Phaff Says He Will Tell the Whole Story

In some instances, the investigators reported, pirates were faked and claims were put in with Lloyd's which had insured the cargoes against loss. Lloyd's has been co-operating in the investigation.

How the Lutzen Was Seized

The piracy in the case of the Lutzen however was very real. The schooner left St. John, N. B., on Oct. 9th last with 4,100 cases of Scotch whiskey owned by the Sidney Wine and Spirit Company and consigned to Havana. The information on this adventure was obtained from an affidavit by John M. Isaacs of Montreal, a member of the crew.

Marched to Island

There were ninety friars, and in their robes, rather more whole than time, but unchanged through the centuries, they walked to the island where their far-off predecessors came, and on the ruined site of their bygone church sang the Te Deum.

Red, White and Gold.

The Bishop of Brentwood, as celebrant of the mass, walked in procession to the altar. A striking figure with his mitre of red and white and gold, white gloves and gold chain, he followed by the Canon and sub-deacon in dalmatics of the same golden hue.

Agrees To Pay Subsidy To Conquering Power

(Special to the Guardian) JERUSALEM, Oct. 7.—Emir Ali, oldest son of former King Hussein of the Hedjaz who abdicated last week, has concluded a truce with the Wahabis tribesmen. According to the terms of the truce Ali, who today was elected King of Hedjaz, promises to abandon his claims to the Hedjaz and agree to pay a yearly subsidy to the conquering power.

Too Many Backward Students Says Sir Arthur Currie

(Special to the Guardian) MONTREAL, Oct. 7.—Sir Arthur Currie, in his annual report as principal of McGill University this afternoon, made important reference to the result of present system of instruction, pointing out that less than one half of the students who entered in 1920 graduated in 1924. He attributed this wastage first to deficient instruction in schools due to the small salaries paid to teachers. These salaries were insufficient, he said, to attract the highest qualified graduates, but the wastage was perhaps due principally to the fact that too little work was done by the undergraduates themselves.

Friars Celebrate Anniversary With Wonderful Ritual

CANTERBURY, Oct. 7.—The cry rung from the selfishness of the world from the poet Tennyson, "Sweet Saint Francis of Assisi would if he were here again" seemed as if it had found an answer a few days ago.

(Canadian Press) NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The "Goose Hangs High" in Washington tonight for Leon Goslin, slugging pride of the Senators and favorite of their fans, who today almost single handed and put the American League champions back in the thick of one of baseball's greatest championship battles. Another record breaking crowd of 50,000 all told stormed the Polo Grounds and cheered the Senators as they pulled themselves together in spite of a make shift infield caused by the loss of Peckinpaugh, battered three Giants pitchers and captured the fourth game of the 1924 World Series by a score of 7 to 4, the most decisive victory of any game so far. The series now stands at two all and the fifth game which will witness a repetition of the opening struggle between Walter Johnson, the Senators' wonderful right hand veteran and Art Nehf, brilliant Giant southpaw will be played tomorrow at the Polo Grounds. The battle ground will shift back to Washington on Thursday, for a sixth game is now accorded, with a likelihood that the series will go the limit of seven games.

POLO GROUNDS, Oct. 7.—The Washington Senators pounded three Giant pitchers hard today and won the fourth game of the World's Series and evened the count of games with New York at two all. George Mogridge, left handed hurler, held the Giants to three scattered hits until the eighth inning, when he retired in favor of Marberry after passing two batsmen. The score was 7 to 4.
