A large number took in the excellent moving pictures and song at the Star Theatre last evening. The hall is most comfortable, the pictures from excellent subjects and the singer of the latest popular songs is a general favorite.

Any reader who receives a dirty or poorly printed copy of any issue of The Guardian will confer a favor on the management by forwarding same promptly to the subscription department, when a well printed paper will be sent by return mail.

In St. Joseph's Convent Thursday night the members of the Sodality were addressed by Rev. Mother, Superior of Canada who warmly complimented the members upon their good work and presented each with a medal in remembrance of her visit.

The program at New Wonderland last evening was fine. The subjects of the different reels were highly interesting and mirth producing and kept the large audiences intensely interested until the end. The singing of "The Morning" by Miss Dill Zell was superb, and as on the previous evening at the benefit concert in aid of the Charlottetown Hospital which was such a success, was heartily enjoyed.

Charles Stewart of Barrie, Ont., son of Councillor Stewart of Charlottetown has gone to Guelph, Ont., to assume the duties of manager for the Bell Telephone Co., there. A Barrie exchange says: "This is a decided promotion for Mr. Stewart, as Guelph is among the best exchange offices outside of Toronto, Hamilton and London. Among the business men Mr. Stewart's removal is much regretted as he was a popular manager and the service under his management was largely extended and improved.

During the early part of last week Harry Watts, the former organist of Central Methodist Church, Moncton, was in the city for a few hours on his way from Charlottetown, P. E. Island, to Quebec to attend the convention held in the ancient organization in connection with that organization. On his return on Saturday morning he was met at the station by a few of his old friends and conducted to the American Hotel, where much to his surprise, he was informed that a little lunch had been provided for him and his fellow travellers, Mr. Davies. About a dozen gathered around the good things prepared by mine host Wilson. Old reminiscences were gone over and a very pleasant time was spent. Among new faces at the table were Messrs. G. H. Knight, Central's new organist and choirmaster, and Silas Cassin who has already of himself known to the music lovers of this city. Mr. Watts expressed his thanks for the courtesy extended and stated that of all the places he had been, Moncton still remained green in his memory, as the friendships formed here years ago were he found of a lasting character. At the close of the lunch, the party adjourned to the Central Church, where selections were played alternately on the organ by Mr. Watts and Mr. Knight, much to the pleasure of those who had the pleasure of listening to two able exponents of the king of instruments.—Moncton Transcript.

Say "Stanley's Underwear"

It is really surprising how many otherwise shrewd and careful people treat the matter of their underwear with indifference—yet it is a matter bearing seriously on their physical comfort—on their health possibly indeed, on their life.

We earnestly recommend this little message to all who realize that, after all, health and comfort are no mean companions, and we wish to prove also, that when underwear is to be selected there is no quicker, safer, surer way to obtain the utmost value than to go to "Stanley's".

From a sanitary standpoint, we have decided to allow no underwear to go out on approbation to be tried on.
