

DYSPEPSIA OF WOMEN

Special Treatment Required.

Many women suffer from a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not yield to ordinary treatment. While the symptoms are similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines usually prescribed do not restore the patient's normal condition.

There seems to be a kind of dyspepsia caused by arrangement of the female organism. While this appears to be the same as ordinary indigestion it can be relieved only by a medicine which, besides acting as a stomach tonic, is good for female ailments. Read what such a medicine did for Mrs. Williams:

She says: "Before I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was troubled with dyspepsia and bearing down pains in my back and sides, and after my meals my stomach would bloat up till I could scarcely get my breath. At times I was so weak I could hardly stand on my feet and I looked hollow-eyed and my skin was yellow. Now I have a good color, have gained in every way and can do my work without any pains. I think it is the best medicine on earth for stomach troubles of women."—Mrs. NELLIE WILLIAMS, 21 West 8d Street, New Albany, Ind.

CHILD'S SEVERE STOMACH TROUBLE

Harriston (Ont.) Father says Dr. Cassell's Tablets saved his Child's Life.

Mr. Corby, Harriston, P. O., Ont., writes: "Our little girl was weak from birth, and though we tried doctors' medicine and other things she got no better. She just lay in her cot and cried, and neighbours all said we could not save her. The doctors said she had stomach trouble, and that her chances were small, yet Dr. Cassell's Tablets cured her. They have been worth their weight in gold to us, for we were just giving up hope of saving our little daughter. I don't think there is any other medicine for children like Dr. Cassell's Tablets. Publish this letter if you like; it may help others as the Tablets helped us."

MAJOR A. SULLIVAN HOME FROM FRANCE ON FURLOUGH

Major Arthur Sullivan, of the 43rd Canadian Cameron's, son of Sir Wilfrid Sullivan, has arrived in Charlottetown on a short visit to his father. Major Sullivan before enlisting in 1915 was a barrister in Winnipeg a partner of Sir Hugh John Macdonald. It is fourteen years since the Major left Charlottetown to practise law in the West having completed his studies here and in England. The 43rd Battalion was formed in Winnipeg and went to France in December, 1915, going into the front line immediately. Major Sullivan was a lieutenant at that time and was promoted to his Captaincy and Majority in the field. The 43rd was in the Ypres salient for seven months then went to the Somme and next to Vimy Ridge. To the regiment belongs the honor of capturing the village of Petit Vimy. This is just on the eastern slope of Vimy Ridge. Major Sullivan comes direct from England. He left France about the middle of April and comes home on special leave to see his father who has not been well. His brother, the late Lieut. Wilfrid Sullivan, who was killed on October 8th last, was also in the 43rd Battalion. Major Sullivan was in England on leave at the time. The Major looks exceedingly well and his numerous friends on the Island are delighted to see him again. His description of life and incidents in warfare are decidedly interesting but he does not consider it advisable to give out any details along this line for publication. He expects to remain home for a couple of weeks before leaving on return to France.

Mr. James Donavan of the S. S. Stanley arrived in the City yesterday on a visit to his home. He says the steamer ashore near Loutsbury which the Stanley has been trying to float is in a very dangerous position on the rocks. She was from France in ballast.

OTTAWA LETTER

With the defection of Hon. George P. Graham, the English-speaking Liberal leader in the Commons, and the certainty that there will be an almost solid Liberal vote from Ontario and the west for conscription and against a referendum, members of Parliament have not the slightest doubt that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will end his public career with the present session. It is known that already aspirants for the position are sizing up the situation as to their chances. The House leaders who are credited with being ambitious to succeed him, are Hon. George P. Graham, Hon. William Pugsley and the hon. member for Picton, Mr. E. M. McDonald. Indeed the vigorous attempt made by the first-named gentleman, in breaking with his leader, to appease the anti-conscriptionists in his speech on the conscription bill, is taken to mean that he had an eye on the Liberal caucus which will probably elect the successor. Up to twenty-four hours before he made his speech it was expected that Mr. Graham would stick to his leader, but apparently the overwhelming sentiment of Ontario decided him. It is a question whether Liberals outside Parliament would be prepared to permit a caucus, which would be dominated by Quebec, to select a new leader. It was the revolt of the Liberals in Ontario and the west, outside of Ottawa, which forced the general break of the party, although a few of the Liberal members have all along stood out for conscription. In connection with the leadership the name of Mr. Hugh Guthrie is also mentioned. His courage in taking the lead on the conscription issue, coupled with his unusually brilliant speech, has made him very prominent in the country just now. The second week of the conscription debate opens with a clearer political landscape. Unless something unexpected happens the bill will be given a second reading by the end of the week. The six months hoist amendment moved by the Nationalist member, Barette, will get only small support. The referendum proposition, fathered by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, will also be badly beaten. The main motion is expected to pass with a handsome majority so far as the Government is concerned the debate on the bill this week is to be rigidly curtailed. The declared policy of the Government is to get the measure on the statute books with the least possible delay. There are yet, however, a goodly number of Liberals, conscriptionists, as well as anti-conscriptionists, who are desirous of placing themselves on record, and for this reason the discussion of the measure may be prolonged a few days. It is not expected that there will be any blocking tactics. When the bill goes into committee, the Government as already announced by the Prime Minister, will welcome suggestions and be prepared to accept them should they prove to be of a constructive character and not designed to impair the efficiency of the bill or undermine its principle. Once through both Houses of Parliament the bill becomes law by proclamation, but just how soon will depend upon circumstances. There will not, however, be any great delay. Reinforcements in Britain are sufficient for not more than a few months, and the first drafts will be made in time to ensure continued reserve power of Canadian divisions at the front.

When you want Pretty Patterns in Linoleums and Mattings see Ours.

Dear Mary:— I've just finished "putting down" my new linoleums and mattings. How neat and clean my kitchen looks! How cool my bedrooms are and how easy to sweep and keep tidy! My "girl" just sings as she works. She was getting cross before. I don't blame her. I ought to have been considerate of her surroundings as well as my own. When you come over and see how refreshed my whole home is since I've fixed the floors, you too will get some new linoleum and matting. Come over—HELEN P. S. You get yours where I got mine - from

Are You an Asset to Canada— or are You a Liability?

ARE you helping to win the War? Or could Canada put up a better fight without you? Are you working—saving—paying—to back up the men at the front? Or are you loafing—wasting—spending on selfish indulgences the money that should be loaned to the Nation? Man-power is at a premium! The time and strength of every man in Canada should be devoted whole-heartedly to really useful work—work that will help, directly or indirectly, in the Struggle. Food is short the world over! Every housewife in Canada should devote herself earnestly to the problem of conserving it—of feeding our people well, yet economically and without waste. Everyone should save—and lend the savings to the nation! Canada needs every dollar you can invest in War Savings Certificates, and for every $21.50 you loan now, she will repay you $25.00 at the end of three years—or you can get your money back at any time. Certificates are issued in denominations of $25, $50 and $100, which may be purchased at $21.50, $43 and $86 respectively, at any Bank or Money Order Post Office.
