International Jamboree

We understand that there will be only one Scout to represent Prince Edward Island at the International Jamboree to be held next year in France. We wonder who will be the hard-worker who will deserve this honor.

Seventh Charlottetown Troop

Last Saturday afternoon nine boys and S. M. Anderson set out on a "cooking" hike. They started at about 1:30 across the bridge and after a wet tramp through muddy fields arrived at the hiking objective, a place to gather their twigs for the Troop bulletin boards and to find a sheltered spot and some good dry firewood to start a fire. After the S. M. had tasted the steaks and became sick, the hikers started back for town across the ice. They arrived at Prince Street Wharf at 5 o'clock, clanking a grand hike and keeping in with the motto "Keep the out in Scouting." This Saturday the troop plans to practice some long distance signalling both with flags and lamp, and in two weeks time they expect to have a mapping, surveying and estimation hike. The troop are also planning a two day hike in the Easter holidays if the weather is suitable.

Alluring Ideas In SPRING SUITS

Suits that are persuasively pretty . . . suits that emphasize the fluent sleeve . . . whether in shirt waist type, modified "leg of mutton" or manipulated deep armhole.

They all have a feminine gentleness that certainly forecasts a lovelier Spring . . . all these features are part and parcel of the frankly flattering ways of the new suit fashions.

Favourites are pastel shades and small checks. The Ladies' Ready-To-Wear Department will be delighted to demonstrate Alluring Ideas in Spring Suits.

Hiking News

During Scout-Guide week the Cubs were kept going as well as the Scouts and Guides, and the Cubs from Trinity and Zion would like to report a splendid hike on February 23rd. The weather was all that could be wished for such an event. We met at our different churches and then joined forces at Zion. We took up most of Prince Street with toboggans, skis, sleds and boys, and when we got to the Experimental Farm, we covered the hill. A wonderful time was had by all, especially the leaders. After an hour or two of real good coasting, thanks to Trinity Social Hall where a good hot supper of beans and brown bread was served by the lady club leaders.
