

The Paper That
Covers Prince Edward Island
Like The Dew

THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

The People's Paper Read by Everybody

All The News
Worth While Printing
All The Ads
Worth Reading

CHARLOTTETOWN, CANADA MONDAY, MARCH 27, 1922

By Mail, Canada, $3.00. U. S. A., $4.50
Annual Subscription, Delivered $5.00

Radical Leader Carried the Executive

CHARLOTTETOWN, N. S., March 25.—The Executive Board of District 26 of the United Mine Workers of America, which has been carrying on a campaign for the past two weeks, has today elected a new Executive Board. The new board, which will take office on April 1st, is headed by J. B. MacLachlan, who was elected president. The new board is composed of J. B. MacLachlan, president; J. McKay, secretary; and J. P. Baxter, vice-president. The new board is expected to carry on the campaign for the past two weeks, which has been very successful. The new board is expected to carry on the campaign for the past two weeks, which has been very successful.

Recommends Study Of the Bank Act

(Special to The Guardian).
OTTAWA, March 25.—A study of the Bank Act by the standing committee on banking and commerce is urged upon the House of Commons by a resolution which notice has been given by H. H. Stevens, Vancouver Centre. Mr. Stevens' resolution asks that the committee be instructed to study the Act as it will tend to a greater measure of protection to customers, depositors, shareholders and others doing business with the bank, to consider the advisability of a better and more efficient system of inspection by government officers of the books, reports and securities of the head office or chartered banks.

Storm of Criticism Centres Over Briand

PARIS, March 25.—A storm of criticism of the attitude of the French delegates to the Washington Conference on Limitation of Armaments and Far Eastern Affairs, and of the treatment they received at the conference, broke loose in the Chamber of Deputies this evening. Aristide Briand, former Premier, who at first head of the delegation, was accused of proposing to Charles E. Hughes, the American Secretary of State, a Franco-American military alliance against Great Britain, and was reported to have made a high court.

Sudden Death of Rev. James MacDougall

News of the sudden death of Rev. James MacDougall at his home in Cape Traverse, on Saturday morning, came as a painful shock to the many who knew him and esteemed him as pastor, friend and citizen. He had been in his usual health until the previous night when he became slightly indisposed, but nothing serious was anticipated. About 10 o'clock Saturday morning a sudden turn came and he passed away within a few minutes.

Million Will be Idle

LONDON, March 25.—The delegates to the conference of shipyard unions have decided that the men in British shipyards should cease work next Thursday evening, pending the results of a ballot on wage reductions proposed by the shipbuilding federation unless the offers for these reductions are accepted by the employers.

CONDENSED SPECIALS

ADVERTISING RATES:—The per line per day, 50 cents per day for 3 days or over. 10 cents per word for a line. Groups of 5 lines or more, 10 per cent. discount for one week. Address forms part of ad. and not be paid for. Special Rates:—For one week, 75c per seven words for one week. Situation words for seven words, 50c per week.

Another Conference On Irish Situation

(Special to The Guardian).
LONDON, March 25.—The colonial office received notification today that Arthur Griffith, President of the Dail Eireann, and Home Secretary, J. Duggan, Minister of Education, will arrive in London on Monday in compliance with the request of the British Government for a conference on the critical Irish situation. Should the Irish Government accept the invitation, the conference, it is expected that the conference will meet here on Tuesday.

League of Nations May Take Control Of Dardanelles

(Special to The Guardian).
PARIS, March 25.—The League of Nations is likely to be asked to take control of the Dardanelles, it has become known despite the secrecy that the allied foreign ministers have thrown around their deliberations here. In international political circles here it is declared it would be impossible to apply any scheme of internationalization to the straits, that would suit all the allies. For that reason Premier Poincare, the Marquis Curzon, British Foreign Secretary and the Italian Foreign Minister, M. Schanzer have discussed the eventuality of asking the League to relieve them of this burden.

Bandits Still Killing And Robbing

NEW YORK, March 25.—Three men, young and nervous, walked into the grocery store kept by John Burns in 85 Johnson street, Brooklyn, early in the evening. One of them stopped at the door while the other two walked toward the counter, the grocer advancing to wait on them. None of them made any commands, but suddenly the youth at the door, who had been planning to rob the grocer, drew a revolver and began shooting.

Five Passengers Flying Boat Drowned

MIAMI, Fla., March 25.—A wireless message, intercepted here tonight from a passing ship, said that Robert Moore, pilot of the flying boat "Miss Miami," which has been missing for two days, had been picked up at sea and that five passengers had been drowned.

How Submarine Was Sunk in the Mediterranean

LONDON, March 25.—In the House of Commons last night, a despatch from Gibraltar was read announcing that a court of inquiry had been ordered to meet today to examine into the sinking of the submarine H-12.

Seneca Keeps in Touch With Berg

Boston, March 25.—Reports of heavy ice and fog about 85 miles east of Boston and just off the west bound transatlantic steamer lanes were received here today from the coastguard cutter Seneca. The cutter Tampa was ordered to prepare immediately to go to the Seneca's assistance. The latter craft, which has been in the service of the international ice patrol in the north Atlantic for several weeks, reports that her operations were hampered by the fog which came up last night while she was keeping in touch with a drifting berg.

No Violence Tolerated in American Coal Fields

WASHINGTON, Mar. 25.—Warning that the federal government would tolerate no use of violence to prevent coal production during the threatened coal strike, was issued today by Attorney General Daugherty.

U.S. Senate Has Ratified Four- Power Treaty

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The Four Power Pacific Treaty, the centre of controversy ever accomplished of the Washington Arms Conference, was ratified by the Senate today, with no reservation except the "no alliance" declaration proposed by the Foreign Relations Committee, and accepted by President Harding.

Many Suggestions for Immigration Work

OTTAWA, March 25.—The Canadian Council of Women on Immigration, which concluded its session here today, presented a number of recommendations on the subject. These suggested a large immigration policy was impossible just now on account of the unemployment problem, and advocated a policy rather than a quantity.

Another Offer of Support

With the assurance of the American Federation of Labor support, representatives of the anthracite workers here today were optimistic of success in the general strike they expressed confidence that should the strike become a long drawn battle between the operators and miners, railroad members of the American Federation of Labor would come to their moral and financial aid through the railroad miners' protective alliance. With these assurances the miners' protective committee of eight went into their final conference with the operators this noon prior to their departure for Cleveland to complete strike arrangements for starting the strike into effect April 1st.

Gandhi Arrest Has Not Abated Indian Unrest

LONDON, March 25.—The arrest and imprisonment of Mohandas K. Gandhi, the Indian non-British official quarters as an anti-climax leaving the government without any definite ideas regarding the turn the Indian situation is likely to take.

Mill Clerk Kills Girl and Himself

NEW YORK, March 25.—Miss Esie Smith, aged 19, and Alphonse Beyer, 28, married and the father of two children, were found dying in a room in the plant of the Maple Silk Company, at Paterson, N.J., where they were employed as clerks. Both had bullet wounds in the head.

Are Using Wireless Catch Rum-Runners

WASHINGTON, Mar. 25.—Rum runners along the Canadian and other borders will be hunted by wireless, according to advice received today by Commissioner Hayes from Colonel Roy C. Vandervoek, head of the Michigan department of public safety.

Announcements, Coming Events, Meetings, Etc.

RATES.—10c. per line per day. 5c. per line per day for 3 days or over. 5 figures, initial letters, 10c. per word, 10 per cent. discount for cash. Address forms part of ad. and must be paid for.

Slight Change In Irish Free State Bill

LONDON, March 25.—The report of the Irish Free State bill was concluded in a short session by the House of Lords today. Several amendments were withdrawn or rejected and the only change made was the addition of a new sub-section proposed by Viscount Peel in behalf of the government, making clear that the bill would allow for Ulster to contract out of the agreement which would run from the date of ratification of the new constitution.

Commons Committee To Begin Tuesday

(Special to The Guardian).
OTTAWA, March 25.—Committee work for this session of parliament will be commenced on Tuesday morning when eleven committees of the Commons will meet in the Railway Committee room for organization. It is probable that the choice of committee chairmen will be the only business on Tuesday and that the real work will be undertaken later in the week.

Poor Conditions For Sea Fishing

OTTAWA, March 25.—Weather conditions were not favorable for sea fishing during the month of February, with the result that there was a falling off in the quantities of salt water fish landed. The total catch, both Atlantic and Pacific coasts, was 151,583 cwt., valued at $423,218 at the vessel or boat. During the corresponding period in the preceding year 166,751 cwt. were landed, valued at $691,030.

Mill Clerk Kills Girl and Himself

NEW YORK, March 25.—Miss Esie Smith, aged 19, and Alphonse Beyer, 28, married and the father of two children, were found dying in a room in the plant of the Maple Silk Company, at Paterson, N.J., where they were employed as clerks. Both had bullet wounds in the head.

Mill Clerk Kills Girl and Himself

NEW YORK, March 25.—Three highwaymen walked into a Brooklyn store of John Burns last night and while two of them stood near the door, the other advanced to the proprietor and fired two shots into his abdomen. A third shot was fired, Burns died a few minutes later, after telling the police that no attempt had been made to rob him, that not a word had been spoken by the trio and that he had never seen any of the three before.

Lloyd George and Wilson Split Over Michael Collins

LONDON, March 25.—The bitter attack upon Lloyd George, made in a letter written on St. Patrick's Day to Sir James Craig, wherein Field Marshal Sir Henry Hughes Wilson said it was "naughtily impossible to believe" that the Lloyd George Government can re-establish law and order in Ireland, and "that men who are only capable of losing an Empire obviously incapable of holding an Empire," has brought out a story of how Michael Collins was the cause of the apparent breaking up of what had been the close friendship of the Premier and the Field Marshal.

Aliens Have Proposed An Armistice

PARIS, March 25.—The Allied Foreign Ministers, convened today for consideration of the Easter situation, sent telegrams this evening to Constantinople and Athens proposing an armistice between the Greeks and the Turkish Nationalist armies facing each other in Asia Minor.

Russia Must Honor Whole Indebtedness

RUSSIA, March 25.—That the Russian Soviet government should issue bonds covering the whole of Russia's indebtedness is understood to have been the British proposal at the first session of the Allied technical experts' meeting here today to prepare agreement for a conference. Bonds not only covering all of Russia's national debt but also including individual loans to the old and new Russian regimes, are understood to have been included in the proposal. The bonds would be exempt from interest for five years.

Mill Clerk Kills Girl and Himself

NEW YORK, March 25.—Miss Esie Smith, aged 19, and Alphonse Beyer, 28, married and the father of two children, were found dying in a room in the plant of the Maple Silk Company, at Paterson, N.J., where they were employed as clerks. Both had bullet wounds in the head.

Mill Clerk Kills Girl and Himself

NEW YORK, March 25.—Three highwaymen walked into a Brooklyn store of John Burns last night and while two of them stood near the door, the other advanced to the proprietor and fired two shots into his abdomen. A third shot was fired, Burns died a few minutes later, after telling the police that no attempt had been made to rob him, that not a word had been spoken by the trio and that he had never seen any of the three before.

Lloyd George and Wilson Split Over Michael Collins

LONDON, March 25.—The bitter attack upon Lloyd George, made in a letter written on St. Patrick's Day to Sir James Craig, wherein Field Marshal Sir Henry Hughes Wilson said it was "naughtily impossible to believe" that the Lloyd George Government can re-establish law and order in Ireland, and "that men who are only capable of losing an Empire obviously incapable of holding an Empire," has brought out a story of how Michael Collins was the cause of the apparent breaking up of what had been the close friendship of the Premier and the Field Marshal.

Aliens Have Proposed An Armistice

PARIS, March 25.—The Allied Foreign Ministers, convened today for consideration of the Easter situation, sent telegrams this evening to Constantinople and Athens proposing an armistice between the Greeks and the Turkish Nationalist armies facing each other in Asia Minor.

Russia Must Honor Whole Indebtedness

RUSSIA, March 25.—That the Russian Soviet government should issue bonds covering the whole of Russia's indebtedness is understood to have been the British proposal at the first session of the Allied technical experts' meeting here today to prepare agreement for a conference. Bonds not only covering all of Russia's national debt but also including individual loans to the old and new Russian regimes, are understood to have been included in the proposal. The bonds would be exempt from interest for five years.

Mill Clerk Kills Girl and Himself

NEW YORK, March 25.—Miss Esie Smith, aged 19, and Alphonse Beyer, 28, married and the father of two children, were found dying in a room in the plant of the Maple Silk Company, at Paterson, N.J., where they were employed as clerks. Both had bullet wounds in the head.

Mill Clerk Kills Girl and Himself

NEW YORK, March 25.—Three highwaymen walked into a Brooklyn store of John Burns last night and while two of them stood near the door, the other advanced to the proprietor and fired two shots into his abdomen. A third shot was fired, Burns died a few minutes later, after telling the police that no attempt had been made to rob him, that not a word had been spoken by the trio and that he had never seen any of the three before.

Lloyd George and Wilson Split Over Michael Collins

LONDON, March 25.—The bitter attack upon Lloyd George, made in a letter written on St. Patrick's Day to Sir James Craig, wherein Field Marshal Sir Henry Hughes Wilson said it was "naughtily impossible to believe" that the Lloyd George Government can re-establish law and order in Ireland, and "that men who are only capable of losing an Empire obviously incapable of holding an Empire," has brought out a story of how Michael Collins was the cause of the apparent breaking up of what had been the close friendship of the Premier and the Field Marshal.

Aliens Have Proposed An Armistice

PARIS, March 25.—The Allied Foreign Ministers, convened today for consideration of the Easter situation, sent telegrams this evening to Constantinople and Athens proposing an armistice between the Greeks and the Turkish Nationalist armies facing each other in Asia Minor.

Russia Must Honor Whole Indebtedness

RUSSIA, March 25.—That the Russian Soviet government should issue bonds covering the whole of Russia's indebtedness is understood to have been the British proposal at the first session of the Allied technical experts' meeting here today to prepare agreement for a conference. Bonds not only covering all of Russia's national debt but also including individual loans to the old and new Russian regimes, are understood to have been included in the proposal. The bonds would be exempt from interest for five years.

Mill Clerk Kills Girl and Himself

NEW YORK, March 25.—Miss Esie Smith, aged 19, and Alphonse Beyer, 28, married and the father of two children, were found dying in a room in the plant of the Maple Silk Company, at Paterson, N.J., where they were employed as clerks. Both had bullet wounds in the head.

Mill Clerk Kills Girl and Himself

NEW YORK, March 25.—Three highwaymen walked into a Brooklyn store of John Burns last night and while two of them stood near the door, the other advanced to the proprietor and fired two shots into his abdomen. A third shot was fired, Burns died a few minutes later, after telling the police that no attempt had been made to rob him, that not a word had been spoken by the trio and that he had never seen any of the three before.

Remember the basket social at Marshfield in aid of Manse repair fund, Tuesday evening, March 28. If Tuesday is stormy it will be held Wednesday.