THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

It pays to buy in this Province.

Mrs. H. J. Casley and son Alvin, arrived in this city from Saskatoon, on the Express Tuesday night.

All interested in The Guardian contest should read the Tour article and standing of candidates on page 6.

J. J. Sayre, Moncton, who came over to see the recent Lewis McDonald wrestling bout, leaves this morning on return. Mr Sayre, who was registered at the Wallace Hotel, informed The Guardian last evening that Sandy McLeod was to wrestle Dan McDonald in Moncton on December ninth, the evening after McLeod wrestles Lewis here. The Moncton sports will see a good match, both of these men have appeared here and have made quite an impression on local followers of the game. It will be an old country Scot against a Scotch Canadian and the best of it all is they are each champion middleweights in their country.

CUNNINGHAM TRIAL.

them and went home. This was about 10 o'clock. When I crossed the street prisoner called me to wait He came over with a bottle. I took a drink and started for home. Ulford started towards Kildare. I learned on Thursday that Will was missing. I was working then. I heard he was at Sea Cow Pond. We then gave up search until Saturday, when word came he was not there. We then went to Alberton and began searching. I went to Cunningham's and went to prisoner's bedroom, that was Sunday morning, and talked to prisoner about Will. Fred Gavin, who was with me, said it was strange about Will staying away so long. He asked prisoner what he knew about him. Prisoner said he knew nothing. Fred asked him about Will's overcoat. He said, it was lying on a trunk in the room. Fred asked him about the time they went to Alberton. Prisoner said they went to the field about 10 o'clock and left the field again about 11.30 and got home about 12 o'clock. Fred asked if there was anything found in the field next day. Ulford said there was an empty bottle. Prisoner also said, "Oh,yes,left my vest there." Fred asked him how he accounted for having his coat and vest off while the other man had his overcoat on. Prisoner said he couldn't account for it at all. I asked prisoner if he would go out and search for him, and he said he would. He said Will got on the line fence to go home and he looked to be fairly sober. He said he couldn't have been very drunk because they had only one bottle and they had six drinks before they had gone to the field. Fred Gavin asked him if they had quarrelled. Prisoner said he didn't think so. I saw prisoner in his own barn. John McAlduff asked him where is the man, what did you do with him! Before he answered W. D. White took him away. Saw him again on Tuesday. I asked him where he got the liquor, if they had gone back to Alberton for more liquor. He said "no."

Cross examined by Mr McQuarrie nothing further of any importance was adduced.

Sylvester Doucette was called but was not in court.

(On this witness being called, Mr McQuarrie raised an objection to the procedure of the prosecution, to the calling of witnesses whose name were not on the back of the indictment, which witness he had no intimation of being called, which procedure he did not think at all fair to the prisoner,)

T. B. Lewis was the next witness called. "I live in Alberton. Know both Skerry and the prisoner. Have known them since they were boys. I last saw Skerry on evening, June 28th He was in my own store atAlberton. The store is situated about 100 yards

R. and Wireless Officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Cincinnati, O., Philadelphia, Pa., Memphis, Tenn., Davenport, Ia., Columbia, S.
