FAREWELL PARTY — A number of friends and neighbours met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gault Murray Vernon Bridge, on Tuesday evening 17th inst., the occasion being a reception tendered their son Gordon, Air Pilot, who came home on a brief furlough accompanied by his very aimable bride. Games and contests were entered into and enjoyed by all present. These being concluded, Mr. Milton Furness called the gathering to order, and spoke briefly and complimentary of the post played by Gordon in the life of the community. He also extended a hearty welcome on behalf of those present to the bride. A well worded address was then read by Mrs. Murdock MacLeod and a very substantial purse was presented by Miss Beryl Furness. Gordon made a suitable reply expressing his gratitude, and wifes best wishes to the donors. After the singing of "For They are Jolly Good Fellows" a sumptuous repast was served by the hostess and friends. The balance of the evening was spent in dancing. The singing of the National Anthem brought a most pleasant evening's entertainment to a close. Gordon and Mrs. Murray left next morning to again take up their important tasks.

PIERCE-PROFITT WEDDING— The marriage of Lottie Elizabeth Profitt, R.N., daughter of Mrs. Profitt and the late Garnet W. Profitt of Spring Valley to John Fulton Pierce of Charlottetown took place on Tuesday morning, Aug. 24th., in the United Church at Kensington. Rev. A. D. Stirling, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony. Mrs. Wm. E. Forbes of Summerside, cousin of the bride played the wedding music and during the signing of the register Miss Edith Ross, R.N., of Charlottetown sang "Because". Mr. Stirling Pierce brother of the groom acted as usher. The bride, given in marriage by her brother Frederick W. Profitt, wore a floor length gown of white sheer with appliqued bodice and sweetheart neckline. Her finger-tip veil was held in place with a gathered head dress. Her only ornament was a string of pearls the gift of the groom and she carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and Baby's breath. Mrs. Profitt, mother of the bride wore blue printed crepe with navy accessories. Before her marriage the bride was the guest of honor at a number of teas and miscellaneous showers and among the many gifts of silver, linen and china was a chest of flat silver from the doctors of the Polyclinic, where the bride is a member of the nursing staff. For travelling the bride wore a mustard wool two-piece suit with brown felt hat and brown and green accessories. On their return they will take an apartment in Charlottetown where the groom is stationed at Beach Grove Inn.

PRAISES CO-OPERATION HERE —The people of Prince Edward Island, both individually and collectively, are giving wholehearted support to the regulations, restrictions and reckoning which it has been necessary to introduce for the proper prosecution of the war, Mr. J.B. Vaughan of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, Ottawa said yesterday. He was on a routine visit to the Province. In the distribution of ration books, recently completed, Islanders generally showed great appreciation of the voluntary work being done by local ration boards. While final figures are not yet available it is believed that the proportion of the population who came into distributing centres to get their books, was greater than in other parts of the country. "This is an example of how the majority of people are doing their best to co-operate" Mr. Vaughan said. He also referred to the fact that the percentage of prosecutions in this province was the lowest in Canada so far.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY — Congratulations were being extended yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Poole, Souris East, who were celebrating their fortieth wedding anniversary.

FRIDAY

The name of a Charlottetown airman was included last night in the 670th list of casualties issued by the R.C.A.F.

Under the heading, dangerously ill on active service was the name Lac. Wylie Allison Bryenton, whose next-of-kin was given as his mother, Mrs. J.G. Bryenton, 206 Hillsborough Street, Charlottetown.

A regrettable accident occurred on Wednesday afternoon near Bloomfield when a car operated by Mr. W. N. MacWilliams of West Cape, and a car driven by Mr. Albert Chaisson of Tignish, met in a head- on collision near Bloomfield Church.

The occupants of both cars were badly shaken up and Mrs. W. N. MacWilliams, who was with her husband in his car, is in the Prince County Hospital with a badly crushed knee. Mrs. John H. McWilliams, who was also in the car, received a severe cut on the forehead and was taken to the O'Leary Hospital for treatment. The other occupants of the cars escaped with minor cuts and bruises.

At last reports Mrs. John H. and Mrs. W. N. MacWilliams were resting as comfortably as could be expected. As far as could be ascertained both cars were completely wrecked and the fact that a fatality did not occur was miraculous.

The death of a well known retired farmer, Mr. George MacDonald of Brudenell, occurred at his home yesterday. He was in his 90th year.

Mr. MacDonald had been unwell for some time.

He was one of the prominent farmers in his section of King's County and with his sons was a seed potato grower and an exhibitor of cattle and other livestock at exhibitions in the Province.

MISS TILLEY HAYDEN

A fine Christian woman passed away recently in the person of Miss Tilley Hayden, of Cherry Valley, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Hayden. Miss Hayden was well and favourably known by everyone in the community where she had spent a life of great usefulness. About six months ago her health began to fail and some time later she found it necessary to enter the Prince Edward Island Hospital for treatment. Despite the most skillful care she gradually grew weaker until on August 24th, she passed peacefully away.

The funeral took place on August 26th, from the residence of her brother, Mr. Lewis Hayden, where she had always made her home. The service was held in the Cherry Valley United Church where she had long been an esteemed and faithful member, having been a Sunday School teacher as well as a member of the Choir and of the Missionary Society.
