The fastest-selling weekend newspaper in the Maritimes!

Maritimers like The Standard. They like it so well, in fact, that more than 150,000 of them read it every week! The reason, of course, is that while alert and diligent in its coverage of world events, The Standard, alive with news, pictures and features about Maritime affairs, publishes a special Maritime edition — something that no other weekend newspaper does. In 1942, for instance, The Standard carried 7 complete rotogravure picture stories about the Maritimes. It published 17 fiction stories and 8 feature articles that dealt exclusively with the Maritimes. It reporters and photographers (among whom are several native Maritimers), travelled thousands of miles throughout the Maritimes gathering news and material for these features. Yes, Maritimers like The Standard—that's why it's the fastest-selling weekend newspaper in the Maritimes! This week, read about Walter Pidgeon, famous Saint John actor, in The Standard's Magazine. Also in The Standard, an entertaining short story by a well-known Halifax writer—Will R. Bird
