Quarterly Session

the Keir Memorial Presbyterian Church, Malpeque on Tuesday July 19th.
The Presbytery then adjourned to meet in the Presbyterian Church Belfast, at 7 P. M. Tuesday June 14th for the induction of the Rev. D. I. Griffie into the pastoral charge of the Belfast Congregation, of which public intimation was given, and the meeting was closed with the Benediction by the Moderator the Rev. Fred Williamson.

GEO. T. LAVERS

In the death on May 4th of George T. Lavers, another veteran resident of Georgetown has passed to his eternal rest. Mr. Lavers, who was the son of the late John Lavers, was born in Georgetown 78 years ago and saw many changes in the town and province during his life.
He learned the trade of moulder in the Vulcan foundry conducted by the late Mr. Rutherford. This foundry, which passed out of existence many years ago, carried on an extensive business at a time when home industries flourished in this province.

Lighthouse Nan at St. Teresa's Hall

The St. Patrick's Road Dramatic Club was greeted with a capacity audience on the evening of March 10, when they presented their three act comedy drama "Lighthouse Nan."
The cast included many new characters, and if the applause and appreciation evident in the hall be any criterion of the success of their efforts, they are certainly worthy of congratulations.
It would be unfair to particularize when each one did his or her part so creditably but we must make special reference to Miss Muriel Stewart, who acted the part of "Nan" in a manner to captivate the hearty enthusiasm of the audience.
As special music was provided by our well known violinists Messrs Ward, Crane and Hector MacDonald accompanied by Leonard MacDonald on the mandolin.
Also a reading by Mr. Oliver Jay was greatly enjoyed.
An exhibition of step dancing by Messrs Vernon and Jimmy MacDonald was also a pleasing number.
The entire production reflects great credit upon the "directors and cast and the W. I. of St. Patrick's Road" is to be commended upon the action in providing the public with such a pleasing entertainment.

JOHN CAREW

There passed away at East Baltic at the home of his brother on Sunday, May 8th, 1932, after a long illness John Carew at the age of 67 years.
The late John Carew possessed a sterling character and had won the respect of those who had known him. During his illness which he bore with Christian patience and fortitude he was visited by his pastor Rev. R. J. McDonald and consoled by the rites of Holy Mother Church. He is survived by two brothers and one sister: Thomas of Annisquam, Mass.; Frederick of East Baltic, and Mrs. M. H. Daggett of Los Angeles, Calif.
The funeral was held on Tuesday morning May 10th, from the residence of his brother to St. Columba's Church where High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by Father McDonald and the remains tenderly laid in the adjoining cemetery. The pall bearers were: Robert W. Dixon, Colin Dixon, Arthur Keene, John E. McEachern, Dan'el Grady, and Isadore Murphy. May his soul rest in peace.

ST. PATRICK'S ROAD WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Member of St. Patrick's Road Women's Institute met for their May meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Trainor with an attendance of eight members. Roll call was answered with a garden hint. Minutes of last meeting were read and signed. Discussion took place on poultry. The play "Lighthouse Nan" was reported a great success and it was decided to stage same for any other Institute desiring them to do so.
Meeting closed with the National Anthem after which lunch was served by hostess and social hour spent. Next meeting at Mrs. Chas. Rogers's. roll call to be "My Favorite Flower."
