A VALUABLE PRIZE CONTEST

The Guardian Has Secured the Right to Offer Subscribers a Bible Study Competition Without Cost to Competitors

The Charlottetown Guardian has secured the right to use the International Newspaper Bible Study Club Lessons each week for the term of one year, commencing with the lesson for August 23rd, 1908. But one paper in each town can use these. The Guardian takes pleasure in being able to present to its readers such a valuable help along the lines of Bible study. They will be published each week in the Morning Daily and the Rural Daily. Only paid-in-advance subscribers to either paper are eligible to join this club. There is no fee for entrance, and no conditions other than those stated below. Everybody stands the same chance and has the same opportunity to get the valuable prizes without the investment of a cent. There is one condition that must in every case be complied with and that is, that every one entering the contest must be a regular subscriber as above.

GOLD AND SILVER MEDALS, BIBLES, BOOKS.

Persons may join the club at any time during the year, but must, of course, answer the 52 questions hereinafter explained, to qualify for the prizes. Sunday School teachers, Bible questions to be answered as the lessons are studied.

The International Newspaper Bible Study Club is for the purpose of promoting, in an unfettered way among the masses, a wider study of the Bible, the basal truths of Christianity, and the problems which enter into every man's life. It is composed of all those who join a Local Club, and take up the single course herein outlined, barring ... ordained clergymen. Although with their sympathetic co-operation, it is not considered to have them compete for the prizes. It is however desirable that the Class scholars, and church goers generally, may belong to this newspaper club, also non-churchgoers, of all shades of opinion. All such who have not joined are warmly invited to do so and compete for the prizes. The Guardian has secured the right to publish the International Sunday School Lesson questions by Rev. Dr. Linscott, D.D., which have aroused so much interest elsewhere, and they will appear weekly. One of these questions each week is to be answered in writing, and upon these answers the prizes are to be awarded. The Guardian is authorized to form a Local Newspaper Bible Study Club for its readers, and guarantees to all who join and fulfill the conditions, that everything here promised shall be faithfully carried out.

CONDITIONS OF THE CONTEST. 1. Each contestant, or his or her family, must be a paid in advance subscriber to The Guardian, during the continuance of the contest, in order to qualify for membership in the International Newspaper Bible Study Club and thus Local Club.

2. Each contestant in this Local Club must answer each of the written questions for 52 consecutive weeks, commencing for Sunday, August 23rd and the answers must all be in possession of the writer within two weeks of the close of this period, which allows two weeks grace after the close of the contest.

3. Each question must be answered separately, and the paper written on one side only. No answer must contain more than two hundred words and may be less. It will be a convenience if students will write their answers on letter paper, about 8 1/2 inches by 11 inches.

4. Each answer must have the name and address of the writer at the bottom of the answer, together with the date label of a current issue of The Guardian so it can be identified, giving a number, registered, and then the name will be put out so the examiner may know it by number only.

5. Students should be careful to understand the question before answering. To do this the lesson text must be read and especially the verse or verses, upon which the question is based.

6. The answers from this Local Club must be delivered to The Guardian office, and they will be collected at the close of the contest and forwarded to headquarters for independent examination by competent examiners. The prizes will then be awarded according to the highest number of marks, won by members of The International Newspaper Bible Study Club and prizes which may be awarded to members of this local club will be given out from this office.

THE PRIZES. First Series—A gold medal to each of the first five contestants. Second Series—A silver medal to each of the next five contestants. Third Series—A Teacher's Bible, price $5.50, to each of the next five contestants. Fourth Series—The book "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50 to each of the next thirty-five contestants. Fifth Series—A developed mind, an expanded imagination a richer experience and more profound knowledge of the Bible and of life, to all who take this course whether winning any other prize or not. Each medal will be suitably engraved, giving the name of the winner and for what it is awarded, and in the like manner each Bible and book will be inscribed. All who can write, and have ideas, are urged to take up these studies, regardless of the degree of their education, as the papers are not valued from an educational or literary standpoint, but from the point of view of the cogency of their reasoning ideas. Suggestive Questions. SEPTEMBER 6, 1908. Saul and Jonathan Slain in Battle I Sam. 31. Golden Text.—Prepare to meet thy God. Amos 4:12. What is the preparation necessary in order to meet God with confidence and in peace? Were the Israelites defeated because the Philistines had the better army, or was it because God was against Israel at this time? Why was God against Israel at this time? May we ever expect to win, in anything, if God is against us? If not, how do you account for the apparent success of some bad men? Verse 2.—Why did God permit the lovely Jonathan to be slain? Is it often in these days, that the innocent have to die with the guilty? Give some examples. Verse 3.—If Saul had been true to God would this defeat have happened? Does God often use the ungodly as instruments with which to chastise his children? Verse 4.—Was the death of Saul determined by God to take place at this battle? See I Sam. xxviii:19. Does the Lord know how, when and where, each one of us will die? Granting the freedom of the will and that acts are contingent and not necessary, how can God know what a free agent will do? Is Saul to be blamed for wanting his servant to slay him, or for finally killing him? Verse 5.—Under the most promising circumstances what can be done for or against suicide? Verse 6.—In the long run is it possible that, in any instance, sin can result in final happiness, and if an act, which the world and the church label sinful, really results in a more round happiness; was that act properly labelled? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.) Verse 7.—What reason is there to believe that the reason of one person, sometimes results in the ruin of a family, or a community, or a nation? Verses 8-10.—In what respects is modern warfare conducted in a more humane way than ancient warfare? Is there any sense, or humanity, in modern warfare in killing and maiming all you can in battle, and then picking up all who are not actually dead, and with tenderness and at great expense nursing them back to health? Verses 11-13.—What had Saul done for the nation, that the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead remembered him with gratitude? Is there any danger that a good man may live to disgrace himself and the cause of God? Lesson for Sunday, Sept. 13th, 1908.—David Made King Over Judah and Israel. II Sam. ii:1-7, v 1-5.

—A meeting of several members of the Town Council and the chief and several members of the present fire department was held in the Council Chamber at 8 o'clock this evening to discuss the matter of the volunteer fire department. Now that the water system is about to be taken over by the town it is up to all the citizens especially the younger men to get together and organize a fire department. There is plenty of young men who should only be too glad to join this organization, and as it will eventually come, why not now than later on. The welfare and best interests of the town are to be guarded and with an organization such as this which can without any trouble be formed, the ratepayers and citizens can rest assured that their property will be well protected. It is to be hoped that all will be eager to get a chance to form such a fire department, that Summerside can well be proud of.

—AMABLE P. Compton, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, but formerly of Summerside, is now visiting the old home after an absence of 30 years. "Amable" as he is best known hereabouts, may be classed as one of the successful Islanders abroad, and his appearance on the scene of his early days, brings joy to many of his old time friends. "Amable" is the son of Hubert Compton, St. Eleanor, and has made a success in life in the famous Beer City of the West. He is a member of a large concern known as the Union Lumber Co., of Milwaukee, and it is a matter of great interest to his friends that he has lost no time since he left his home, a poor little unsophisticated boy, returning to his native heat a Levithan as it were, weighing only 318 advoirdupois. Mr. Compton will return to his home in a few days much pleased with having met so many old friends in Summerside and St. Eleanor. Mr. Compton was formerly in the employ of Mayor Compton, having been an apprentice at the cabinet making with him in 1876.
