THIS NOTICE ISSUED BY

DEPARTMENT OF NATIONAL DEFENCE FOR AIR

TO A RED CROSS NURSE

God sent them to earth with His blessing
To help in this terrible fight,
To ease the pain of the suffering
To brighten the darkest night.

God knew how our soldiers suffer
He knew of their dark despair,
So He sent them "The Angels of Mercy
With their smile and golden hair.

Like the sunbeams that shine through the portholes.
Of a cellar that is dark and drear,
Is the smile of a nurse to a soldier
That is suffering over there.

Like the touch of his gentle mother
As he thinks of the days gone by
Is the touch of an Angel of Mercy
To a suffering soldier boy.

God sent His son to suffer
For us in the days gone by
He was used like a beast of the pasture
And left on the cross to die.

God sent the Angels of Mercy
To ease the suffering of man
When they call at your door for your offering
Just dig down and give what you can.
