IN MEMORIAM

MR. BERTRAM WOOD CLOWE

Bertram Wood Clowe died at his home at New Haven, P.E.I. on Dec. 17th aged 62 years. He had been ailing for a year and was well cared for by his aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Clowe now almost 84 years of age and also by his brother Ivan Clowe of Meadowbank. Bertram was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Clowe, in Michigan; Albert, at Kingston, P.E.I.; Hattie, Mrs. F. Bertram, New Bedford; Oliver and Elmer, of Somerville, Mass.; Spurgeon, in Michigan; Mrs. Wm. McPhee, Elmwood and Ivan at Meadowbank, P.E.I.

Mr. Clowe lived in the U.S.A. for some years and later returned to New Haven where he owned a farm on the beautiful north bank of the West River, opposite St. Catharines. He was good hearted and had many friends, many of whom came to see him during his last illness and to whom he talked of the desire he had to depart and be at rest, and after a year of suffering that rest came and his spirit returned to God who gave it.
The funeral service was held at the home of his brother Ivan at Meadowbank on Saturday, Dec. 20th, Rev. D. K. Ross and Rev. B. G. Manzer conducted the services at the home and Cornwall Church, where Mr. Manzer delivered the funeral address, bringing comfort and sympathy to the hearts of the bereaved.
The pall bearers were Messrs. Michael McManus, Daniel Livingstone, Lawrence Kicham, Semour Darrach, Lemuel Drake and Frank Howard.
The funeral was directed by Arthur Pollard of New Haven and the interment was made at Cornwall.
Sympathy goes out to the aged parents, and to the sisters and brothers and friends of the deceased in this hour of their sorrow.

It is a wise thing to think of Coal just about Easter time. Warm weather is not here yet, provide now.

We are well stocked with Scotch Anthracite, Dominion Coke, Old Sydney Screened, Springhill, Inverness, Albion Nut and Stove.

You should place your order now.

MORE WORK DONE EASIER

Consider the economic value of correcting errors of vision. Work done with less energy. More done in a day, with less effort. Better work in cases where close application is required. Even those who have no errors of vision can prevent strained eyes if they aid them while doing close work.

BRINGING UP FATHER

W. C. T. U. Notes

"HE IS COUNTING ON YOU"

"He is counting on you," On a love that will share In his burden of prayer, For the soul He has sought With His life-blood and sought Through His sorrow and pain To win "Home" once again! He is counting on you If you fail Him—what then?
"He is counting on you," On life, money, and prayer; And "the day shall declare" If you let Him have all In response to His call; Or if He in that day To your sorrow must say, "I have counted on you, But you failed me"—what then?
"He is counting on you," Oh! the wonder and grace, To look Christ in the face And not be ashamed. For you gave what He claimed And you laid down your all For His sake—at His call. He had counted on you And you failed not, What then? Selected.

GAMBLING IN MANY FORMS.

From some quarter lingers the pronouncement: "The world is one big gamble." But there exists a sturdy opposition. "Taking a chance," popular with those who do not care to analyze just what it means. A sane conclusion must be that a gambler cannot love his neighbor as himself. The Great Teacher taught the blessing of giving in contrast to the righteousness of coveting that which is not his. It is not to the credit of Canadians that they could afford during hard times of 1934, to wager $21,000,000 on horse races.
There appeared an October headline to the effect that the United States Postoffice Department had been barred to 155 foreign sweepstake operators, 102 of whom were Canadians. But in the American Republic there is a movement for the introduction of lotteries in the whole of the forty-eight states. In forty states the state constitution will have to be amended to accomplish this deplorable objective.
As with the Irish Hospital Sweepstakes, the plea for this national gambling is to do evil for the benefit of licensing charities and other philanthropic institutions.
Doubtless in the sweepstakes the emphasis is on "sweep." A simple definition would be, a race for all stakes.
The Irish Hospital Sweepstakes comes over the gambling horizon regularly. Not long ago the public were informed: Canadians reaped a golden harvest in the first round of the 19th drawing of the Irish Hospital Sweepstakes, and also that Canadians drew consolations prizes.
In the Province of Ontario there has been a general agitation against the operation of slot machines.
Last autumn the Brantford Local Council of Women sent a resolution to the city's council asking that the licenses for slot machines be not renewed.
The same Church ministers of the United Church regretted that the spirit of gambling was on the increase. Games of chance in club programs, raffling of automobiles, games for money and slot machines were rampant, and regret was expressed that newspapers had given such prominence to sweepstake winners.
In November it was announced that Attorney-General Roebuck, Ontario had ordered a Province survey preparatory to eliminating slot machines as a "ferocious influence in the community."
The old call of the legalization of lotteries to stop illegal gambling is made. Did the legalization of any evil ever stop the illegal practice of the same?
The counsel of the organization termed "The National Conference for Legalizing Lotteries," claim that $4,000,000,000 is spent annually on illegal lotteries in the United States.
Chance versus honest mental or physical sweat for the doubtful issue of getting something for nothing!
Thirty-eight years ago the World's W. C. T. U. convention met in Toronto, Canada, when its adopting an anti-Gambling Department of Work, displaying its vision of the future of this social evil in the following resolution: "Resolved—That the World's W. C. T. U. views with alarm the terrible increase of gambling in all

SUSSEX ANNOUNCES New Low Prices Effective Today

We are pleased to inform our many thousands of Patrons throughout the Maritimes that as from today, Monday, April 5th, 1937, prices of the famous Sussex Beverages will be reduced according to the following scale:

7c NET 10c NET 15c NET

ONE-GLASS SIZE 8 OZ. TWO-GLASS SIZE 12 OZ. FIVE-GLASS SIZE 28 & 30 OZ.

Plus bottle deposit—5c—refundable when returned

In this manner Sussex acknowledges the return of more prosperous times and hastens to share its prosperity with its Patrons. These new low prices are only made possible by the tremendously increased popular demand for Sussex Products whereby production and distribution costs have been reduced. A generous part of the resulting saving in manufacturing cost is accordingly passed back to the Public with the sincere thanks of the Manufacturers for this encouraging support. Sussex Beverages at the new prices will continue to maintain their traditional high quality and purity.

NON-ALCOHOLIC FRUIT PRODUCTS

Young folks of today are as fine and clean, as of any former generation; however, a few cocktail drinks at a social gathering, perhaps not sufficient to produce helpless drunkenness, but sufficient to numb conscience, and render self-control ineffective, a moral tragedy often ensues. It is the alcohol in the cocktail that turned the scale against purity and right.

Cocktails served in thinnest of glasses, frosty cold, in handsome homes, by respectable hostesses creates a taste for alcoholic beverages.

These are the women, and girls, and young men who patronize government beer and wine parlors.

Alcohol is a greater social menace than ever before. In the last generation, the presence of women and girls in a public drinking place was almost unknown.

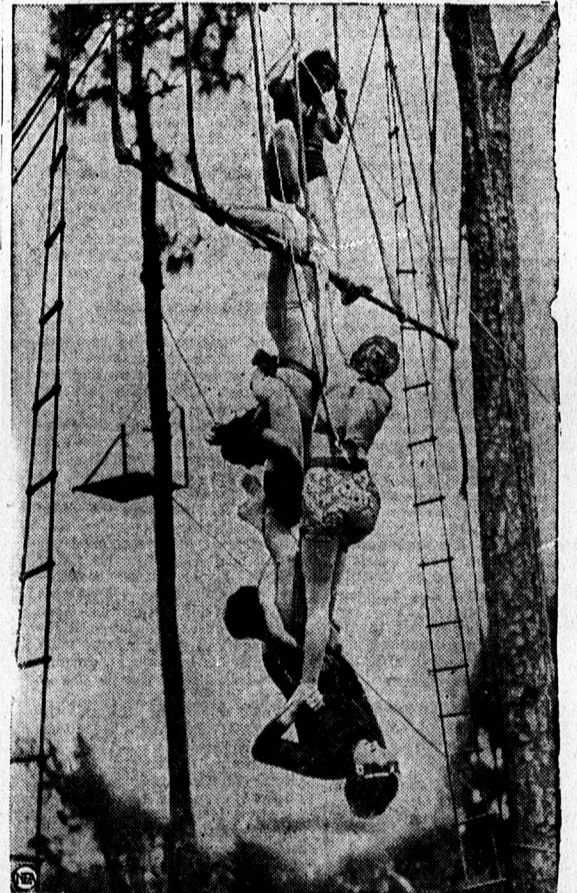

Have you heard of "Hangover tablets"? Such remedies are doing a big business these days, clearing up that morning-after taste. Intelligent people, actually making themselves sick, of their own free will so that they have to take medicine. It is hard to believe, c'ever people can be so foolish. Drinking alcoholic beverages never causes any troubles, but always causes more.

I appeal to all the women of the W. C. T. U. to take an interest in this department of our work.

Last year there were 12,123 murders committed in the United States. The American Issue says: "This is the most shameful homicide record of any nation on earth." The U. S. A. repealed prohibition of the liquor traffic.

Out on a Limb in a Holdup

It took a lot of figure stretching when the ladder opened. Afraid to budget this balance, but the least, it promised plenty of circus performers who did it in suspense while spectators figured training quarters at Sarasota, Fla., out how many persons were figured the stunt would multiply involved in the mid-air hold up.
