OBITUARY—A sad gloom has been cast over Valleyfield, and vicinity, by the sudden, and unexpected death of one of its young men, John McLeod, son of Alexander and Mary McLeod, who was accidentally killed at Bellow's falls, Vermont, August 15th. At the time of the accident he was along with others engaged in moving lumber when one of the logs started to roll and in trying to escape he slipped and was instantly killed. The deceased who was not quite in his twentieth year, left home two years ago. His remains were brought home and laid to rest in the Valleyfield cemetery Friday 22nd. The large number of carriages which followed the remains to the grave testified to the esteem in which he was held. Along with a sorrowing father and mother he leaves four brothers, and six sisters, to mourn besides a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved family in their sore affliction.

Crowds journeyed to Wm. Heffel's Cape Traverse, Thursday evening last, to participate in the festivities of a garden party, which was an immense success. Matters were exceedingly well arranged—the large shady trees on this beautiful old homestead, were decorated to perfection with Chinese and other lanterns. The commodious dancing booth, which was of great importance, was tastefully trimmed with the different leaves from the forest, as well as the refreshment saloon, which was laden with fruits and in fact all kinds of delicacies. The good catering both at the supper table and tent, is worthy of special mention. Much credit is due Mrs. Heffel and J. W. Howatt, who were responsible for the well conducted affair. The dancing which was of a high order, was thoroughly enjoyed by old and young and was indulged in until day break. It is estimated that some two hundred and fifty people were in attendance.—Com.
