ARGYLE SHORE SCHOOL EXAMINATION.

On Monday afternoon, Jan. 13th, the semi-annual examination of Argyle Shore School was held in the school room, quite a number of the ladies and rate payers of the district and several from the adjoining districts being present. The school room was nicely decorated for the occasion with evergreen, flags and red, white and blue trimmings. Mr. Neil McCannell, teacher of Canoe Cove, and Miss Katie Murchison, teacher of DeSable, examined the scholars in the different subjects and expressed themselves highly pleased with the prompt and accurate answers to all questions asked, showing a thorough knowledge of all subjects taught. An interesting feature of the examination was a spelling match, prizes awarded by the teacher to the best speller in each class were won by the following pupils: Fourth Class (Sr.)—Grace Stewart, (a fountain pen); Fourth Class (Jr.)—Rose McDougall (a book); Third Class—John McDougall (a mouth organ). At the close of the examination Mr. Silas Murley was appointed chairman and a short programme consisting of recitations, dialogues and songs was nicely rendered by the School Progress Club. Mr. McCannell complimented the rate payers and pupils on their good fortune in having such a painstaking and efficient teacher in their school. Miss Laura McDougall then on behalf of the pupils presented the teacher, Miss Ethel Brown, with an address accompanied by a well filled purse showing their esteem and gratitude to her for service rendered. A vote of thanks was then tendered Miss Murchison and Mr. McCannell for their assistance. After which the pupils and visitors were treated to a liberal supply of confectionery by the teacher. The examination was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem and as the sun was setting all dispersed to their homes, feeling it was an afternoon well-spent and it was good for them to be there. The following is the address: Dearest Teacher and best friend:— Once more I stand before you And in my hand hold something That tells how we adore you. We thank you for the work you've done And know you will do more. In striving to bring to the front, The school of Argyle Shore. We all decreed that unto you, A present we would give,

Just for the sake of memory, To last you while you live So we thought that a pendant, To hang around your neck Which is whiter than the snow, Without freckle or speck. Would be just the gift For a lady like thee But dearest of teachers It was not to be. For the wind and the weather, Against us arrayed, And your little pendant was sadly delayed.

Then we gathered up our money Without more ado. And unto me the task has fallen To hand it o'er to you. And a Happy New Year We all wish to you And to best of good teachers I'll now say adieu. A Remedy for Earache.—To have the earache is to endure torture. The ear is a delicate organ and few care to deal with it, considering it work for a doctor. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil offers a simple remedy. A few drops upon a piece of lint or medicated cotton and placed in the ear will work wonders in relieving pain.
