bloomfield, King's Co., this afternoon fell in from a log of which he was standing. He was a good swimmer and started to swim ashore, but suddenly sank close to the bank to rise no more. He leaves a widow and child.

GREATLY ALARMED.

By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. H. P. Barbeau, a student at law in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuing cough which he says "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Barbeau, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." Sold by all druggists.

SUNDAY CAR RUNNING.

OTTAWA, May 13.—A large delegation waited on Sir Wilfrid Laurier this morning regarding the violation of Lord's day law in Ontario, by the electric railways operating under the Dominion charters. Petitions against Sunday cars were presented, and a strong memorial was placed in the premier's hands by Rev. M. Shearer and others. Sir Wilfrid made the customary pledge that the matter would receive his thoughtful consideration.

ALL DRUGGISTS WARRANT EVERY BOTTLE.

Nothing Else Would Satisfy Him.

He—What shall we buy our little Willie for Christmas? She—I'm afraid nothing will keep him quiet but a new drum.

She Came Back at Him. "I mustered up enough courage last night to ask my wife if she knew that some wise man has said that a 'maximum of talk is a sign of a minimum of thought'."

Between Friends. Kitty—So you are going to marry Fred after all? Bertha—He said if I did not marry him he'd shoot himself. Kitty—Oh, you cruel girl! You believe in lingering rather than short and quick punishment.

It does not return Johannesburg, will sigh regretfully but thankfully, as the man sighs who has sent his loved ones over sea before the first shot is fired. It returns—but that, as somebody else would say, is another story.—Edgar Wallace in London Mail.

A FARMER CURED OF RHEUMATISM. "A man living on a farm near here came to my short time ago completely disabled with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and I was not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Rayder, of Patten's Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'Give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by all druggists.

Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham of Chicago, whose letter follows, is another woman in high position who owes her health to the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered for several years with general weakness and bearing-down pains, caused by womb trouble. My appetite was poor, and I would lie awake for hours, and could not sleep, until I seemed more weary in the morning than when I retired. After reading one of your advertisements I decided to try the merits of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so glad I did. No one can describe the good it did me. I took three bottles faithfully, and besides building up my general health, it drove all disease and poison out of my body, and made me feel as spry and active as a young girl. Mrs. Pinkham's medicines are certainly all they are claimed to be."—Mrs. M. E. Thomson, 847 East Ohio St., Chicago, Ill.—$6000.00. Refer to original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

More than a million women have regained health by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If the slightest trouble appears which you do not understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for her advice, and a few timely words from her will show you the right thing to do. This advice costs you nothing, but it may mean life or happiness or both.

BLATCHFORD'S CALF MEAL

The thrifty farmer raises Calves cheaply and successfully with little or no milk by using BLATCHFORD'S CALF MEAL.

"We are satisfied the calves can be raised successfully on Blatchford's Calf Meal and water."—A. J. Paulson, New Holstein, Wis. "The feed furnished for this experiment was very pure, palatable and nourishing. Enclosed is a photograph of the calves which certainly appear to have appreciated the appetizing feed you supplied."—A. A. Brigham, P. H. D., Rhode Island Agricultural Experiment Station, Kingston, R. I. "We have indications of some very good results from feeding Blatchford's Calf Meal."—J. J. Edgerton, U. S. A., Iowa Agricultural Experiment Station, Ames, Ia. "It is very good for preventing scouring. I fed it to my calves last spring and shall feed it more. There is nothing else you can feed that will make calves grow so fast."—Frank J. Goodenow, Franklinville, N. Y. For Sale by

Style and Finish

Without quality can't make permanent business, but quality without style and finish never gets any business. It's so the world over, so we crowd in our Books all that catches the eye—but we never forget to put into them that inherent wearing value, which makes them "Stand the Racket."

One of the correct things for men's wear is a heavy soled box-calf with wide toe, also a Patent Calf on same last—four fifty, $4.50. Worth it! Worth More!

J. H. BELL, The Reliable Shoeman

CLEANLINESS

There is no need of going into details. Every housekeeper knows that what we say is true. We handle the kind of soap that cleans, because they are clean themselves. Such soaps are better and cheaper than the impure dye filled kind. They go farther and last longer. Ask us about our best kind.
