This column is reserved for news of local interest but advertising of a new nature may be inserted at 4 cents a word strictly payable in advance.

S. D. U. WREATH—Included in the list of organizations depositing wreaths on the Cenotaph on Remembrance Day was St. Dunstan's University. The name was inadvertently omitted in the list published yesterday.

COVEHEAD-STANHOPE. United Church services for Sunday, Nov. 14 are, West Covehead 11 a. m., Covehead Road 3 p. m., Stanhope 7 p. m. Thos. A. Wilson, Minister. L-1780.

RANCHERS in the vicinity of Charlottetown wishing to ship through Canadian National for December Sale, should have their furs, at Massey Harris Building by November 19th. L-1779-11-13-21.

YORK UNITED CHURGE. Rev. J. A. Nicholson, Minister. Services on Sunday, Nov. 14, 11 a. m. Central Church; 3 p. m. Pleasant Grove; 7 p. m., York. Communion Service. Subject, "The Burning Bush." L-1781.

CALEDONIA EXTENDS CALL—The Caledonia Presbyterian charge at a congregational meeting extended a call to Rev. A. S. McLean of Ingonish, N. S., it was learned yesterday. Rev. T. Owen Hughes of Montague, P. E. I., presided. The charge has been without a settled minister since the departure of Rev. Allister Murray two years ago.

INJURED BY STONE—Owen McCloskey narrowly escaped death while working in a gravel pit at Seakirk when a large portion of stone fell on him. He was extricated with minor injuries by fellow workmen, John Jenkins, William Kelly and James Brennick, with shovels.

INTERESTING WINDOW DISPLAYS—An interesting feature in connection with the local observance of Remembrance Day was the display of war souvenirs in many of the store windows in the city. Many pedestrians stopped and spent a few minutes in thought. To ex-service men perhaps the war articles were most interesting bringing back memories of twenty years ago.

HORSE MAKES SPEEDY TRIP—Forty-five miles in six and one-half hours—that is speed—for a 19 year old mare. Mr. J. S. Livingstone of Murray Harbor, P. E. I., drove his 19 year old horse, Lady Direct, to Charlottetown Thursday, accompanied by his brother, Mr. J. H. Livingstone. Lady Direct, the owner's stated, is a granddaughter of Joe Patchen, 201 1/4, who was the sire of Dan Patch, 155. Lady Direct's sire was Directum Patch 210.

GAME ACT CASE ADJUDGED—A resident of Mt. Stewart, appeared before Magistrate G. J. Tweedy, K. C., yesterday charged with Sunday shooting contrary to the Prince Edward Island Game Act. He pleaded guilty to the charge and the case was adjourned for a week for sentence. Disposition of a seized shot gun had not been decided.

POLICE COURT—At the Police Court yesterday a vagrant was sentenced to 30 days in jail. A woman charged with unlawful possession of liquor was fined $25 and costs or 30 days in jail. The owner of a vicious dog was ordered to destroy the animal.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. McRae of New Glasgow, N. S., have returned to their home after an enjoyable visit to Charlottetown the guests of Mrs. McRae's mother, Mrs. James Calder. They motored to the Province and were accompanied by Mrs. Calder and daughter Mrs. Jean Richards also of this City who were returning from a three months trip through Nova Scotia during which time they visited many relatives and friends.

LEAVE FOR WINTER FAIR—Irving Cowan, Lower Montague, P. E. I., and Charles Fraser, Montague, left yesterday for Toronto to attend the Royal Winter Fair. The two boys, who won the trip by winning the Inter-Provincial Golf Club competition held at the Central Fair here last September, were accompanied by L. W. Roper, Federal Livestock Promoter. They will take part in the Central Canada judging contest to be held in the fair building Monday.

RELATIVES BELIEVED FOUND—In September William Eugene McLean of Williamsville, Missouri, wrote to Chief of Police Birtwistle asking for assistance in locating his relatives in this province. The Chief passed the request on to the press and yesterday a Mr. Matheson of North Milton called at the police office to get McLean's address. He was a relative, he told the Chief. McLean's father, Daniel Oscar McLean, was a native of Oyster Bed Bridge and had left the province when very young, it was believed.

Mr. Leonard McDougall, of the staff of the Central Crematorium, accompanied by Mrs. McDougall, left yesterday morning for Toronto where they will attend the Winter Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chochoard (nee Marie O'Leary) left yesterday morning on return to Quebec City after spending a month in the province.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Leard of Coleman accompanied by the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Leard of Alberton spent a few days in Charlottetown recently the guests of Constable S. W. and Mrs. Leard and Mr. F. M. MacKinnon and daughter, Marion. They also visited relatives in Lorne Valley, Pisquid, and Mt. Stewart.

The Charlottetown Male Chorus held its annual meeting in the Legion Hall last Tuesday night before regular rehearsal. Reports from the president, treasurer and the different committees were given and all showed that the year just completed was the most successful of any since the inception of the chorus in 1932.

To Mr. Albert Dinnis, who assumed the responsibilities of director upon the retirement of Mr. Harold Shephard late in April last was given the credit. Mr. Dinnis was unanimously chosen as director for the ensuing year.

It was decided that arrangements be made to commence the coming season's activities with sacred concerts in aid of Christmas charities to begin in Summerside December 12th and in Charlottetown on December 19th.

The officers elected follow:

Fellowship Honour Lt-Governor DeLoia.

President—Dr. T. E. E. Robbins.

Vice-President—J. A. Bentley.

Secretary and Librarian—Malcolm MacKinnon.

Treasurer—Lyle Robson.

Additional executive—T. D. Williams, George Johnston, J. Power.

GARRISON BALL HELD—The fifth annual garrison ball under the auspices of the Army and Navy Club was held at the Canadian National Hotel Wednesday night. The function was interestingly referred to as being held under Canadian Legion auspices in yesterday's issue.

CENOTAPH FLOOD LIGHTED—Great improvement in the appearance of Queen Square at night has been noted by citizens since the installation of flood lights this week. The two powerful lamps, focused on the Cenotaph, were turned on first Armistice night. The lights are a voluntary contribution by the Maritime Electric Company through Mr. A. V. Ainsworth, Charlottetown superintendent. The Cenotaph will be flood lighted each night throughout the year, it was announced.

P. W. C. NOTES

GEORGE L. DONNELLY

Section A's debate on Tuesday was, "Resolved that a lunch counter should be installed in P. W. C." Those speaking for the Affirmative side were: Leader, Maurice Brady, Catherine Peavour, and Eleanor Bagnall, while the Negative was upheld by, Leader, Lorne Burdett, Inez Steynson and Ruth Campbell. The Pro side won by a large majority. The critic was Miss Doreen Alley and the Recording Secretary was Miss Eileen Burke. After the debate, the Honorary President, Professor Blanchard, complimented the speakers on their excellent speeches.

A large number of students attended the S. C. M. social at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium last Saturday evening. A goodly number enjoyed the weekly social held in the Knights of Columbus Hall under the auspices of the Collegiate Club.

The Intercollegiate Football championship series ended last Monday with Saint Dunstan's holding Prince of Wales to a draw and thereby taking over the championship held by the Collegians for three or four years in succession. Although the City players were defeated by a better team, much credit can be given them for the excellent showing they made in all games. The results of the series were as follows: First game was a draw, the second a victory for St. Dunstan's and the third another draw, which gave the Red and White squad a one point margin and also the title. Had it not been for the extraordinary plays made by Vernon MacDonald, Fred (Spike) Coyle and Tom Doyle the series might have been ended by two games.

No classes were held in Prince of Wales on Remembrance Day and as a result of the holiday no debate was held in Section B this week.

On Wednesday a picked team excluding first and second teams from S. D. U. played the Collegiate team from Prince of Wales the Saint Dunstan's team won the encounter.

Section C's debate for this week was: Resolved that Immigration restrictions should be abolished in Canada. Those speaking for the Pro side were: Lloyd Henderson, Lois Bell and Donald Hume, while the Con was supported by Jim Burnett, Hazel Huntley and Ewen MacMillan. The Recording Secretary was Nora Down and the critic was Beatrice Blanchard. The Pro side won by a vote of 21-11.

The basketball team are still holding their practices at the Y. M. C. A. Gym. there are still a few players wanted to make the team complete. The players will

MacNeill - Simpson Wedding At Malpeque

The United Church, Malpeque was the scene of a very pretty wedding at 10 o'clock Armistice Day morning when Miss Margaret Ellen Simpson, daughter of Mr. H. O. Simpson and the late Mrs. Simpson of Malpeque was married to Mr. James Harper MacNeill, son of Mr. R. H. MacNeill and the late Mrs. MacNeill of Charlottetown. The Rev. H. J. Thomas officiated.

The bride was dressed in a gown of sapphire blue chiffon velvet. She wore a white fox fur and matching accessories, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. She was given in marriage by her father. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Keith Rogers of Charlottetown and during the signing of the register Mrs. A. R. Roper, Mt. Edward Road, a sister of the bridegroom, sang "Because". The couple were unattended.

The church was artistically decorated with ferns and potted plants. Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ramsay, Malpeque. Mrs. Joseph Davidson, Kensington, aunt of the bride, poured tea and Mrs. G. W. Ramsay cut the ices. Those serving were Mrs. Elmer MacDonal and Miss Lily Davidson, Charlottetown, Miss Eleanor Ramsay, Malpeque and Mrs. Waldon Davidson, Kensington. The dining room table was decorated with mauve and white chrysanthemums.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. MacNeill will reside in Charlottetown. Mrs. MacNeill is a graduate of the Prince Edward Island Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. MacNeill travels for the J. C. Wilson Co. Ltd.

Before her marriage Miss Simpson was tendered a shower at the home of Mrs. G. C. Warren, Lapthorne Avenue, by nurses of the Prince Edward Island Hospital. An afternoon tea was held in her honor at the home of Mrs. A. H. Roper, Mt. Edward Road. Guests were received by Mrs. Roper and Miss Simpson and Mrs. J. W. MacKenzie ushered. Mrs. G. C. Warren poured tea while those serving were Miss Mildred Thompson and Miss Helen Wood. The dining room was decorated with mauve chrysanthemums, Mrs. MacKenzie, Miss Thompson and Miss Wood are class mates of Miss Simpson.

Miss Marie Mutch, Charlottetown, entertained at a five table bridge in honor of Miss Simpson and Mr. MacNeill and Mrs. Frank Beattie of Malpeque held a tea and shower in honor of the bride-to-be.

be selected after the practice on Monday Nov. 15 so come up boys you may be one of those who fill the vacancies.

The regular Sunday Evening Song Service was held in Central Christian Church. The speaker for the evening was Professor Warren Duchemin of P. W. C. who delivered a very interesting address on science and religion. The choir rendered a very interesting selection under the direction of Mrs. Francis Hol. Trainor.
