MURDER AT BELMONT, N. S. SON KILLS MOTHER

WINDSOR, N. S., Feb. 7.—A shocking murder was committed a few miles from Windsor this afternoon, at Belmont, Hants County, when Mrs. Sanford, a widow, was killed with an axe by her son Henry who is supposed to be of unsound mind.

Three hours after the murder the young man who is only 21 years old was arrested on Water Street here by R. Conlon, policeman. The news was telephoned to W. R. Christie, Crown Prosecutor of Windsor, soon after the brutal deed was done.

He at once notified police Conlon who is also the town jailor to be on the lookout for the man who had intimidated his intention of coming to give himself up.

Mr. Conlon started out to look for the man and, seeing someone walking along Water Street that answered to the description of the man wanted, asked him if his name was Sanford and if he was the man who that afternoon had murdered his mother.

The man admitted that he was. He could not speak plainly and on being asked his name said it was "Henry." He is now in the Windsor jail. Dr. Reid of Windsor was sent for and hurried to the scene of the crime. An inquest is now being held.

Mrs. MacKenzie, who was one of the leaders in the suffrage campaign, which resulted in the enfranchisement of California women recently, was refused registration by a ruling of the board of election commissioners. In her petition filed yesterday Mrs. MacKenzie asks for a writ of Mandamus compelling the board to allow her to register. Then he suggested that the Liberals should vote for the Borden policy and both parties unite on getting expert advice from the British Admiralty on a permanent policy to be submitted to the people in a plebiscite.

Col. McLean opened his speech by declaring that he was still a Liberal and intended to remain so but on this question he would take his own stand and refuse to answer to the party lash.

THE MEN WHO ARE HIGHER UP

ABSTINENCE IN LENT

LONDON, Feb. 2.—The Bishop of Birmingham, dismissing the question of fasting during Lent in the Birmingham Diocesan Magazine, speaks thus of the danger of overstrict adherence to the rules of abstinence: "I have found something that the Anglican takes even the rules of fasting too literally. Some day I hope the Church will deal with the whole question of abstinence on lines suited to our own age and circumstances. I only ask now for a judicious and wise observance on the part of devoted enthusiasts, but no words can be too strong in calling upon people generally to use Lent as a season for not clothing themselves in or even increasing the garments of undue and selfish luxury."
