THE GUARDIAN is pleased to hear that Mrs. H. H. Gordon, wife of the purser of the S. S. Princess, who underwent an operation at P. E. I. Hospital some weeks ago, has completely recovered and is about her household duties again. This speaks well for the P. E. I. Hospital as we understand the operation was a very critical one. Mrs. Gordon speaks in highest terms of the attention paid patients by the matron Miss Ross and the different nurses in attendance and thinks there is little room for complaint from those desiring the best treatment obtainable.
