..MORELL — Private Adrian Jay, of the 82nd Regiment, has returned to Halifax after a week's visit at his home in Morell. His many friends are glad to see Adrian looking so well after his winter's training at Halifax. Mr. Jay was accompanied by Mr. Peter McDougal, who intends undergoing training there. Their friends wish them a pleasant trip and safe return. A. Sinnott, of St. Dunstan's College, has returned home owing to the illness of his father, Mrs. Adam Jay, who underwent an operation at the P. E. Island Hospital is much improved.

..PLEASANT EVENING. — On Monday evening the 15th inst a goodly number of the sports and ex-ports of Fortune Road drove to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ryan at Morell where a number of guests were assembled to give them a right royal welcome. Songs and dancing were the order of the evening interspersed now and then with choice selections on the organ. Patriotic songs, appropriate to the times, were sung, while the younger members of the Party typed the light fantastic to the sweet strain of the violin beautifully rendered by Messrs McVarish, Murphy McDonald and Walsh. Much credit was due Mr. Sinnott for the gentle manner and efficient manner in which he discharged his duties as promoter of the dances. Songs were sung by Mr. and Mrs. P. Kelly, Miss McNelis and Miss Donally. Then came the crowning glory the supper there was all the delicacies of the four seasons nothing the most fastidious could wish for but what was there sewed to her guests by Mrs. Ryan herself, in her most amiable and inimitable manner. After justice being done to all the good things prepared for the occasion the merry making was resumed until the first faint rays of dawn proclaimed to the happy performers that it was time to depart and amidst the thanks so abundantly bestowed on their kind host and hostess they reluctantly took their leave with the firm purpose of again paying a visit at no far distant date to the kind hearted and hospitable people of Morell.

EDISON'S RECIPE FOR WORRY

Edison recently lost part of his great manufacturing and experimenting works by fire. 'Are you worrying?' asked a New York reporter. 'Not a scrap,' replied Mr. Edison, puffing a cigar contentedly, 'we have a new standard of worry,' beside which all others seem trivial. 'I look from the ruins of my works here across the Atlantic, and I see the Kaiser on the defensive on both fronts of the immense battlefields. When you realize that the Kaiser has been living for years in the atmosphere of his 'impregnable General Staff' when you know he has been trained on the idea that a quick, smashing blow at France would enable him to rush to Russia and tell the Tsar, and then you realize what the Germans themselves must shortly realize, that final victory cannot be theirs—why it is enough to make the gods, let alone mortals, weep.

WHAT WAS IT.

Guess what he had in his pocket Marbles and tops and sundry toys. Such as always belong to boys. A bitten apple, a leather ball? Not at all.

What did he have in his pocket? A brass-pipe and a rusty screw. A bumpy watch-key broken in two. A fishhook in a tangle of string? No such thing.

What did he have in his pocket? Gingerbread crumbs, a whistle he made. A button, a knife with a broken blade. A nail or two with a rubber gun? Neither one.

What did he have in his pocket? Before he knew it, it slipped crept. And away they all of them quietly. Under the treasures carefully kept, stole.

'Twas a hole.—Selected.

ROD AND GUN.

'Injun Bones and Huskies' by J. R. Francis. In a story of a trap and a lap-dog story but an account of a desperate encounter which two adventures in the far north had with a band of ferocious huskies from which they narrowly escaped with their lives. 'That Club of Patrick's is a somewhat amusing tale though Pat himself cannot take the experience very prettily. —of a captured bear cub that proved one too much for his captor. 'A Visit to the Nakimu Caves of Glacier Park, B. C.' 'Windobin's Cabin.' 'The Passing of the Buffalo' and other stories and articles, along with the regular department go to make up a fine March number. This sportsman's publication is issued at Woodstock, Ont., by W. J. AT ONCE! STOPS STOMACH MISERY AND INDIGESTION

'Pape's Diapepsin' makes sick, sour, gassy Stomachs feel fine.

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyapepic, join this down: Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief some times—they are slow, but not sure. 'Pape's Diapepsin' is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back. You feel different as soon as 'Pape's Diapepsin' comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gasses, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent jar of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder. 'Macs Emulsion of pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil will quickly cure that lingering cough, and start you on the road to health and well being. The Two Macs, 149 Great George St. —Metf.
