Many Attend Baptist Conference At S'Side

Large and enthusiastic congregations attended special services held Friday, October 14, in the Summerside Baptist Church. The P.E.I. Baptist District held its business session in the morning when delegates were present in large numbers from practically every Baptist Church on the island. At this session Mr. Earl Jelly of O'Leary, chairman of the District was president. The clerk, Rev. Ernest J. Barras of Summerside was at the desk.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. C.A. Hicks of Truro, who took as the basis of a very fine meditation the words, "My Heart is Fixed." The report of the District keyman, Rev. C.A. Britten of General Bedouque was very gratifying, revealing the fact that the district had last year over-subscribed its missionary allocation.

Reports on Advance Program. Rev. J.D. Davison of Charlottetown presented details of the new convention advance program which is an attempt on the part of the Maritime Baptist convention to raise a special offering over two years of $25,000, one third of this amount going to home missions, foreign missions, and ministers annuity respectively.

As the outcome of this presentation two committees were appointed to organize the Churches for the raising of this amount. The committee for the Baptist Churches of Kings and Queens was named as follows: Rev. J.D. Davison (chairman), Mr. Heber MacPhail, Lie. Byron Howlett, Rev. Harry Barber, the committee for Prince Edward County was nominated as follows: Rev. E.J. Barras (chairman), Rev. C.O. Howlett and Rev. C.A. Britten. A brief report concerning the convention Bible school was given by Rev. C.A. Britten.

The morning gathering closed with prayer by Rev. C.O. Howlett. The afternoon session of the district was under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Union. Chairman was Mrs. E.J. Barras, the Scripture lesson being read by Miss Josephine MacLellan and prayer offered by Mrs. J. MacLeod. Following the devotional exercises the business session was presided over by Mrs. Earl Jenkins, president of the P.E.I. Woman's Missionary Union. Reports were given for the week-end guests at the home of Mrs. G.M. Donald.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald O'Connor and two children Brenda and Gail spent Thanksgiving in Alberton the guests of Mr. O'Connor's mother, Mrs. James Murphy.
