CHARLOTTETOWN AND QUEEN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this Province.

Peter Murphy, Cardigan, was in this city yesterday.

Henry Hooper, city, leaves this morning for Montague where he will attend the races.

The C. P. R. Harvest Excursion leaves this Province today, August 2nd.

Mrs. Alfred Affleck and Miss Gladys Sobey, Charlottetown, are spending a few weeks' outing at Savage Harbor.

The schooner Carl E. Richard arrived from Pictou yesterday with 224 tons Acadia round coal for A. Pickard & Co.

The annual picnic of St. Joseph's Church, Morell, will be held at the beautiful grove beside the church on Wednesday, Aug. 23rd.

A summons has been served on Edward Gay, Eldon, for a first offence against the prohibition act, on complaint of Inspector R. Jenkins returnable on Thursday next.

Rev. H. J. Fraser of Summerside and Rev. E. J. Rattee of Malpeque are in the city to attend the quarterly meeting of the P. E. Island Presbytery. They are staying with Mrs. Russ, Prince St.

Miss Mattie Smith, city, has been awarded a teacher's certificate for penmanship. Miss Smith secured a student's certificate some time ago. The teacher's certificate was secured through the Union Commercial College.

The many friends of James N. Carter, formerly cheese maker at Winsloe, will be pleased to learn that he has met with success in the west, having secured a good position in the city water works office, Vancouver, B. C.

Scaled tenders will be received by J. P. Hood, P. O. Box 99, Charlottetown, for the purchase of the two acres of land in Tryon with buildings thereon, and also for the purchase of seven and one-half acres additional of land near at hand. Full particulars are given in adv. Full appears in this issue.

The Rev. M. E. Fletcher, Field Secretary of Foreign Missions for the Maritime Baptist Convention, will give his lecture, illustrated with fine stereopticon views, this evening in the school-room of the Baptist Church in this city. The lecture is highly spoken of. There will be no admission fee, but a silver collection will be taken. This interesting lecture is open to all.

The call of the West for laborers to reap their abundant harvest is being well responded to. A large number of young men leave today on the famous C. P. R. Harvest Excursion which at a nominal cost carries them to every part of the territories and after four months of work returns them to this Province richer in experience and in many cases in purse.

Next Sunday the Rev. D. H. Simpson, M.A., New Germany, N. S., will supply the Baptist pulpit, Prince St., in this city. Mr. Simpson is a native of the province and it will be a pleasure for his many friends to hear him. On Sunday, Aug. 13, the Rev. S. J. Cann, pastor, East Providence, R. I., will supply. Rev. Z. L. Fash leaves this morning with his family for Pictou via Northumberland for his vacation during the month of August.

The most enjoyable outing of the season was held at Pinette on Saturday last when Rosebery Lodge and S. School held their annual picnic which proved to be a grand success. Games of all kinds were indulged in by both young and old. The day and the grounds were all that could be desired and music was well wanted. Miss Julia Macrae furnished music with the phonograph which was enjoyed immensely. Sinclair Macrae and Lemuel Compton provided the music for the dancing. Altogether the picnic was the best yet held by Rosebery Lodge and Sunday School.

The following were among the passengers on the S. S. Harland on Tuesday last from Orwell: Alexander Stewart, Rupert Hubley, Simon Murchison, Robert Ross, R. E. MacDonald, John N. Gillis, Willie H. MacInnes, Nelson Cantelo, Etta Gillis, Laura MacWilliams, Mary Gillis, Mabel MacInnes, Jessie MacRae, Mrs. J. M. McDonald, Earl McDonald, Mrs. Donald H. Ross, Donald McKenzie, Alvah Hubley, Frank A. Stewart, Angus Murchison, Clarence Gillis, Jack Gillis, Charles Maloy, John Robert Ross, John A. MacWilliams, Gay Butcher. The latter number of young boys are off for the harvest excursion. All their friends wish them good luck.

Seely's Perfumes in bulk are certainly lovely. We have a large assortment of their very best and newest odors including Chantecleer, Indris, Rose of Algeria, Affinity, Egyptian Lotus, Superba, etc., 75c, and $1.00 per oz. Ask for sample. R. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Sunny-side.

A special train in connection with the C. P. R. Harvest Excursion leaves Charlottetown at 4.30 p. m. today.

Miss Lottie Smallwood, Mt. Herbert, has returned home after a pleasant visit to Vernon, the guest of her cousin, Miss Mary McLeod.

Rev. A. H. McCabe will preach on Sunday, Aug. 6th, at Cross Roads, 11 a. m.; at Hazelbrook, 3 p. m., and at Alexandria at 7 p. m.

Miss Lillie Taylor has returned to her home in Grand Eiew yesterday having spent a pleasant week end in the city the guest of her friend Miss Babette E. Finlayson.

Miss Margaret J. Maclellan of Woburn, Mass., and her sister, Miss Clara H. of Portland, Me., have returned after spending a pleasant vacation with their parents, Thomas and Mrs. Maclellan, of Eldon.

The death occurred at Dundee, P. E. Island, on July 28th, of Annie McPherson, beloved wife of Malcolm McDonald, aged 76 years. The funeral service, which was largely attended, was conducted by Rev. D. B. McLeod. Interment was at Orwell Road cemetery.

Bruce Stewart & Co. Ltd., have received several large orders. One is for the making of a fire escape and an iron fence for the Post Office at Souris, one for a heating plant for the new addition of the Notre Dame Convent, City, and a 8 h. p. engine for W. F. Tidmarsh, City, and another from L. & N. Paquet, Souris, for their boat building plant, and many smaller jobs.

At the Police Court in this city yesterday the following were the cases: Michael Madden and Andrew Burns for being drunk and disorderly were fined $4 or 15 days each. The prohibition cases against Peter and Alice Martin, for first offence were adjourned till Saturday next at the request of the defendant's counsel and the prohibition case of Daniel Cronin was adjourned for judgment on August 5.

There was a large attendance at the city market yesterday of buyers and sellers. Prices remained about the same as last quoted and butter, eggs, vegetables and fruit changed hands readily. Cherries were not so plentiful as last day and retailed at three cents per quart. Raspberries were plentiful and eagerly bought. Chickens were to be had, and though in many cases very small, sold from 75c. to $1.00 per pair. Potatoes dropped to $1.00 per bushel while other prices remained as quoted elsewhere in this issue. There were many American visitors in attendance who were delighted with the way the marketing is carried on in this city. The novelty of which appealed to them strongly.

You'll need MacKinnon's Witch Hazel Cream this summer for there's nothing that can beat it for sunburn, tan, roughness of skin, etc. It contains no oil or grease, easy to apply, efficient in results. A bottle costs only 25c. The MacKinnon Drug Co., Corner Great George and Kent Sts., dtf.
