Baltimore, Md., Nov. 11, 1903. Minard's Liniment Co., Limited. Sirs,—I came across a bottle of your MINARD'S LINIMENT in the hands of one of the students at the University of Maryland, and he being as kind as to let me use it for a very bad strain, which I obtained in training for foot races, and to say that it helped me would be putting it very mildly, and I therefore ask if you would let me know of one of your agents that is closest to Baltimore so that I may obtain some of it. Thanking you in advance I remain, Yours truly, W. C. MCGURAN, 14 St. Paul street, Care Oliver Typewriter Co., P. S.—Kindly answer at once.

The longest period of fine weather during the month was from September 24th, to 27th, inclusive. Harvest is not yet complete. In the lower lying sections there is still a lot of cut and only about half is harvested. Of the total grain crop about 10 per cent is yet to save, 10 per cent has been, or will be cut green and will be used for cattle feed. The wheat that is being threshed is turning out poorly; the oats splendidly, frequently yielding over a bushel to the stock. Where properly saved the quality is excellent. Potato digging has been begun, but it is not yet general. The crop will probably be about 70 per cent average. They are generally reported as being small and numerous. Some correspondents report dry rot. The turnip crop will be much below average. Apples are a fair crop and the quality is good. Plums have been very abundant and are now bringing 5c a quart. The milk supply at the present time is much better than for this month last year. Eggs are plentiful. The following are the market prices for Oct. 10th, 1912. Oats, Black 44c per bus. Psoriasis All Over Body

Doctors Said Incurable, But Now There is No Sign of Disease, Thanks to Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Mde. N. Massey. Psoriasis is one of the most dreaded of itching skin diseases. It is a sort of chronic eczema. The itching it causes is almost beyond human endurance, and doctors are accustomed to give it up as incurable. But here is a case that was given up and pronounced incurable. The result proves that Dr. Chase's Ointment almost works miracles in curing the worst form of itching skin disease imaginable. Mrs. Nettie Massey, Conception, Ont., writes: "For five years I suffered with what three doctors called psoriasis. They could not help me, and one of them told me if anyone offered to guarantee a cure for $50.00 to keep my money, as I could not be cured. The disease spread all over me, even on my face and head, and the itching and burning was hard to bear. I used eight boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and I am glad to say I am entirely cured, not a sign of a sore to be seen. I can hardly praise this ointment enough. The soothing, healing influence of Dr. Chase's Ointment is truly wonderful. Eczema, salt rheum, barber's itch, ringworm and sores of such torturing ailments are relieved at once and as certainly cured if the Ointment is used persistently. Mothers find Dr. Chase's Ointment invaluable in preventing and curing the skin troubles of babies, such as chafing, irritations of the skin and baby eczema." Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 cents a box. All dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

This is an excellent chance for small investors on account of having several pairs under the care of experts. "St. Alex's Church, Rollo Bay, was the scene of a very interesting event on Tuesday, Oct. 1st, when Miss Sadie Deagle of Bear River, became the bride of Jack Deagle of Rollo Bay. The nuptial knot was tied by the Rev. E. Walker, P. P. The bride was attractively attired in a suit of reseda green with a large hat of white, pan velvet and Marabou mount. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Mabel McLaughlin, who wore a seal brown suit with hat to match. The groom was supported by his cousin Peter Burke. Mr. and Mrs. Deagle were the recipients of many valuable presents. They will in future reside at the home of the groom which is a cosy little place nestling in the shade of an old apple orchard and overlooking the placid waters of Rollo Bay. The numerous friends of the popular young couple wish them many years of wedded happiness."

"The passing away of Sophia, the beloved wife of George Irving, Beach Point, is worthy of more extended notice than it has yet received in the press. She was born at Murray Harbour North and was at the time of her death in her seventy-first year. She was for many years an invalid but bore up under her sufferings with Christian fortitude. Of a kind and amiable disposition she was much beloved by neighbors and acquaintances. The esteem in which she was held was manifested by the large attendance at the funeral which took place from the Presbyterian Church, Murray Harbour, to the cemetery at Murray Harbour North. The services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. A. J. MacNeill, who made kindly reference to the Christian character of the deceased and gave voice to the feelings of all present when expressing sympathy with the mourning friends in their bereavement. Beautiful floral wreaths were presented by Mrs. Emily Richards, Mrs. William Herring, Mrs. Charles Jordan and W. S. Hugh. Besides her husband she leaves to mourn, one sister, Mrs. John Clow, and one brother, Robert Clouston, both of Murray Harbour North. These have the sympathy of their wide circle of friends in their sorrow."

DAILY SELECTIONS FOR GUARDIAN READERS

Furnished by W. S. Louson THE MIGHT OF LOVE. Loud on the mountain top the storm is breaking, The old earth trembles at the tempest's shock, And from their base the ancient hills are shaking, As hidden fires boil forth their molten rock. Man stands agabst at such a dread revealing Of Nature's power, because he hears and sees, But thinks not that in silence deep conceal'd, Oft Nature doth greater things than these, Unheard the morning comes, or evening shadow; Unheard the stars soft twinkle in the blue; Unheard the sunbeam falls on stream and meadow, And silent mists return in noiseless dew. But love devine into humble natures reigning, Moves swift and silent as an angel's wing, To comfort, guide and heal; at its constraining, The flowers of hope and joy and virtue spring. In Christlike sympathy it smooths the pillow, Of helpless pain, it dries the mourner's tear; In Christlike might it walks each foam-crown'd billow, And stills the tempest with its breath of cheer.
