A NOTABLE VISITOR to Prince Edward Island this week is Miss Evelyn Mitchell of Toronto, who has recently toured the Canadian West, and last year spent some weeks in Newfoundland, as representative of the Woman's Missionary Society of the United Church of Canada. Miss Mitchell is an interesting and talented Platform Speaker, and during her stay on the Island will address gatherings at Elmsdale, Glenwood and Lot 16, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. On Friday, October 3rd she will be in Summerside, and on Sunday in Kensington and Malpeque. Beginning Monday, October 6th she will be in the centre of the Province at Bradshaw, Hampton, Union and Charlottetown. Dundas on Friday, and on Sunday, the 12th at Murray River, Sturgeon and Montague. 11.

Mrs. James Clarkin is also improving, after being seven months under the doctor's care.

What might have proved a very bad accident happened last week when one of Mr. William Connolly's little girls got her hand caught in the cogs of a gasoline engine, which was cranked by some of the other children. Under the skilful care of the doctor, she is doing better than was expected.

We are also sorry to note Mr. Patrick Trainor, of Windon, is confined to his bed with broken ribs, the result of a fall.

Mr. Joseph Duffy and his two daughters with their husbands have returned to Boston, after a short visit to Mr. Thomas Duffy and Mrs. Keenan, brother and sister of Joseph.

Mr. Michael O'Brien is building quite a large barn to replace the one he lost from the lightning storm last summer.

Miss Nellie Walsh has returned home, after spending a very pleasant week at the Head of Hillsborough.

Mrs. Patrick McLellan and son Harold paid a flying visit to Byrne's Road last week.

Mrs. John Fisher, of Riverton, has returned home fully recovered, after being two months with her parents.

Frank Dunn has returned to St. Dunstan's College, after spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Dunn.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dunn have

SERVICE TONIGHT.—A mid-week service will be held in the New Glasgow Church of Christ on Wednesday evening 7.30 P. M. Rev. Mr. Macklin, a return Missionary from China will conduct the service.

THE GREEN CLOAK.—By Yorke Davis—Have you in your travels or in your reading of the South Seas ever heard of the death chant of the Maoris, and do you know its significance? If not, read the Guardian's new serial which starts next week.

SENTENCED ON TWO CHARGES.—A young man from Alexandria appeared before Stipendiary Shaw yesterday charged with mischief and with the theft of a flashlight. On the first charge he was fined $20 and costs or two months in jail. On the second he was sentenced to thirty days in jail without the option of a fine.

ATTENDING W. M. S.—Mrs. George F. Riley, New London, crossed on the Hochelaga Tuesday to be present at the fifty-fourth annual meeting of W. M. S. to be held in the Westminster Presbyterian Church, New Glasgow, N. S. Mrs. Riley was accompanied by Miss Jennie Kee of Boston.

The above services are to be conducted by Rev. Hugh Miller of Deber. N. B. Mr. Miller was stationed on the Cornwall Circuit a few years ago and many will be glad to hear him again. A. E. Chapman, B. A., Pastor.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.—The engagement is announced in Victoria, B. C., of May Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the late Mr. George E. Goff and of Mrs. Goff, of Woodville, Prince Edward Island, to Mr. Albert Alexander Burnie Wootton son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wootton of Victoria. The wedding will take place at Christ Church Cathedral, Victoria on Saturday, October 25. Miss Goff is a niece of Mr. Charles Stranman, formerly of Montreal.—Montreal Star

ISLANDER MANAGING EDITOR.—Mr. E. Wells of Hills River, P. E. I. has been appointed Managing Editor of the Argosy. Mr. Wells has the honor of being the second highest on a staff of twenty and is the only student from Prince Edward Island on the staff. The Argosy is the paper of the University students of Mount Allison and is published under the auspices of the Burketarian Society. It appears weekly, usually with one or more magazine numbers, during the college year. The Argosy was established over forty five years ago and has ever since been an important exponent of student opinion.—M.

ABSENT 40 YEARS.—Mrs. Ann Patterson of Seattle, Washington, accompanied by her sister Mrs. Albina Kelly of Boston, Mass., visits the Island after an absence of forty years. She spent part of the summer visiting friends and relatives in Boston and Pittsburgh and before returning home to Seattle she gratified her desire of returning to her place of birth. She was entertained at the home of her brother Mr. John Keeffe, Kinkora. During her two weeks stay on the Island she has travelled the greater part of it, reveling in the beauty of the autumn scenery, which she claims is yet unsurpassed in any place she has yet visited. Since she left the potato industry sprung up and she claims that the quality and flavor of P. E. I. potatoes and vegetables are unequalled America over. Suffice it to say she is highly pleased with her visit here and greatly regretted that it could not be prolonged. She left Saturday morning Sept. 27, for Pittsburgh where she intends spending the winter with her son Mr. E. H. Patterson, before returning to Seattle.

ADAMSON—THOMPSON.—The marriage of Susan, daughter of the late Henry and Mrs. Thompson, of Cutremont, to Mr. Andrew Samuel Adamson, son of the Rev. and Mrs. John Adamson, of St. Peter's Bay, Prince Edward Island, is taking place Saturday afternoon at four o'clock at the Church of the Ascension. The Rev. J. S. Morris is officiating assisted by the Rev. John Adamson, father of the groom. The church will be decorated with yellow gladioli and ferns, the guests pews being marked with large bows of white ribbon. Mr.

FOR YOU AND YOURS. It Might Have Been Me! A sudden shout! A crash! Silence! Then hurrying feet and the imperative clang of the ambulance bell. Industry has claimed another victim. Looking on saddened and awe-struck, the thought strikes home, "It might have been me!" Risks like these cannot always be avoided. The wise man sees the moral and is prepared to make certain through planned insurance that whatever happens to him, his home and all it means to him will remain secure. GLEANINGS FROM BYRNE'S ROAD AND VICINITY. Her friends are glad to see Mrs. Thomas Kenny out again, after her recent illness, which caused her family much concern as shown by her two sons, Joseph and George, and her daughter, Mrs. Patrick Casey, also her adopted daughter, Mrs. Patrick Walsh, all coming from New York, also her son Martin from Ottawa, and another daughter, Mrs. John De Long, from New Haven, Connecticut. She was tenderly nursed by her two daughters, Mrs. Frank O'Brien and Mrs. John DeLong, assisted by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lemuel and Mrs. John Kenny. Her spiritual wants were performed by her zealous pastor, Rev. Father J. Rooney, she also had a visit from Rev. Father O'Hara, the Redemptorist from Charlottetown, and a kindly visit from her old pastor, Rev. A. A. McAulay, St. Peter's Bay. Mrs. James Clarkin is also improving, after being seven months under the doctor's care. What might have proved a very bad accident happened last week when one of Mr. William Connolly's little girls got her hand caught in the cogs of a gasoline engine, which was cranked by some of the other children.
