

Clerk's Kidneys.

Clerking isn't easy work as some would suppose. On the feet all day, shut up in a stuffy store, ever on the alert to make sales and please customers; these things soon tell on the health. Pain comes in the back, urinary troubles follow, spirits droop, strength fails.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

go right at the sluggish, clogged-up kidney and start them filtering the poisons out of the blood, take the pain out of the back, revive the spirits and renew the strength. Mr. Fred C. Bell, clerk in Johnson's general store, Gananoque, Ont., says that he suffered terribly from kidney and urinary troubles, and had severe pains in his back. Since he used Doan's Kidney Pills the pains have left, the urinary troubles have subsided, and he feels so well now that he always praises Doan's Kidney Pills as a grand reliable kidney remedy. Doan's Kidney Pills, on account of their merit, are being imitated. Protect yourself by seeing that the full name and trade mark of the Maple Leaf are on every box.

WHO'S THAT CALLING?

Conan Doyle's New Poem on The Transvaal War.

Who's that calling?
It comes from far away,
The voice of a brother o'er the sea.
It says: "Am I a stranger,
That you leave me in my danger.
Oh, my brothers, will you stretch a hand to me!
Send us the flag!
The red cross flag!
Send us the banner that we love!
We long for it, we sigh for it,
To live for it, to die for it—
God save the red cross flag!"

Who's that calling?
It comes from far away,
The voice of a brother in the West,
"We are loyal. We are true.
We are flesh and blood of you,
Wearers coming with our bravest and our best.
Bearing the flag,
The red cross flag,
Bearing the banner that we love
And is it stormy weather?
Then we sink or swim together,
God save the red cross flag!"

Who's that calling?
It comes from far away,
A voice from the far Pacific main.
"And shall we be behind
When the banner's in the wind,
And the old game is played once again?
We're for the flag,
The red cross flag,
We're for the flag that is our own.
Do you ask a heart to care for it?
A hand to do and dare for it?
God save the red cross flag!"

Who's that callin'?
The old Sea Mother calls,
In her pride at the children that she bore
"Oh, noble hearts and true,
There is work for us to do,
And we'll do it as we've done it oft before
Under the flag,
The red cross flag,
Under the flag our fathers bore,
They died in days gone by for it,
And we will gladly die for it,
God save the red cross flag!"

Rheumatism..

is Uric Acid in the blood. Unhealthy kidneys are the cause of the acid being there. If the kidneys acted as they should they would strain the Uric Acid out of the system and rheumatism wouldn't occur. Rheumatism is a Kidney Disease. Dodd's Kidney Pills have made a great part of their reputation curing Rheumatism. So get at the cause of those fearful shooting pains and stiff, aching joints. There is but one sure way—
