War Means Exit of Glamor Girl Mary's Right

NEW YORK, June 25 (CP) - The Glamor Girl, says one who ought to know, is on the way out and will be supplanted both in the eyes and in men's hearts by a girl who is the Gay Girl - who's real to her man.

Eastern Steamship Lines, BOSTON $10 One Way $18.40 Round Trip

Glamor Girl, she explains. "She looked beautiful, but that was all. She doesn't fit into the picture any more. The war and a good many other things have made us want something better than that."

Gay But Wifely Miss Pickford, who during the First Great War picked her screen jobs at from $2,000 to $10,000 a week, plus share of profits, went on: "There's a new girl coming to take the Glamor Girl's place. She'll have both a physical and a mental appeal. Natural hair, simple, smart clothes, not much make-up."

Imported Parasite Attacks The Larch Sawfly (Science Service News) The larch sawfly is a European insect which was first reported in the United States in 1881.

pletion of feeding the larva drops to the ground to spin its cocoon, from which an adult fly emerges the following spring. The adult, upon emergence, deposits its eggs in slits in the new shoots. After an incubation period of a few days a new generation of larvae issues from the eggs, and the injury by the insect is repeated.

deal more sleep and rest and to eat quantities of the calory-rich foods. Thin or overweight, however, she will correct her posture and in so doing eliminate a hollow-shouldered look and the lump on the back of her neck.

To refine the texture of skin which is soon to be exposed to both sun and speculators, she recommends attention to her long-handled bath brush. She scrubs vigorously with a coarse bath towel. The towel removes dead cuticle and stimulates circulation, which is important.

LAUGH AT THOSE NOSE-TO-MOUTH LINES If it has been longer than you care to admit since you looked closely at your mouth and considered its appearance from every angle, how about doing so right now? Don't let all the talk about eyes being the focal point of beauty convince you for a moment that the mouth isn't a conspicuous feature.

PROPER OUTLINING As a start toward applying lipstick to achieve a certain effect instead of simply brushing color into the face, buy a lip brush. With this, proper outlining can be done. The spaces inside the lines may be filled in easily. Hollywood makeup experts approve of this method.

KEEPING AWAY LINES Keeping lips tightly together, lift the corners of the mouth and grin. Don't merely smile. Keep lips together and GRIN. Grin until the corners of your mouth seem to be pushing upward against cheek bones. Relax and repeat.
