—NORBORO.—Following the example of several other districts, the women of Norboro intend holding a meeting to discuss the subject of Women's Institutes. Miss James will be at the schoolhouse there, on Wednesday, July 30th, at two thirty p. m. to talk over the matter with them, with a view to organization in that section. All the women of the district should come to this meeting to learn the objects of this new work and the good that has been accomplished wherever these organizations have been formed.
—DARNLEY.—At the regular monthly meeting of the Darnley Women's Institute a paper was read by one of the members on the Objects and Benefits of Women's Institutes, which was much appreciated by those present. After a discussion on the subject in question, and social chat, the lunch committee served ice-cream and cake which was greatly enjoyed by all. A program committee was appointed to submit subjects and prepare for future meetings, which, needless to say, are looked forward to with much interest.

WESTERN PER SO NALS

—Among the recent visitors to Oakland and vicinity says the Oakland Maple Leaf, were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McHale and their young son Byron. Mr. McHale is superintendent of the construction department, of the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Co., with headquarters in Denver, Colorado. In his boyhood days "Joe" McHale lived for many years in Summerside, P. E. I., where the family was well known and highly respected. Twenty-eight years ago they moved to the Mountain States, where Mr. McHale, Sr., who is still enjoying good health, and his sons have become successful. "Joe" met several old-time friends around the Bay Cities, and greatly enjoyed talking over the happenings of the past with former school-day chums.
—Miss Grace B. Beattie crossed by the Empress this week on return to the United States, where she intends a trip to the White Mountains before again taking up hospital or other professional or executive work she is well qualified for. Miss Beattie came to her old home in Summerside last summer for a year's rest, which was so deservedly coming to her after fourteen years' management as Matron and Superintendent of the Brockton, Mass., Hospital. While in Summerside she was induced by the trustees of the Prince County Hospital to take charge of the institution for a few months so as to get it in good running order, and the splendid success of the hospital from the beginning was due largely to her efforts and experience as evidenced by the complimentary address presented to her by the trustees on completion of her work. Her friends wish Miss Beattie continued success in her chosen profession.—J.
