Rollo Bay and Vicinity

Mr. John Curran, St. Teresa's, who has been in Rollo Bay for the past couple of weeks on a business trip has returned to his home.

Mrs. Raymond H. Talbot, Cousins Island, Maine, was a visitor to Rollo Bay Saturday the guest of her cousin Mrs. MacCormac.

Mr. Joseph MacAuley, Souris West, was a visitor to Morell Sunday.

Mr. Alec Morrison, St. Georges, was a recent visitor to Rollo Bay.

Messrs Jack Sweeney, Souris, Frank MacDonald, Rollo Bay and Frank Gallant, New Acadia, have returned to their homes after spending the past few months in the lumberwoods.

We regret to learn that there is a case of diphtheria in East Point, the young son of John Gillis being the victim.

Sunday visitors to Rollo Bay included Mr. and Mrs. Peter MacCormac, St. Charles, J. P. Deagle, J. D. Chaisson, Bear River, and J. J. MacCormac, Souris River.

The illness of Miss Mary Emily White, Rollo Bay Centre, is learned with regret.

Mr. Keith Arbing, Station agent at Bear River, was a recent visitor to Charlottetown.

Mrs. Lazaar Leaver, Souris East, is visiting friends in Rollo Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pippy, Hazel Brook, were recent visitors to Rollo Bay the guests of Mrs. F. H. Keeffe.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Preston Bryanton on the birth of a young son.

At Bear River North at the home of her son John, the death occurred of Mrs. Paddy MacDonald. Funeral took place Monday from her late residence to St. Margaret's where the funeral mass was sung by Rev. K. C. MacPherson who also officiated at the grave.

We regret to learn that Mr. Joe Conway, Gowan Brae, is seriously ill with pneumonia. We hope for his speedy recovery.

the eastern schools this week. While enroute to St. Peters he received the sad news that his mother died in Boston. The body is expected to arrive home Friday.

Mr. H. J. MacCormac, Dundas, was a recent visitor to Rollo Bay.

What might have been a serious accident was narrowly averted Sunday when four young people arriving in a new jaunting sleigh were thrown out when the sleigh struck a sharp sidling in the road the horse, ran with the sleigh on its side. Fortunately the sleigh uprighted itself so no damage was done. The horse went home. Needless to say excitement and curiosity reigned for some time in Rollo Bay.

The following taken from the March issue of the Oakland "Maple Leaf" will be of interest to many here. In part it reads—Rollo Bay near Souris P. E. Island has a distinguished son in California. This is Rev. Brother Andrew of the Christian Brethren, now principal of St. Mary's Jr. High school in Berkeley. Brother Andrew spent the past eight years the city of Manila, Philippine Island and Singapore, India. Rev. Brother's name in the world was Phillip White. He was seventeen years of age when he entered the Novitia. He has two sisters in religion, Sr. St. Hildabert, Rustico P. E. I. and Sr. St. Cyril, New Glasgow, N. S.

Mount Stewart Notes

We are sorry to hear of the painful accident which occurred to Mrs. Artemas Cook on Monday. While her and her husband and little grandson were driving from Pisquid to Mt. Stewart, it is understood that on encountering a bank of snow which was high on one side, the sleigh upset, throwing the occupants out. Mrs. Cook sustained a dislocated shoulder, Dr. A. B. Martin was summoned and set the shoulder. The other occupants escaped uninjured, except for being slightly shaken up.

Mr. Joseph Trainor returned home on Tuesday from the P. E. I. Hospital, where he underwent an operation about eight weeks ago.

Mr. Ira Douglas, Charlottetown, spent a few days at his old hometown, here.

Judging by the number of new houses which are being erected here, one would be led to believe that the "Building Boom" is in full swing. We can't just say whether it is due to the Presidential election or not, but at any rate the north-west end of the town is beginning to look up.

Mr. Maurice Griffin returned home a few days ago, after spending the winter in Moncton, N. B.

Mr. D. Riley, Montague, was in Mt. Stewart recently.

Miss Gertrude Gotell, Charlottetown, was in Mt. Stewart visiting relatives and friends.

The three-act play, namely, "The Village Postmistress" which was staged by the Mt. Stewart Dramatic Club, on Thursday night, was a huge success. The hall was taxed to its utmost capacity, besides over a hundred people who had to return home, not being able to even secure standing room. The five-piece orchestra composed of Mt. Stewart and Card-gan talent, certainly done their "bit" to make the play a success. Special mental might be made of the Specialties, which consisted of songs by Mr. Frederick Smith and step-dancing by Miss Fostina Gotell of Georgetown. The following is the cast:—Molly Kittredge, the Postmistress—Mary McDonald.

Hannah Webster, one who had had her own way—Ernestine Grant.

Alice Plummer, who lives with Mrs. Webster—Bessie McLeod.

Hazel Roberts, School Teacher from the city—Glady's Affleck.

Martha Stetson, a Neighbor—Lena McIntyre.

Rebecca Carter, a Neighbor—Jeanette McDonald.

David Jameson, a man of peace—Otis MacAsay.

John Webster, in love with Alice—Clarence McDonald.

Bart Hackett, blind but newsworthy—Lane Pigot.

Jabe Kehdall, the Village Politician—Aeneas McDonald.

Frank Sanders, the Stage Driver—Guy Glover.

Hiram Preston, a Farmer—Harold Affleck.

The Stranger, a Detective—Stirling Clark.

Well folks, here we are again tuned in on Station N.A.I.A. Now for news items.

A large number of the Cove hockey fans attended the hockey match Saturday night at Victoria between the Victoria Unions and Charlottetown Abbies. A large crowd was assembled to witness a fast clean game which ended in a victory for the Unions by a score of 4 to 2. Hurrah! for the Unions.

The people of this vicinity were saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. Bent, who passed away in Prince County Hospital Summerside. The deceased moved here from Summerside some time ago and had made many friends while in our midst. To the bereaved we offer our sincerest sympathy in their sad loss of a true sister.

See? Looks as though spring is around the corner. But not to be sure as an old saying "March come in like a lamb and will end like a lion." So beware.

"Listeners in" on Tuesday heartily enjoyed the old time concert broadcast through CFCY by Mr. R. C. Howatt of Cape Traverse, assisted by Mr. Gordon McCallum, Bedeque. We all wish to congratulate those who took part and hope for more future programs.

The Messrs Spurgeon and Wesley Cann of Clyde River were recent visitors to Augustine Cove the guests of their brother Mr. Wilfred Cann.

Quite a number of "spud men" are at present busy hauling spuds to Carleton for market. The prices are not yet exceedingly good, but they hope for better.

Miss Etta Cann, Crapaud spent the week end in Augustine Cove the guest of her niece Miss Buelah Robinson and left on Tuesday by the Borden train for a visit in Summerside with her sister Mrs. John D. McLeod, King St.

Mr. Frank MacFarlane was a visitor to Charlottetown Monday and was one of the referees of the hockey match between the Abbies and Victoria Unions.

Miss Vera Leard left Sunday on a visit to Freetown where she will be the guest of her sisters.

Mr. Archie Robinson was a visitor to Carleton Siding Tuesday morning.

Pownal News

The funeral of the late Richard Carver was held from MacLean's Funeral Home, Charlottetown to Pownal where a public service was held in the United Church at 3.30. The following Clergymen were present and took part in the exercises. Dr. Ramsay, Trinity Church, Charlottetown, Reverends R. W. Lindsay, Baptist Church, Hazelbrook and F. H. Littlejohns, United Church, Pownal. The late Mr. Carver passed away at the home of his sister, Mrs. Peardon, Charlottetown. All that could be done was done, but he has shuffled off this mortal coil, and has taken his last appealing look at the meadow; grove and glade, the scenes of his labors that proved sources of joy and pleasure to him in life. He has forever closed the gates of his manor, and with his characteristic bravery turned his face to the West as the sun was sinking beneath the horizon of his life. Among the chief mourners were his son, Mr. Arthur Carver and Mrs. Carver who arrived in the City the preceding day. Mr. Carver was for many years one of Pownal's successful farmers and many friends here extend sympathy to the Son and daughter Mrs. Westmoreland, Regina, who have lost a kind and affectionate father.

Mr. William Drake, Waterside was a visitor to the city on Saturday. On Monday night a very happy and profitable time was spent at the Manez Hazelbrook when supper was served also ice cream, the latter was in perfect condition, the thermometer registering something below zero. The good ladies of Hazelbrook certainly know how to bake good things as well as swell their bank account such good pastry should almost bring to light some further engagement announcement, music and games passed the evening too quickly, the Pastor adding much in his very happy jolly manner.

The March meeting of the Pownal W. M. S. met on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Arthur Jenkins, Pownal Village. A large crowd of members and visitors were present. The President, Miss Joyce Lane presided and a splendid meeting was held. A solo by Mrs. Nat MacKinnon was very much enjoyed, also a poem by Mrs. A. A. Moore. A beautiful supper was served at the close.

Still our spinster ladies have not given up hopes as they are hooking with more zest than ever this spring. We will be looking eagerly forward to the exhibition prize list this summer.

Southern News

The arrival of the wild geese will tell us definitely that spring is here. They have not yet been seen in this locality.

There has been so much sickness in these balliwicks during the past winter that Dr. Brehaut's powers of mind and body have frequently been taxed to the limit. He has one faculty however that has not been exhausted. No matter how sorely tried, his patience, and not less remarkable is his cheerfulness.

The snow has almost completely vanished from our shore road and this makes very bad hauling.

If there is a good market for starch, it would be very desirable that the factories should open up and provide an outlet for potatoes. Just now potatoes are something to be looked at and regarded with a fierce and withering glance as being the cause of much cry and little wool.

One of our most competent accountants has estimated that there have been 24-1-5 dimensions in the recent changes of the weather. Another eminent calculator pledges his reputation that 4-5 of a dimension could easily be added to round out the number to 25. This he discovered when he tumbled head foremost into a snowbank, 4-5 of his dimension being in and 1-5 out, the latter being his boots.

After an illness of some ten weeks, Mr. Milburn Dixon of Little Sands departed this life in the P. E. Island Hospital. His funeral was one of the largest processions seen here in many years. He will be greatly missed in this community.

In form and substance The Guardian must now take a high place amongst the leading dailies of Canada. It's special articles, editorials, and poetical selections are admirable.

And it must not be supposed that it's sporting page, among a virile people, is overlooked, on the other hand it is avidly read by all classes.

MISS JESSIE MACPHERSON
The passing of Miss Jessie MacPherson of Kinross, at Concord St. Hospital, Cambridge, Mass., was keenly felt by all who knew and loved her. Although only in her twentieth year, she showed true appreciation for the higher and better things of life and all her acts reflected a true Christian faith and spirit of worth. Her outlook in life bore testimony to this spirit and has left its mark on the minds of many.

With rare cheerfulness, she performed her duties in the home, the community, the church, and her happy life, like a beautiful flower, radiated joy.

Friends in Cambridge contributed beautiful flowers as well as Orwell Head Church Choir. The service was conducted by her pastor Rev. Donald M. Sinclair.

Much sympathy is felt for the sorrowing parents, sisters and brothers. "As a guest who may not stay long and sad farewells to say Glides with smiling face away: Of the sweetness and the zest Of thy happy life possessed. Thou hast left us at thy best, And when fall our feet as fell Thine upon the asphodel Let thy old smile greet us well.

MRS. JOHN T. MURPHY

There passed peacefully away at Kinkora, on Monday, Jan. 28th, Mrs. John T. Murphy, widow of the late John T. Murphy, at the age of 69 years.

The deceased always lived in Newton from her marriage up till about two months before, when she moved to Kinkora for the winter, but expected to return to her home in Newton in the Spring but God willed otherwise.

During her illness she was never heard to complain. She was nursed by her daughter Gertrude, and was attended by Doctor Sharpe, who did everything that could be done for her. She was a kind and tender mother, a most devoted wife and a good neighbor, ever ready to lend a helping hand to those in need. Her general disposition won for her a host of friends and her death will be deeply regretted by all who knew her. She was visited during her illness by her pastor, Rev. Father Smith, from whom she received holy communion on the eve of her death.

Her funeral, which took place to St. Malchis Church, Kinkora, was largely attended, the mass of Requiem being sung by the pastor, who also performed the services at the grave.

She leaves to mourn three daughters and four sons: James of Vancouver; Tom of Vancouver; Eddie of Tacoma, Wash.; Cecil, of New York; Mrs. Thomas E. Deighan, of New York; Mrs. John M. Johnston, of Kinkora; Gertrude at home. Two sisters also survive, Mrs. James Eagan, Enyvale, and Mrs. William Clirkin, North Wilshire; and one brother, James Greenan, Kinkora, also six grand children, and six step children. The pall bearers were: Frank Greenan, John Greenan, W. P. McKenna, Albert McKenna, G. S. McKenna, St. Clair Greenan. May her soul rest in peace.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

On Monday evening, Feb. 11th, a number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Alex F. McLeod, Valleyfield East, called on them to offer hearty congratulations and best wishes on the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding. A very enjoyable evening was spent and just before a bounteous lunch was served to the guests, Mr. Alexander Martin, Grandview, read an appropriate address, while Mr. Munro Bruce, Valleyfield, on behalf of the party presented Mr. and Mrs. McLeod with two beautiful and capacious arm chairs. "Alex" as he is best known, was visibly surprised for the moment but he quickly rose to the occasion and in a humorous speech kindly thanked the donors for their very thoughtful gift in behalf of himself and his amiable partner.

Following is the address: Mr. and Mrs. Alex McLeod:—Dear Friends—On this, the fifteenth anniversary of your wedding we gather here this evening to greet you and offer our hearty congratulations. As each anniversary comes around as a milestone on one's journey through life, it is our earn-
