The EDISON PHONOGRAPH

NO one need be barred from owning an Edison Phonograph because he has not the entire purchase money in hand at once. Nearly every dealer in every town can make an arrangement whereby, after paying a small amount of money, you can have the Phonograph delivered at once and the proper number of records, and so begin to enjoy it at once paying the rest in easy instalments. It requires almost no self-denial on your part to own a Phonograph, and it will more than make up its cost to you. The amount of the instalments will be less than you pay for an evening's entertainment at the theatre.

If you have not heard the new Edison model with the big horn, go to the nearest Edison store and hear it, or write to us for descriptive booklet.

We Desire Good, Live Dealers to sell Edison Phonographs in every town where we are not now well represented. Dealers having established stores should write at once to National Phonograph Company, 100 Lakeside Ave., Orange, N. J., U. S. A.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JANUARY 19.

JESUS AND HIS FIRST DISCIPLES

John 1. 35-51. Memorize verses 35-37.

GOLDEN TEXT.

We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, wrote, Jesus of Nazareth.—John 1. 45.

EXPLANATIONS.

Verses 35. Again on the morrow—The expression here, as in verses 29 and 43, is to be taken literally, reference being to the next following day. Disciples—Learners. A more formal call of the same disciples is referred to in Mat. 4, 18; Mark 1. 16; and Luke 5, 2, where James also is mentioned.

36. Looked upon Jesus—the verb in the original signifies a steady, penetrating gaze.

37. Heard him speak—The words of John the Baptist were probably addressed to a larger company of hearers, among whom were these two disciples.

38. What seek ye?—Jesus does not ask "Whom seek ye." His question is as it stands a challenge to the two men to a confession of their desire to meet and know him personally. Rabbi—The Hebrew word here preserved for us means literally "My Master," and was in the time of Jesus a title of respect by which pupils addressed their teachers. Where abidest thou?—The answer of the two men to the question of Jesus betrays their reverence and to this the Master responds with an invitation to them to accompany him to the place of his abode.

39. Where he abode—The place where we are not told. It cannot, however, have been far from the scene of the events which had just transpired, and may well have been in some village or hamlet in southern Galilee, not far from the Jordan River. Abode with him that day—They took the time to spend at least a number of hours with Jesus, and doubtless when the time for their departure came they felt that the day had been the most profitable in their lives thus far.

40. One of the two—The other being the evengelist narrator himself, who, with his accustomed modesty, refrains from mentioning his own name.

41. His own brother Simon—It is not improbable that while Andrew thus sought out Simon, John also sought out his brother James, though the latter is not here mentioned.

42. Cephas (which is by interpretation Peter)—The Hebrew and the Latin words respectively, of which the marginal reading gives the English equivalent rock or stone.

43. Galilee—The well-known province in northern Palestine, bounded on the east by the Jordan River and the Sea of Galilee on the south and west by Samaria, and on the west and north by Phœnicia.

44. Bethsaida—The western of the two Bethsaidas mentioned in the gospels, situated doubtless northwest of and close to the Sea of Galilee.

45. Nathanael—To be identified with Bartholomew mentioned in the synoptic gospels. Nazareth—The boyhood home of Jesus in south-western Galilee.

47. An Israelite indeed—There is doubtless an intended allusion to the literal meaning of the name (conqueror with God), which Jacob had received at the time of his memorable wrestling with the angel of Jehovah at the ford of the Jabbok.

49. King of Israel—indicating that Nathanael shared with those of his time the popular conception of the Messiah.

51. Verily, verily—The same word translated sometimes by the English word Amen, and used, as is the latter, for solemn emphasis of that which immediately precedes or follows. Angels of God ascending and descending—A figurative expression referring to the perpetual communion and intercourse of Jesus as the son of God with the Father, of which the disciples were henceforth to be witnesses.
