BEAUTY CRAFT ISSUES WARNING

Unless you have well-turned ankles and shapely legs, pass up the ankle-strap shoes. They'll only advertise less-than-lovely undervarnings which otherwise might slip alone have been.

This warning comes from a beauty critic-Hollywood's Perc Westmore, who points his guns at short and stocky girls who simply love to wear shoes mounted on exaggerated platform soles or wedge heels.

They shouldn't he says, unless they want an effect that looks almost like deformity. Admitting that the short gal should add all the inches she can, Westmore thinks a better way to do it would be with conventional high-heeled shoes.

He warns both the little miss and her taller sister, however, against the practice of wearing high heels on a job that calls for much walking or standing. Guess what fate he says will befall those who do? Premature old age.

There is so much high fashion in walking shoes to-day, shoes with low and medium heels, insists Westmore, "that women shouldn't have to be coaxed to wear them as a safeguard of health."

GREENVALE W.I.

Mrs. John Matheson entertained the members of the Greenvale Women's Institute at her home Monday evening June 3rd.

In the absence of the president and vice-presidents, Mrs. John Matheson was appointed to take charge of the meeting. Meeting opened by repeating the following by roll call responded to by five members. Two visitors were present. Minutes of previous meetings reviewed and accepted.

The collecting for the cancer fund has not yet been completed. Mrs. Fennerson was appointed on sick committee instead of Mrs. Brown. A treat had been sent to a shut-in. Correspondence was read and discussed, which included an appeal from the Red Cross campaign. It was moved and seconded that $15.00 be given this worthy cause. Mrs. John Matheson and Mrs. Russell White were appointed to attend the annual convention, Charlotteville June 19th and 20th, alternatives, Mrs. Paul and Mrs. MacPherson.

It was decided to hold a pantry sale at Hunter River. The following committees were appointed to meet after same Mrs. Wonnacott, Mrs. Paul, Mrs. Matheson, Mrs. Sennier and Mrs. MacPherson. Collected.

Mrs. Wonnacott kindly invited members to her home for the July meeting.

Meeting closed with "The King" after which a delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

Forest Industry Absorbs Many Men

MONTREAL, June 10 - (CP) - Canada's largest employer, the forest industry, has absorbed more returned men than any other industry because veterans are interested in permanent jobs and they are just as keenly concerned with public policies that "maintain full employment". Maj.-Gen. C.B. Price of Montreal, recently elected national president of the Canadian Legion, said in an interview here today.

Gen. Price said that veterans, as well as all others concerned about Canada's forests, want the natural resources guarded with the utmost vigilance and managed under sound engineering principles.

Princes Approve Plan For India

(By The Canadian Press) NEW DELHI, June 10 - The standing committee of the Chamber of Princes approved in Bombay today the British Cabinet mission plan for Indian independence, while Congress Party leaders here called it a "sell-out" to the Viceroy, Viscount Wavell, and members of the mission but announced no decision on acceptance of the plan.

The Chamber set up its own machinery for participation in the interim government, which will serve until a constitution is drawn for an independent Federated Union of India envisaged under the plan.

Labor Member Sees Drift Towards War

BLACKPOOL, Lancashire, Eng., June 10 - (CP Cable) - Norman Dodd, Labor member of Parliament, said today in an address to the Co-operative Congress here: "The seeds of war are being sown and it is only a question of time before they are tried in a way we have seen so much of in the past."

Just back from a European tour, Mr. Dodd called on the common people of the world to take a greater part in national affairs and so avert catastrophe. He added:

"The great knee-up is taking place. We are drifting to disaster and those in high places know it. The sands of time are running out quickly and the world is waiting to take a lead from the co-operative movement. If we are big enough we can give it."
