The list is headed by Captain George Guynemer "since reported dead." An airman obtains the rank of A. C. E. when he has dsetroyed five enemies. The list of German Aces numbered 57, of whom 29 have been killed in the course of fights on the France and British Front.

LISTENING MICROPHONES DETECT U-BOATS

PARIS, Sept. 25.—A high French naval authority, questioned by Le Matin on the subject of defence against submarine attack, replied as follows:

"It is certain the submarine danger is being diminished with every day that passes by successful innovations made in the system of defence. The multiplication of patrols, the new route arrangement, and arming, after this to be general, of merchant ships are reducing the losses of the allies more and more.

"Besides the smoke clouds there are other inventions which increase the difficulty of the pirates. Our submarine listening microphones have been perfected to a degree which we would never have ventured to hope for only a few weeks ago. This is a progress which is proved by rewards bestowed by Admiral Chaumet, the Minister of Marine, on the brilliant officers, Lieutenants Broglie, Frommaget and Walser, who have so successfully devoted themselves to such inventions. Once they are supplied with these devices all ships will soon be able to recognize the presence of the submarine and its distance, and can then manoeuver so as to avoid it, while on the other hand gunboats and scouting vessels can at the same time take up the pursuit.

"That is why the British naval authorities are confident, and we, too, have good grounds for hope."

MR. ROY LEITCH'S SERBIAN LECTURE

The Serbian war lecture in St. Catherines School, Sept. 21st, was one of the most successful events ever held in the district. The small room was crowded to the doors nearly three quarters of the visitors being obliged to stand.

The room was tastefully decorated with flowers, with double lines of lighted Chinese lanterns, and with English and Serbian flags.

On the platform, besides the chairman, Mr. Malcom McNeil and the lecturer, Prof. Roy Leitch, were the musicians, Miss Mary Stretch at the organ, and Mr. Weeks with violin, the choir consisting of Mrs. W. Stretch, the Misses M. McPhee, M. Smith and T. McNeill, also the youthful dancers, Wilfred Stretch, Leo Berrigan and Raymond McNeill, the celebrated boy sword dancer.

The program of Serbian and English patriotic songs,—the former translated into our language,—Serbian dances in the beautiful costumes of the Serbian peasantry, and the lecture on the heroes and heroines of noble little Serbia was greatly enjoyed by the audience, which frequently showed its appreciation by vociferous applause. The sale of home made candy gave the spectators a chance to exercise their wit, and the pretty girls to inveigle cash from their good natured guests. At the close of the programme, Master Raymond McNeill gave a splendid exhibition of the sword dance.

A vote of thanks moved by Mr. John McLean, seconded by Mr. Angus McLaughlin was briefly responded to by Prof. Leitch. A similar vote to the chairman, ladies musicians, and dancers moved by Mr. M. McNeill, Long Creek, seconded by Mr. Peter McLeod, Bonshaw, was enthusiastically carried, Mr. Malcom McKinnon of Churchill also spoke briefly. The Army and Navy were represented by Pte. Eldon Darragh and John O'Brien, both in uniform. The Misses Jean McEachern and Daisy McNeill did all the collecting very successfuly.

It is not intended to publish the lists of workers, as this lessens the funds to go to the soldiers. But the people of St. Catherines with only four exceptions, gave with more than their usual generosity, while those from outlying districts were equally on hand with ready whole-hearted aid.

The large sum of $40.37 was realized the bulk of which goes to the newly formed Great War Veterans' Association of Prince Edward Island, the balance to the lecturer.

MATRIMONIAL OPPORTUNITIES

HUSBANDS WANTED IN GERMANY

The matrimonial situation in Germany is becoming very serious, according to reports that sift through neutral countries. Available men for husbands are becoming so scarce that women are offering special inducements to attract possible sweethearts. Advertisements of this character are numerous in the newspapers and matrimonial agencies that promise to supply husbands are doing a flourishing business. Invalided soldiers are in particular demand.

One of the characteristic advertisements is taken from the Bresiau Volkswacht:"

"I am 22, not bad looking. I have 14 fowls at my farm, one pony, six pigs, four cows, two hams and some sausages now in process of curing, a blind mother who knows how to weave and spin, a small vineyard, 25 celery trees, a quantity of homespun house linen, and three casks of good wine in my cellar. I have, besides, a piano and a flute.

"Injured soldiers who are able to work in the field or attend to the cattle and poultry are invited to send in their application if they feel inclined to marry.

"No objections to separation if, after six months' of married life, incompatibility of character should manifest itself on either side."

A SAMPLE OF THE DISFRANCHISED ALIEN

(Canadian Press Despatch)

TORONTO, Sept. 25—Alexander Auer, a Finlander, was today sentenced by Magistrate Dension to two years in penitentiary for making seditious statements contrary to the defense of the Realm Act. The charge was the result of information given by Bruce Conklin, a citizen of the United States who related that Auer on reading the story in the Evening Telegram that the Swedish consul in Argentine had carried a cable message to Germany said that a bomb should be placed under a paper that printed such a story and that if any attempt to conscript him were made, he would shoot the highest officer he met. Conklin also said that Auer said he would in the event of war between England and Sweden, go home to fight for Sweden. The prisoner in his defence denied making the statement as reported. He came to Canada in 1904, and was naturalized in 1907 and says he had two brother-in-law in Canadian overseas forces.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can posibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a spouge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray disappears and after another application of two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glosy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulhpur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
