—THIS IS NO FISH STORY.—A Guardian representative was recently invited into Mr. Wm. Pidgeon's fish market in Kensington to behold a beauty of the finny tribe. It was a cod but there is no "cod" about it, and measured four feet six inches without the head and weighed thirty-nine pounds. It was caught off the coast at Rustico.—Y.

—ALBERTON—The closing exercises of Alberton High School were held in the Town Hall, Friday, June 29th at 8 o'clock. A very appropriate program was prepared by the teacher for the occasion, which was excellently carried out by the pupils. The diplomas in order of merit were awarded. Ist: Ralph Larkin; 2nd, Jean Oulton; 3rd, Kenneth Irving; 4th, Adrice Campbell. The Governor-General's Medal (Willingdon) was won by Ralph Larkins also. There was a good attendance and good order throughout the evening.

—THE YOUNG Peoples' Society of the Presbyterian Church held a very successful ice-cream social at the Mansie, Friday, July 13th. The beautiful evening brought a large number. Out-door games added to the enjoyment of the young folk.—Mr. and Mrs. Geo Hodgson, accompanied by their son Roy and his wife, motored to the Island last week from Boston to spend a short visit among their relatives here.—Mrs. Corner and friend are visiting her parents. Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Rogers.

—WEDDING BELLS—A quiet but very pretty wedding took place at 2 p. m. on Thursday at the bride's home at Summerside, when Miss Lillian Helen Dobson, only daughter of Mrs. John Dobson, became the wife of Mr. Austin A. Scales of Freetown, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scales of St. Eleanor. Rev. A. K. Herman, formerly of Montserrat, N. B., performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties, both the bride and groom being unattended. The bride's home had been beautifully decorated for the occasion by her numerous girl friends and the effect, with the bride as the centre piece, was charming. After the ceremony and congratulations the happy couple left on an extended honeymoon trip by auto to Montreal and other cities.

—OPERETTA ENJOYED—The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian Church, Summerside, on Tuesday evening, July 17, presented, in the Strand Theatre, Kensington, the phantastic Japanese Operetta, "Princess Chrysanthemum," to a select and appreciative audience. The characters assumed were: Princess Chrysanthemum, the Emperor's daughter—Mrs. Heath Strong; To-Yum, Du-Du, Tu-Lip, Maidens attendant on the Princess—Miss Janet Robinson; Fairy Moonbeam—Mrs. Armanda Carman; The Emperor, What-for-Whi, —A Merciful (?) Monarch—Mr. Scott Jackson; Prince So-Tsu, Prince So-So (In tone with the Princess)—Lowell Hancock; Fred Mountain; Top-Hat, The Court of Chamberlain—Don Baker; Saucer Eyes—The Wizard Cat—Graham Rogers; Spirits of the Night, Courtiers Rejuvenate, Attendants, Fairies. Between the acts specialties were rendered by the Crystal Sisters Orchestra, who rendered music at once appropriate and captivating. Some appropriate Scottish songs were sung by Mr. McLeod who most generously contributed. This event is one of the very best that have transpired in the Strand for some time.

—A VISIT TO A MODEL GARDEN.—Recently the privilege it was to visit the magnificent garden of Rev. George Ayers, Kensington. The first impression received is to realize the beauty of the scene, and beauty too, in its highest concept, the splendor of order. In nicely conceived arrangement are displayed both the useful and the ornamental, but so effectively have the impression of the beautiful is received by the spectator. The prospects evident in the table stock forecast for Mr. Ayers many a well supplied table, and many a guest will find difficulty in maintaining the principles of table etiquette, by restraining comment on the choice dishes that these excellent individuals of garden production will supply. Conspicuous among the finest specimens were choice contributions of beans, carrots, onions, celery, parsnips, corn, peas, pumpkins, honey-suckle; and ornamenting, were gladioli, asters, verbenas, snapdragon, pinks, zinnonette, sweet peas, petunias, dahlias, and others, multiple in endless variety. All are maintained in the very pink of condition. The lawn, the paths, and the driveway all display the effect of educated taste, as well as a refined concept. Other premises there are that could be developed to pre-

New Offer Of Securities

MONTREAL, July 18.—F. J. Fairhall and Associates, Limited, are making a public offering of 80,000 shares 7 per cent cumulative redeemable preferred stock ($25 par value) and 80,000 shares Class "A" common stock (no par value) of Second Diversified Standard Securities, Limited. The preferred stock is being offered at $25.50 to yield 6.86 per cent, while the Class "A" Common is offered along with preferred in the form of units; price of the units on request to the fiscal agents. Second Diversified Standard Securities Ltd. formed recently as an investment trust, will operate along similar lines to the original trust which met with such outstanding success since its organization a year ago. Securities purchased by the trust will consist solely of issues representative of Standard Oil and subsidiary corporations, the by-laws providing that not more than 10 per cent of purchases will be interested in any individual stock. The wide field for investment offered by this group of stocks is indicated by the fact that around 80 different companies, operating in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Central and South America, and Europe are represented.

The earning potentialities of the Company may be gauged by the results of Diversified Standard Securities during its first 12 months of operations. Despite the fact that the oil industry in 1927 was in the midst of a period of extreme depression, net earnings for the period averaged over 3 1-4 times preferred dividend requirements. For the first quarter earnings were equivalent to 2 1-2 times requirements; during the 2nd and 3rd quarters, 3 times requirements; and in the last quarter 5 times requirements.

Preferred shareholders of Second Diversified Standard Securities Limited will be amply protected as regards their equity in the Company by a comprehensive and rigorous trust deed providing for security by a diversified variety of Standard Oil stocks which represent a minimum of 100 per cent of the par value is held in trust for the stock.
