OFFICER COMMANDING

Fuehrer's Fire Girl

Hitler, who once said the duty of women of the Reich was solely to bear children to grow up and become Nazis, has evidently changed his mind. Here a German girl helps a fireman with a hose as manpower shortage forces Nazis to recruit more and more women for heavy jobs.

MALPEQUE W. I.

The Malpeque Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Rachel Bestro for their July meeting on Tuesday evening. President presiding and the meeting opened in the usual way with the Ode and Creed.

There was a good attendance of members and roll call was answered by each member donating some piece of clothing for a relief case girl. A splendid donation was handed in by members and others to be displayed at the District Convention the coming week. Plans were made for the Convention and other items of business were discussed.

The committee in charge decided to postpone the Ice Cream social till a later date.

Receipts were acknowledged from donation sent to the Greek Relief Fund of $55.00.

The offering for the evening was taken which amounted to $22.00. The singing of the National Anthem brought the meeting to a close.—V.
