

It reflects "GOOD TASTE"

BUY

Eastern Baked

BUTTERNUT BREAD

Playmate any child would covet is this fawn, being fed by Carol Oeland of Dundalk, Ont. The fleet little fellow shows no fear of Carol or her dog, and the three romp together.

Mrs. Marjorie Hardwood-Smith of Oxford, tries out the new electronic cooker at the British Ministry of Health's exhibition of labour saving devices at the Empire Tea Centre, Regent Street, London. The oven works by high frequency radio waves.

BRUNNER MOND

Calcium Chloride

ENDS DUST

ON

GRAVEL ROADS

Without Extra Cost

For Regular Maintenance

Memorial Service At Geddie Church

Perfect weather, with caressing sea breezes greeted what is believed to be the greatest concourse of people yet to attend the annual memorial service at the Geddie Memorial Church, New London.

The service, conducted by Rev. D. A. Campbell, opened with the hymn, "O God Our Help in Ages Past", with Mrs. Harry Underhill at the organ. This was followed by prayers by Rev. Campbell and scripture reading by Rev. D. E. Noel. There came an impressive moment when the beautiful new monument by Vere Beck & Sons, was unveiled by Mr. W. J. Seaman, who dedicated it to Mr. Campbell to the memory of those who died in the Second Great War.

The laying of wreaths by the Canadian Legion and by many of the wives and mothers and sisters of the fallen, brought the ceremony to a touching conclusion.

The beautiful anthem, "Hallelujah! Christ Is Risen!" by Caleb Simper, was sung by Trinity United Church choir of Summerside, with Mrs. Leigh Calbeck's fine voice taking the solo parts, and Miss Mary Geldart at the organ.

The causes of war and of peace was the subject of a vital and timely address by Rev. G. S. Stevens who said: "We are gathered to perpetuate the memory of our boys who died to save us from a merciless foe. We shall never forget our boys, for they were men of faith and courage. The world today needs such men, for such men are the bulwark of any nation. A splendid memorial has been unveiled to their honor and glory, but nothing can substitute for our fervent efforts toward a permanent peace or we render all their sacrifices utterly vain and futile."

Continuing, he spoke of lust for possession, a spirit of greed and selfishness in individuals and nations, and finally, as a result of the cause of war. "There can be no peace with widespread injustice in the world. There can be no peace in the world without a passion for justice. Prides Germany boasted of her culture and refined social position. Deluded by these false notions, she set the stage for world conflict. Gabriel Heister declared over the air that no nation would dare attack America. We Britons have for centuries boasted of our vast resources and our wealth. How our boasting must have grated on the ears of Hitler and Mussolini! There can be no peace until we have, in some measure, got rid of our self importance. Fear is a staunch ally of war. As a cornered animal becomes ten times more dangerous than normal so it is true of nations.

How are we going to usher in that permanent peace, the world so longs for today? By deeper sympathy for the people of other nations. By seeking to understand their ways of life. We peace-makers in industry, politics, and family and community life. Peace-makers to promote peace and good will. Our boys died! If only we were as willing to live and work for peace, as they die for it!"

The names on both the old and the new monuments were read by the clergymen taking part in the service, and the Last Post was sounded by Buster Roy Grant. A two minutes silence ended with Revellie, sounded by Buster Frank Smith. "Coronation" by Edward Ferronet, was impressively rendered by Trinity choir. Prayers by Rev. Mr. Noel concluded with the Lord's Prayer, in which the congregation joined. Rev. Mr. Campbell thanked all who assisted in any way in the placing of the memorial, and all who helped with the service.

He announced that the new memorial had cost $118.35. Of this total $113.88 had already been received, leaving a debt of $4.47. Ten men, each of whom had served in one of the Great Wars, received the offering of the congregation.

FLY-TOX offers 2 deadly killers for flies & mosquitoes...

Make every surface a DEATH TRAP

FLY-TOX 5% DDT RESIDUAL INSECTICIDE

For quick "KNOCK-DOWN" killing power

FLY-TOX Air Spray

747-2 CANADA REX SPRAY COMPANY LTD. BRIGHTON • ONTARIO

gation, which proved more than sufficient to complete the payment on the monument.

The choir sang as an anthem, "We Cannot Think of Them as Dead."

Rev. Mr. Campbell read the lines of a beautiful poem called "Peace", written by Mr. John R. Marks, out of deep feeling in the stress of World War I.

All joined in singing "Onward Christian Soldiers" and "The King" and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Campbell.

The Guard of Honor, which was in attendance, was composed of veterans of both wars, and was under the command of Lieut.-Col. E. W. Johnstone.

Great credit is due the following committee, who arranged and executed this beautiful and impressive service for this occasion, and who were instrumental in having the monument placed: Messrs. Allison MacLeod, John Fletcher, William E. Johnstone, Hilard Meek and Ernest Dunning. The members of Summerside Trinity choir, who contributed so generously to the beauty of the service, were entertained at supper, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dunning, Long River, and speak very appreciatively of the meal, and of the singing and the fellowship enjoyed there. Those assisting the hostesses were Mrs. Murdoch MacLeod, Mrs. A. A. Campbell, Mrs. Leod, Mrs. A. Johnston, Miss Margaret Campbell, Miss Jean MacLeod and Miss Earith Dunning.

STEWART-NEWMAN WEDDING

Hunter River United Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday evening June 25th, 1947, at 6.30 p. m., when Freda Minnie, second eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Errol John, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil J. Stewart of Hampshire, by the Rev. E. S. Weeks, grand uncle of the bride assisted by Rev. J. I. Morrison, the church was prettily decorated with potted plants and spring flowers by friends of the bride. The bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, to the strains of "Love's Labour's Lost" as beautifully rendered by Mr. Merrill Nicholson, Hazelgrove. The youthful bride looked lovely in a floor length gown of white satin with short train, fashioned, with full skirt and fitted bodice, having a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves with full length veil of net and carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty Roses. She was attended by her sister Vera, maid of honor, who wore a floor length gown of shell pink sheer with matching veil and coronet and carried Tailsman Roses. Miss Mary Brehaut of Lyndale was bridesmaid and wore a floor length gown of ice blue nylon with matching veil and carried Tailsman Roses.

The groom was ably supported by his cousin, Mr. Fulton Kiltson, Hampshire. The guests were ushered to the bar-bonneted pews by Mr. Clifton Stewart, Oshawa, Ont., brother of the groom and Mr. Gordon Boyle, Meadowbank, uncle of the bride.

During the signing of the register, Miss Emma Thomas of Charlottetown sang very sweetly "I Love You Truly."

The bride was wearing a gold bracelet with a heart-shaped locket.

at HOLMAN'S ---

TIME FOR CANNING

Complete Stocks of Everything Needed For Your Successful Preserving and Canning!

"GEM" Screw Top FRUIT JARS

— PINT SIZE. Each 12c Doz. 1.35

— QUART SIZE. Each 12c Doz. 1.58

"Perfect Seal" FRUIT JARS

— PINT SIZE. Each 13c 2 for 25c Doz. 1.35

— QUART SIZE. Each 15c Doz. 1.70

— 1-2 GAL. SIZE. Each 22c Doz. 2.45

JARS & RINGS

— FRUIT JAR SUPPLIES —

Glass Tops— 35c For Gem Jars— 25c

Per dozen Zinc metal rings—6 for

Fruit Jar Rubber Rings— 10c

Pkg. of 12

— MEMBA SEALS —

Package contains—25 outside seals, 25 inner seals, 25 rubber bands and 25 labels for 10c

PAROWAX For Perfect Sealing 15c pkg.

CANNING SUPPLIES

Either plain or enamel lined tins in one, and one and one-half pound sizes, for putting up both fruit and vegetables.

VICTOR CAN SEALER For 1 1-2 pound tins only 12.95

MODERN SPECIAL SEALER For both 1 and 1 1-2 pound tins 23.95

PRESERVING KETTLES

10 quart Economy Aluminum Kettle 1.85

22 quart Pearl Enamel Kettle 4.00

Long-Handled Aluminum Ladle 30c

HOLMAN'S

"WHERE OLD FRIENDS MEET"

LISTEN IN CFCY TO "Hollywood Open House" THURSDAYS 8.00 TO 8.30 P. M.

An interesting half-hour program featuring famous Hollywood Stars—brought to you by Holman's.

attached the gift of the groom. The maid of honor and bridesmaid were wearing gold earrings set with pearls and sapphires also gifts of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a street length dress of printed silk jersey on a white background with matching accessories and corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother wore a street-length dress of flowered silk jersey on a light background with matching accessories and corsage of pink roses. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride with upwards of sixty guests in attendance.

The dining room was prettily decorated with pink and white streamers with a large white wedding bell hanging in the centre of the room. The bride's table was centred by a three-tier wedding cake flanked on either side by tall pink tapers.

A toast to the bride was proposed by the Rev. E. S. Weeks to which the groom fittingly responded.

Those assisting in serving were Misses Mary MacLeod and Shirley Crosby, Charlottetown, Miss Jean Boyle, Meadowbank, Mrs. Willie Larter, Hampshire, Mrs. Harold MacLean, Hunter River and Miss Beryl Johnston, Hunter River; also the bride's aunts, Mrs. F. R. Doyle, Hunter River and Mrs. Bruce MacDougall, O'Leary. During the evening a jolly crowd of serenaders offered their congratulations and best wishes to the newlyweds.

Later the bride and groom left for their new home in Hampshire. The bride travelling in a powder blue all wool crepe suit with white accessories to match. The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful presents including substantial cheques.

The happy young couple left on Friday morning on a short honeymoon trip to points of interest throughout Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

The bride chose for her wedding day her parents 23rd. wedding anniversary.

Prior to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower on Monday evening June 23rd. in the Masonic Hall when she received many beautiful gifts including, Pyrex, silver, bedding, money and etc. The bride-to-be was escorted to the seat of honor by Miss Mary Brehaut, to the strains of "Here Comes the Bride" nicely played by the Dolron Bros. Miss Beryl Johnston and Mrs. Murray Carr cut the strings while the Misses Margaret Montgomery and Marion Whitlock read the accompanying verses and were nicely arranged on the table by the Misses Ruth Whitlock and Edith Craswell.

After the bride-to-be thanked one and all for their lovely gifts they all joined in singing For She's A Jolly Good Fellow. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing and social intercourse. Music furnished by the Dolron Bros.

Prepared ORANGE PEEL and LEMON PEEL

Delicious for Cakes, Pies, Puddings, Custards, Cookies, Icings, etc.

Distributed by CLARKE'S Fruit Company

Beautiful Windows

VENETIAN BLINDS

begin with Venetian

- Lighter... 1/3 the weight of ordinary blinds because it's made of a special flexible aluminum alloy.
- Lovelier... Flexalium's satin-smooth plastic finish blends with every decorative setting.
- Easier to Clean... Its flexibility makes dusting so simple and quick.
- Longer Lasting... Flexalium is sun-proof, rust-proof, warp-proof, will not crack, chip or peel, resists weather stains and soil.
- Custom made to fit windows exactly. Bring your measurements in today. Flexalium's low cost will surprise you.

ALYRE ARSENAULT 145 ELM AVE. PHONE 790L

ISLAND VIEWS

Framed & Colored AT

Craswell Studio GT. GEORGE STREET

