Sea View and Vicinity

Some of the gardens in this community are producing their second crop of lettuce apparantly as fresh and crisp as was grown earlier in the season.

Her friends are pleased to learn that Mrs. H. L. Donald is steadily improving following her recent illness at her home in Sea View.

A pleasant evening was spent in Spring Valley Hall on Monday evening in the form of a reception for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Adams who had recently been married. A number of friends gathered to present their gifts accompanied by good wishes which were tendered this popular young couple. The gifts were opened and presented by the girl friends of the bride. Those were numerous and useful. Mr. Adams on behalf of his bride and himself expressed his thanks to all for their great kindness. All joined in singing For They Are Jolly Good Fellows. A bountiful lunch was served by the ladies and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Music was furnished by Messrs Durant McKinnon Holmes and Matthews and greatly enjoyed by all.

The members of Darnley W. I. held a most successful supper in Darnley Hall on Tuesday evening. A large number of guests were present and all greatly enjoyed the good supper provided by those ladies. When the guests had all been served the tables were cleared away and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Music was furnished by Mr. Alonzo Holmes and Mr. Eddie Matthews. A splendid sum was realized from the proceeds which is to be donated for patriotic purposes.

His friends are sorry to learn of the illness of pnuemonia of Mr. Samuel Bernard at his home in French River.

The many friends of Mr. Fred W. Donald are pleased to learn he is making a good recovery following his severe attack of pnuemonia.

Mr. John W. Murphy who is employed at Mount Pleasant spent Sunday at his home here.

Mr. Roy Adams was a business visitor to Charlottetown on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Champion and little daughter Jean were visitors to Summerside on Thursday in consultation with Dr. Creelman, Charlottetown.

Mr. John MacNutt Summerside was a visitor to Darneley on Friday.

Lac. John Wigmore of the R. C. A. F. spent a few days recently with friends in Sea View.

The principals room in Darnley school which has been closed since the resignation of Mr. J. W. Murphy was reopened recently with Mrs. Harry Crozier offering her services as principal of this department. Mrs. Crozier though having a full share of family duties reluctantly accepted this position rather than see the school closed owing to the shortage of teachers. Mrs. Crozier is to be commended for undertaking this work which will mean such a sacrifice on her part.

Mrs. William Adams is spending a pleasant visit with friends in Summerside.

The teachers from the surrounding schools were visitors to Kensington on Friday afternoon attending a meeting of the Teachers Study Group.

The sympathy of many friends is extended to the family of the late Mrs. John Bryenton who passed away at her home in Spring Valley after a lingering illness which she bore with patience and resignation to the Divine Will. Her funeral service was held on Friday afternoon from her late residence and was largely attended. Interment was in Kensington Cemetry.

Many friends sincerly trust that Mrs. John T. McKay will make a speedy recovery from her recent illness.

Mr. Caisley Adams has returned to his home in Darnley after a pleasant visit spent with friends in New Brunswick.—V.

HISTORIC PHOTOGRAPH — An interesting souvenir of old times is in the possession of Mr. D. B. Stewart, Charlottetown. It is a photograph of a group of cricketers in Victoria Park, taken May 1884, on the occasion of the visit of Prince George (later King George V) on H.M.S. "Canada." The Prince, the Captain and a number of naval men appear in the picture, also the following local citizens, all of whom have since passed away: Messrs. Harrison Carvel, R. Vernon Longworth, George LePage, Dr. James Warburton, W. C. Hobkirk, R. R. Hodgson (umpire), Dr. Murray, Sidney Grey, W. A. Weeks, J. A. Longworth, Judge Fitzgerald, T. A. Lepage. A replica of this interesting picture is in the Confederation Chamber.

MacPHERSON - HARRIS — On Thursday, Nov. 19, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reid, 291 Queen Street, Truro, was the scene of a very lovely afternoon wedding when Miss F. Jeanetta Harris became the wife of John Daniel MacPherson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. A. Lawrence, pastor of St. James Presbyterian Church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Margaret and the late E.A. Harris and is well known in Truro where she has made her home. She was gowned in Queen's blue with blue and white accessories and looked very lovely. The groom is a resident of Cullodon, Prince Edward Island, and is son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Norman MacPherson. The happy couple was supported by Mrs. Annie Snow of Truro, and D. M. MacLeod, of Wood Islands, P.E.I. After the ceremony a lovely wedding supper was served by Mrs. Harold Reid. Those serving included Miss Pauline McNutt, Mrs. Elizabeth Hemmings, Mrs. Reginald Gibby and Miss Lenora Geddes. A beautiful wedding cake, prepared by the bride's sister was cut and served and Rev. F. A. Lawrence proposed the toast to the bride. Out of town guests included Mrs. G. W. Bowes of Dartmouth, D. M. MacLeod of Wood Islands, P.E.I., and Mrs. Elizabeth Hemmings of Salmon River. After a short wedding trip to Halifax, Mr. and Mrs. MacPherson will take up residence in Cullodon where the groom is a prosperous farmer. — Truro News.

REPAIRS TO LIBRARY — Repair work on the roof of the Legislative Library got under way yesterday. Coun. A.T. MacKinnon, trustee of the Library for the City Council is supervising the work. The project calls for an expenditure of about $200. Half of this cost is to be defrayed by the City and half by the Provincial Government.

CHARLOTTETOWN BOY PROMOTED — John F. Smith, a leader in the Queen Square School Cadets, of a few years ago, and now serving overseas has been promoted to the rank of Sgt.-Major, according to word received here recently by his mother, Mrs. John Smith. He has two brothers on active service also, William a Bdr. in the R. C.A., and Patrick a Driver Mechanic in the R.C.C.S. overseas.

NAVAL PARADE — A detachment of approximately 70 men from the Naval Barracks held a route march through the city streets yesterday afternoon. The parade was in command of Sub. Lieut. Trotter. It was headed by the bugle band under the direction of Ordinary Seaman D.A. Brown. Many interested citizens viewed the parade and much favorable comment was heard on the smart appearance of the navy men.

PLANE FORCED DOWN—While out shooting Tuesday on the shore east of West Point, Mr. R. O. Dennis, son of Hon. W. H. Dennis, Minister of Agriculture, noticed a plane flying very low over the sandbars. It finally settled down into the water. Mr. Dennis and a companion obtained a boat and rescued two men from the plane, which had settled down into the mud. He took them to O'Leary and telephoned Moncton at their request. A Moncton officer was going to fly over, get a car and go out to the Point. Mr. Dennis and the two pilots went back after they had their dinner at O'Leary, and stripped all they could off the plane before the "boss" came from Moncton. She was then pretty low in the shallow water. Neither of the pilots could swim. They were talking about coming back later to take the two engines out of the plane. One of the pilots was from Montreal, the other from Nova Scotia.

PHELAN-SHARKEY NUPTIALS —A very pretty wedding was solemnized at All saints Church Carnigan when Mary Agnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Sharkey, Corraville, became the bride of Peter Joseph, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Phelan, Morell. The Rev. Patrick D. McMahon, D. D., officiated at the ceremony. The bride who was given away by her father was attired in a becoming suit of American Beauty shade with accessories to match. She was attended by her sister Marguerite who wore a suit of Airforce blue with matching accessories. The groom was supTeresa Donance, organist rendered appropriate hymns. After the marriage ceremony the wedding party motored to the home of the bride's parents where a delicious wedding breakfast was served to the immediate relatives of both families. An enjoyabe day was spent in motoring to points of interest in the province. In the evening supper was served to over a hundred and fifty guests and dancing was enjoyed to the music of Webster's Orchestra.The following evening a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Phelan, Morell, and the evening spent in music and dancing. Before her marriage the bride was the guest of honor at showers tendered by her girl friends both at home and in U. S. A., where she formerly resided, and many beautiful and valuable gifts were received. Mr. and Mrs. Phelan reside in Morell, where the groom is a prosperous young farmer. Their many friends join in wishing them many years of wedded bliss. (Patriot please copy.)

ST. ANDREW'S DINNER—The annual St. Andrew's Day dinner will be held again this year, it was learned last night. Plans are underway to hold it as usual at the Charlottetown Hotel next Monday night. An energtic committee is in charge of arrangements which, while not complete, are fast taking shape.

GRADUATED WITH HONORS —The many friends of A.W.2 Josephine Leightizer, R.C.A.F. (W.D.), will be pleased to learn that she has graduated from the No. 6 "M" Depot at Toronto, and was the honor student of her Flight. She has been posted to the R.C.A.F. Recruiting Center at Moncton, N. B. Her father, Captain Jas. J. Leightizer is at present on duty with the Veterans' Guard of Canada as Assistant Adjutant and Paymaster at an internment camp somewhere in Quebec.

STARCH FACTORIES STILL OPERATE — The four starch factories in this province were still operating at full capacity, Lieut. Col. G. E. Full said last night. It was expected, he said, that the plants would continue production of starch for some time yet. Severe cold weather, however, will cause a shutdown. It is expected the four factories, at Hunter River, Murray Harbor, Baltic and St. Peters will grind in excess of 300,000 bushels of second grade Island potatoes this season. Farmers are receiving from 60 to 65 cents per hundredweight for their potatoes and the factories are unable to handle all the tubers offering.

FUNERAL AT FRENCHFORT — Funeral of the late George L. Boswell was held yesterday afternoon. Following a short service at his late residence, Frenchfort, funeral services were held in Central United Church Dunstaffnage. They were conducted by Rev. Mr. Nicholson and Rev. Mr. Baak. Interment, Marshfield Presbyterian Cemetery. Services at the grave were conducted by Rev. Mr. Nicholson and Rev. Mr. Baak. Pallbearers were: Messrs, Ben MacMillan, Robert Rhynes Jr., J.J. Trainor, Alex MacBeth, Alf. Reid, C.W. Robertson.

REV. MR. STIRLING RESIGNS —Rev. John Stirling, minister of Margate, Long River and New London United Church congregation has resigned. Although he has been ill for some time many of his friends wished him to remain as pastor until the end of the Church year, June 30, 1943, but feeling it was in the interest of the work he requested that his resignation be accepted to take effect at the end of the present year. At a meeting held in New London at which all sections of the congregation were represented, the congregation with deep feeling acquiesced with their minister's request. At the same meeting at which Rev. A. D. Stirling presided the congregation decided to present a unanimous call to the Rev. E. J. A. Fraser, B.D.,— returned missionary from Korea, who has done valiant service for The Kingdom Of God in that distant land. His friends trust that Rev. Mr. Fraser may see his way clear to come to P. E. Island for a time.

Commissioner Orames Gives Eloquent Talk

Commissioner Benjamin Orames, territorial commander of the Salvation Army in Canada addressed a large audience at the Salvation Army Citadel last night.

The speaker stated that a permanent and lasting peace could be built only on the foundation to which the Master referred when He said that the greatest commandment was "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God and thy neighbor as thyself."

He spoke of the present conflict and also of the last Great War in which he served as padre with the Australian forces. The Comissioner spoke of the service rendered by the Salvation Army in times of stress and emergency such as floods, earthquakes and wars. He said that the social side of the work done by the Salvation Army among the troops has a spiritual aim, and that the spiritual side has a social aim. He paid tribute to the work done among the troops by kindred organizations such as Knights of Columbus, Y.M.C.A., etc. He also referred to the peace time projects of the Salvation Army, their prison work, homes for the aged, hospitals, particularly the S.A. Maternity Hospitals where 10,000 Canadian babies were born last year.

Major Ernest Green of St. John, who accompanied the Commissioned to the Island gave a brief account of the latter's tour this fall.

Adjutant Mercer presided at the meeting. Rev. Dr. Miller of Trinity United Church offered prayer and Rev. T. H. B. Somers of St. James Presbyterian Church read the Scripture. Mrs. Ernest Weatherbie and Mrs. Minnie Downe sang the solo "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me." The meeting closed with the benediction by Rev. Dr. Miller, followed by the National Anthem

This morning Commissioner Orames will visit the training centre at Beach Grove and will call on His Honor, Lieut. Gov. LePage and His Worship Mayor Holman. He leaves by plane at noon for Springhill, N.S.
