An Excellent Day's Outing Great Interest Manifested

It was the spirit of wisdom which two years ago prompted the teachers and pupils of West Kent and Queen Square Schools to unite their efforts in holding a Field Day for the furtherance of athletics that with a well trained mind which is one of the main features sought in school life there should be also that other desirable characteristic—a well developed body. Field Day has now become an annual event looked forward to by the pupils with such interest that it has been crowned with the greatest success from its very inception. The sharp yet friendly rivalry which exists between the boys of the two schools has resulted in very creditable performances on track and field which auger well for the future of athletics in Charlottetown. The presentation of medals by Professor C. J. McMillan and Dr. Jenkins for the best athletes in West Kent and Queen Square schools respectively, and one by Mr. P. S. Brown for the best all-round athlete, was a great incentive in Saturday's struggle.

The pupils assembled at their respective schools at 1 o'clock and paraded to the C. A. A. grounds, where they were inspected by Major Weeks and Major Davison as to their efficiency in drill and military movement. In this West Kent School won by one point.

The games commenced at 2 o'clock and were concluded at 6, which speaks well for the officials under whose charge the meeting was conducted.

The pupils of Queen Square scored 116 points to their opponents' 98, thus securing the trophy for the present year.

THE ASTHMATIC'S AGONY.
wakenful night, suffocating sensation, difficult breathing. Who can describe it? This disease, partly nervous, congestive, partly the result of microbe irritation, is no longer treated by nauseous stomach destroying drugs, but by Catarrhoxone, that destroys the microbe, relieves congestion and relaxes the nervous irritability that renders breathing so difficult. The medication is carried by the air you breathe to the very seat of the disease, and removes at once the cause. The great discovery is known as Catarrhoxone. It influences upon Asthma, is simply marvellous. Catarrhoxone prevents as well as cures, and is the only remedy guaranteed to cure. You only need a few cents. Two sizes at a dealer, 25c. and $1.00.

WOUNDS NOT SO BAD AS WAS FIRST FEARED

The President Undergoes a Successful Surgical Operation.

MEETS MRS. MCKINLEY, BOTH BEAR UP WELL.

House Guarded By Troops—Assassin is Cool—Denies Any Plot—His Son and Four Other Suspects Arrested—Vice President Roosevelt Arrives—Extra Precautions for Duke of York's Visit.

BUFFALO, Sept. 7.—It was just after the daily organ recitals in the Temple of Music that the dastardly attempt was made.

The President though well guarded by Secret Service detectives, was fully exposed to the attack. He stood at the edge of the dais upon which stands the great pedal organ.

Thousands of people crowded the entrance to see the Chief of the Executive, and if possible clasp his hand. The President was in cheerful mood and was enjoying to the full the hearty evidences of good will which everywhere met his gaze.

It was shortly after 4 p. m. when, in the throng which surrounded the Presidential party, a medium sized man of ordinary appearance, and plainly dressed in black, approached, as if to greet the President.

Both Secretary Cortellio and President Mil drum noticed that the man's hand was swathed in a bandage or handkerchief. Reports of bystanders differ as to which hand. He worked his way amid the stream of people up to the edge of the dais, until he was within two feet of the President.

The President smiled, bowed and extended his hand in that spirit of geniality which American people so well know, when suddenly the sharp crash of a revolver rang out loud and clear.

The President stood stock still, a look of hesitancy, almost of bewilderment, on his face. Then he retreated a step, while pallor began to steal over his features.

Multitudes, only partially aware that something serious had happened, paused in the silence of surprise, while necks were craned and all eyes turned as one towards the rostrum.

Then came a commotion, three men threw themselves forward as with one impulse and sprang toward the would-be assassin. Two of them were Secret Service men whose duty it was to guard against just such a calamity. The official trio hurled themselves upon the assassin. In a twinkling he was borne to the ground, his weapon wrenched from his grasp, and he was pinioned down before the vast multitude began to realise what had happened.

A murmur arose, spreading and seething toward the stage, while a hoarse cry welled up from a thousand throats, and a thousand men charged forward to lay hands upon the perpetrator.

For a moment the confusion was terrible. Men shouted and fought. Women screamed and children cried. Of the multitude which witnessed, or took part in the scene, there was but one mind which seemed to remain in equilibrium—that of the President.

After the first shock of the assassin's shots, as the detectives leaped upon his assassin, he turned and walked steadily to a chair and seated himself at the same time removing his hat and bowing his head in his hands.

The assassin was hustled off to the police station.

As soon as the crowd in the Temple of Music had been dispersed sufficiently, the President was removed in an ambulance and taken to the hospital within a brief period, and several of Buffalo's best know practitioners were at the patient's bed.

The President retained full exercise of all faculties until placed on the operating table and subjected to anesthetics.

BUFFALO, Sept. 7.—Secretary Cortellio last night, gave out the following statement: The following bulletin was issued by the physicians at 7 p. m. The President was shot about four o'clock. One bullet struck him on the upper portion of the breastbone, glancing and not penetrating.

The second bullet penetrated the abdomen five inches below the left nipple and one and a half inches to the left of the median line.

The abdomen was opened through the line of the bullet wound. It was found that the bullet had penetrated the stomach. The opening in the front wall of the stomach was carefully closed with silk sutures, after which search was made for a hole in the back wall of the stomach. This was found and closed in the same way.

The further course of the bullet could not be discovered although careful search was made.

The abdomen wound was closed without damage.

No injuries to the intestines or other abdominal organs was discovered. The patient stood the operation well. Pulse of good quality, rate of pulse 130. The President's condition at the conclusion of the operation was gratifying.

The result cannot be foretold. His condition at present justifies hope of recovery. The following bulletin was issued by the President's physicians at 10.40 p. m.

President is rallying satisfactorily, and resting comfortably. At 10.50 p. m. his temperature was 100.4; pulse 124; respiration 24.

BUFFALO, Sept. 8.—A bulletin was issued at 5 a. m. The President passed a good night; temperature 102; pulse, 110; respiration, 22.

A FAIRLY COMFORTABLE NIGHT. BUFFALO, Sept. 7.—(Special)—President McKinley passed a fairly comfortable night though his pulse was fast and his temperature high.

WOUNDS NOT SERIOUS AS EXPECTED. The wounds inflicted by the Anarchist, Leon F. Czolgosze, are not as serious as was at first thought.

PRESIDENT SEES MRS. MCKINLEY. The President rests fairly well and when he saw his wife both bore up bravely.

A SUCCESSFUL OPERATION. A surgical operation this afternoon proved highly successful and the patient's pulse dropped from 146 to 136.

GUARDED BY SOLDIERS. The Cartillon House in which the President is lying is guarded by troops.

ASSASSIN DENIES ANY PLOT. The would-be assassin is cool and collected. He denies that there was any plot, but the police are ferreting out his confederates all over the country.

SEVERAL SUSPECTS ARRESTED. An effort is being made to positively identify the prisoner.

ABRAM IZAK, his son and four others have been arrested in Chicago as plot suspects. Izak ran an Anarchist paper called Free Society.

THE VICE PRESIDENT ARRIVES. Vice President Roosevelt arrived at Buffalo Saturday afternoon.

PRECAUTIONS AT MONTREAL. Owing to the McKinley episode the Montreal Chief of Police says, double precautions will be taken when the Duke of York arrives.

CAUSED SENSATION IN ST. JOHN. ST. JOHN, Sept. 7.—(Special)—The report of the attempt to kill the President caused a great sensation in St. John. The Globe got out an edition twenty minutes after the news came.

(Explanations in parentheses by Mr. B. RESPECTED TEACHER.—Peace be to you through the Lord God. From the time the teacher (you) left us, through the seventh and eighth months the evil speaking and threatening was terrible, but during the ninth, tenth, and eleventh months it gradually abated. Your brothers and sisters all enjoyed peace; and we said it is because the teacher has been praying for us.

When we heard the teacher was sick the heart of each found no rest. Again we heard the crisis was past, and all thanked God, constantly asked the Lord to protect our teacher, and fulfil our hope that he may quickly return to shepherd us. Mr. Swai teaches the day school as usual; (school opened and supported by native church) he has eight pupils, seven boys and one girl. Mr. Jang, under Mr. Swai has watched the Mission Compound; no trouble has been met with; neither has it been necessary to use one card; (two cards were left with them by which they might appeal to the officials in my name in case of trouble) everybody is safe, and all is well. Will the teacher please greet Mr. and Mrs. Beaman and Mrs. and Openshaw for us, and wish them peace. Mr. Li, (evangelist employed and paid by the native church, whose full salary could not be made up during the hard times consequent on the Boxer Movement and whose wife therefore remained at the home of his father) this Mr. Li suffered severe persecution on every hand last
