H. Wilnot Young's Company gave their second excellent performance in the Opera House last evening. The play was the Gold King, a drama of equal interest and attractiveness to the Silver King presented on the previous evening. Miss Adams, the leading lady has a very attractive personality and undoubted power as an actress. In the Company besides Mr. Young who is a host in himself are a number of versatile and clever actors and comedians. The specialties between acts were much enjoyed. Tonight Alexander Dumas' great play, Monte Cristo will be put on and should attract a full house. There will be both a matinee and evening performance on Saturday.

Charlottetown Music lovers have before them an event of rare merit in the Heinrich recital. Miss Julie Heinrich possesses a rich contralto voice, sweet, powerful, tender and expressive and Herr Heinrich a magnificent baritone. They have delighted critical audiences in most of the larger American and Canadian cities and through the courtesy of Dr. McPhail have been persuaded to appear in the Opera House here on August 20th. The tickets are 25c, 35c, 50c, and the proceeds are in aid of the P. E. I. Hospital.

That are Good Travellers

Did you ever reason out that when buying a grip or a suitcase that it is really economy to buy the best you can get. It lasts longer, wears better and keeps its appearance until it is completely worn out.

One of our club bags floated within the bottom of a lifeboat, off a wreck on the coast of Scotland 9 years ago and is still in use.

This speaks well for the quality of our travelling goods

The Merry Widow

Seems to be the craze in Ladies' Hats this season, but what genuine Merry Widow is going to wear one of those 40 inch hats that are being offered by milliners in large cities. But before your wife or best girl gets to enquiring how you know so much about it we will change the subject by announcing that we are selling lots of Maple Sugar because it is pure and the price is only 2c per pound.

Try it now and see if you don't like it.
