Nervousness And Dyspepsia Cured
By "Fruit-a-tives"
WALKERTON, ONT., MAY 9TH 1911
"My trouble was extreme Nervousness, brought on by indigestion or Dyspepsia, from which I suffered in its worst form.
I asked Mr. Hunter, my druggist, about "Fruit-a-tives" and he advised me to try them.
I took several boxes and am pleased to say I am now enjoying fine health.
I honestly believe I owe my health to "Fruit-a-tives" and strongly advise anyone suffering from indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervousness or Sleeplessness, to commence using "Fruit-atives" and continue this remedy until a cure is accomplished."

DIED
KENNEDY, Margaret F. Kennedy daughter of the late Charles Kennedy formerly of Lot 48. The funeral will take place Thursday the 31st from the residence of H. McEwan, 86 Fitzroy St., Charlottetown, 2 p. m. Interment Peoples Cemetery.

CUT THIS OUT AND PASTE IT UP.
It is surprising the large number of people in Charlottetown who, when they want to inquire about their Morning Daily Guardian or subscription, ask Central for the News phone No. 132, or for the Advertising phone No. 132-3, instead of 132, or when they want to inquire about advertising ask Central for the subscription phone No. 132-2, or for the News Phone No. 132, instead of 132-3; or when they want the News or Editorial Department ask Central for the Subscription phone No. 132-2, or the Advertising phone No. 132-3, instead of 132, although all those departments and their respective phone numbers are plainly given in the telephone book. Some people, instead of looking at the book, even phone one of the above departments to find out what number to ask for to get an other department. All this is a great waste of time on the part of the person phoning, the operator at the Central, and the clerk in the department wrongly phoned. The news staff, on an upper floor, cannot give the necessary information about either advertising or subscriptions, nor the advertising staff about subscriptions or news, nor the subscription staff about advertising or news. In other words the clerks know and can do but their own work in their own departments, and if it were otherwise they would be continually running from one department to another, upstairs and down, mixing work, wearing themselves out and causing the greatest possible confusion. On and after 6.30 p. m. daily it is useless to ask for any phone number except 132.
Patrons who consult their phone books for the numbers they really want will greatly lessen the work of the patient Central telephone and Guardian clerks and thus help make their lives much brighter and happier.

NEW SCANDAL IN ENGLISH RUGBY.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—English Rugby football is faced with a scandal which may lead to a wider breach in the English Rugby Union than that which caused the formation of the Northern Union in the 90s. Rugby is ostensibly a purely amateur game in England in distinction to the Association game which is played largely by professional teams. Recently the Northern Union adherents invaded Devonshire and attempted to recruit players from the existing Rugby clubs.
This campaign led to the proposal of the fact that many of the Devonshire players were receiving compensation for time lost from work in addition to their expenses while playing with their teams. The practice is open among the teams of the Northern Union, which has revised the Rugby rules until the form it plays is so strenuous that professional players are necessary for a successful team.
Some of the Devonshire players who have been suspended for negotiating with the Northern Union invaders state that the payment for lost time is general in the Rugby Union, and they declare that they will expose the system of the investigation which has been ordered by the governing committee of the Union.
The scandal comes at a particularly inopportune time, as the South African Springboks have just commenced a tour of the British Isles as the guests of the Rugby Union.

MONUMENT TO NEWSY WHOSE SACRIFICE SAVED LIFE.
GARY, Ind., Oct. 26.—Residents of this town will erect a monument to William Krough, a newsboy who was a grown man and a hero, though crippled.
Ethel Smith, a girl he had never seen, was so badly burned in an explosion of a motorcycle that she was in danger of losing one leg and possibly her life. Ruth had one leg that was paralyzed and useless. He offered to have it amputated that the skin might be used for grafting to cover the flesh of Ethel Smith's burned member. The operation was performed, and Miss Smith was soon able to leave the hospital, though she is not yet entirely well. Complications set in after Ruth's leg was amputated, and he was told by all doctors that he could not recover. All right he said. I was some good to the world after all. These words will be engraved on the monument that Gary will erect to his memory.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—Miss Margaret Fitzgerald and Miss Blanche Welter, the nurses who attended Colonel Roosevelt while he was a patient in a hospital here, have been granted a vacation. The young women complained of being tired out. Their weariness, they said, was not due altogether to the strain of taking care of the Colonel, but to the large number of letters they have received, many of them from men who have made proposals of marriage. "You are the girl for me," wrote one man to Miss Fitzgerald. "I am well off and can make a happy home for you.
I fell in love with your picture.
Marry me and save breaking my heart."
"Your care and devotion to a hero," wrote another to Miss Welter.
"I have completely broken my heart.
A beautiful, capable young woman like you would make a happy wife.
I know I can make you happy." Still another wrote Miss Welter that he had not been able to eat or sleep since he had seen her picture.

Considerable excitement was caused Saturday night about twelve o'clock between Kent St. and the Queen square gardens, Charlottetown, when some party or parties at present unknown were endeavoring to act a wild west show by discharging a gun five or six times.

A rather serious accident occurred Saturday night, when Raymond Flood, Charlottetown, had a dip in the briny. Mr. Flood who had been out motoring, was returning to Charlottetown when coming into one of the docks a line stretching from one of the motor boats to the wharf caught Mr. Flood about the waistline and precipitated him over the side of his motor boat into the water. Mr. Flood was later picked up by some of the crew of the S. S.
Earl Grey and his gasoline yacht was obtained from under the Plant Line wharf, whither it had proceeded.
