

PRINCE EDWARD TODAY TUES. WED.

A modern Doug matching wits for millions, collaring big business with his dare-devil manoeuvres, then tossing it all aside to win the heart of a girl who didn't care. An up-to-the-minute cavalier racing, romping and leaping through countless thrills to attain the unattainable. More action than a circus, more exciting than an air battle; the greatest of all modern entertainments. It's Doug, at his best.

from that day the Church swept forward for centuries like a living flame. "Have ye received the Spirit?" It is a universal question, born of a universal need. Through this indwelling the Church shall reach and hold the world. If we are willing to pay the price. The price is Cleansing. Emptied of self, emptied of all useless, harmful, frustrating influences that prevent the inflow of the Holy Spirit, humbly, faithfully, believing, we must seek.

The price is Conversion. A surrender, irrevocable of all we are and all we have to God. In this surrender let us glorify the Master, let us crown Him Lord of all. When we enthroned Him in our hearts, we shall have the power. Have we tarried before God beseeching the Spirit? Before us is the challenge of the unchurched, the lost, the spiritually hungry. Let us pray for Power!

The evening sermon was "The Marriage at Cana" an eloquent address of a deep appeal. The music of the day included a soprano solo at the evening service by Mrs. A. C. Vincent. Miss Stenford continued her service as acting organist efficiently.

The usual activities of the week were continued with special emphasis on the mid week meeting for prayer and praise.

Y. M. C. A. SERVICE OF SONG AT ZION CHURCH LAST NIGHT

The regular Y. M. C. A. Sunday evening song service was largely attended last night and proved most enjoyable and helpful.

Rev. G. L. Griffiths who has been supplying for Zion Church was the speaker of the evening. Prefacing his remarks with a story of a minister who said he could always speak before a congregation with only a minute's notice, recalling that he himself had only a short notice to prepare for this meeting and too much must not be expected. Mr. Griffiths' talk was most interesting and full of useful suggestions.

Young people he remarked should sing for the same reasons as the birds sing, because they can not help it. But especially to devote their singing to the praise of God. The speaker referred to the fact that all of the charges brought against the early Christians by the enemies of their religion was, that they gathered together secretly to sing the praises of the resurrected Christ. They were made to suffer for it. We need

The pups which belonged to one litter, an exceptionally large one, were about six weeks old. The thieves left little trace of their operations behind them. A goose was also stolen from a nest. The matter has been reported to the Provincial Police who are working on the case.

The many friends of Mrs. Euphemia Lynda, proprietress of the Davies Hotel, will regret to learn that she has entered the Charlottetown Hospital for treatment.

ALBANY JUBILEE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The regular monthly meeting of the Jubilee Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Samuel Francis on April 1st. The meeting was opened in the usual way with the President in the chair and by singing Old Virginia and Maple Leaf and repeating the Creed. There was nine members present and one visitor. The minutes of last meeting were read, approved and signed. The roll call was answered by "April Fool Jokes." The Sick Committee visited the sick and gave them fruit. The School Committee visited the school and was welcomed by the teachers and found that there was nothing wanted. One member, Mrs. Thomas E. Noonan, was glad to welcome as she had been absent for three months. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson thanked the Jubilee members for their kindness during their recent illness. A Government grant of $3.00 was received and $11.50 was deposited in the bank. A letter from Mrs. H. Wright, district convention president was received and read at the last meeting, concerning the program for the coming convention, which is to take place in July. A contest was put on by Mrs. S. McKay which caused lots of thinking. Miss Ruby Burns carried off the prize. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Andrew Noonan. After the business part of the meeting was over for the evening, a social hour was very pleasantly spent. House-cleaning, styles of the day, gardening hints and cooking were all talked about with lots of interest, but the fun had just started, when the hostess brought in a tray of good things to eat. The gramophone music and conversation whiffed the time away until the clock struck home time. The members thanked the

with the accomplishments of at least a dozen average men centered in him. One of the most dazzling characters of history. A wisdom which has never been exceeded. Yet, looking back upon his life—although he did not fail to appreciate his amazing temporal privileges and his own unmatched mental abilities and accomplishments, he utters these weighty words, pregnant with truth and which have come echoing down the corridors of the centuries: "This is the conclusion of the whole matter, fear God and keep His commandments, for this is the whole duty of man"—which corresponds as near as possible with faith in Jesus Christ. The discourse which was addressed especially to the young people of the large congregation was most effectively illustrated and was deeply impressive.

The large choir under the leadership of Prof. Thompson rendered the anthems "Jesus, My Saviour Look on Me," by Nevin, Mr. Harry Craswell singing the solo parts in a very pleasing voice. "Rock of Ages" by Dudley Buck, in which anthem, Mrs. Sutherland McLean was the soloist, singing in her usual good voice. A very pleasing selection was the mixed quartette "God So Loved the World" from Stainer's Crucifixion, sung by Miss Flora Campbell, Mrs. J. A. McMillan and Messrs. Harry Craswell and Malcolm McKinnon.

The evening theme was taken from the words of King Solomon in Eccles. XII: 13, "Fear God and keep His commandments, for this is the whole duty of man." Without a proper relation to God, man is not complete. The speaker explained how this book was a record of the grand experiments which Solomon made in search of man's highest, real and permanent good; and as an experiment of this kind it is unexampled. Never among the children of men did anyone have such an opportunity of experimenting with life as did Solomon. Wealth, splendour, magnificence and wealth, one of the most fertile minds in all history; a mind able to extract from the sources of life, all the possible satisfaction and pleasure they could yield. Church Services

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The meetings in the Christian Church, conducted by Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Whiston, began yesterday with fine audiences and interest. He addressed three great services and gave an unusual address at the Bible School on "Tony and his Gang," suggested by the old game of "Follow the Leader". The services from start to finish evidenced careful and adequate preparation, and planning and the Evangelist dovetailed together song and music, sermon and scripture. He and Mrs. Whiston sang a duet that was greatly appreciated. They will speak and sing every night this week at 7.30. It was announced that each meeting would last one hour only. Whether members or not, folks were invited to hear a speaker who says things differently from the average, but without embarrassment of any sort. Dr. Whiston's sermons, though evangelistic, will be filled with travel, education and inspiration. Any who like to hear a good speaker are invited to attend.

In the evening sermon he spoke on the "Divine Touch" using the healing of the leper in Mark I the basis of his message. He said, "Christ's touch was not the ordinary touch, but revealed His character. It revealed His brotherhood inasmuch as a leper was not to be touched by human hand. Jesus became not only his physician, but his friend. His touch revealed His divine authority and men obeyed. For ages He has touched the blasphemers and adulterers, the liar, and the moral unbeliever and they have been stepped in their tracks. He touched John Bunyan, that greatest of sinners and he became gentle as a child. He touched Simon and he became Peter. He touched Saul and he became Paul. He has touched millions of men and women and changed their characters and their destinies. His touch was the touch of quiet and rest. As He stilled the waters on the sea and there came calm, so He has touched the troubled souls of life and made peace. Sin defiles, but Jesus lifts. His touch has exalted and uplifted men all through the ages. He touched the water and it became wine, the symbol of His blood. He touched the lilies and they were robed in purple and crimson surpassing the glory of Solomon.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

Rev. Mr. Brown was the preacher at both services yesterday and considering the unfavorable weather there were very good congregations. At the announcement period reference was made to the many letters received from week to week from different members of the radio audience as to the helpfulness and blessing which have come from the broadcasting service. In one case a woman in Quebec Province who lives 15 miles from the nearest Protestant Church spoke of the joy and blessing that has come to them through the radio and enclosed a money order for the collection that was taken from the friends that had gathered recently. There are also anonymous writers who have their criticisms to offer. The text from which Rev. Mr. Brown preached was Phil. 2:12, 13. "Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling for it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure." Salvation is of God and we should co-operate with God by diligently applying ourselves to attain the mind that was in Christ Jesus. Paul's idea of being saved seemed to be a present and continuing experience in growth and love. In the evening Rev. Mr. Brown spoke on the progress of the Kingdom taking as his text Psalm 146-11. "They shall speak of Thy Kingdom and talk of Thy power." He particularly referred to the progress of christianity in Japan and to the present evangelic movement going on in that country. He gave an enthralling picture of the Leader in that movement, Kagawa, a young man 43 years of age, a Prophet, raised up of God to lead his people out of darkness and to point them to Jesus Christ as the Saviour of the World. Kagawa is the convert of one of our own missionaries and his aim now is 1,000,000 souls for Christ in three years. The music comprised an anthem by the choir at each service and in the evening Mr. James Calder sang beautifully and with much appreciation by the congregation a solo "In the Garden". The presence and help of Mr. Benj. Acorn in the choir was also most welcome. Next Sunday is Mother's Day and the Sacrament of Baptism will take place at the morning service. The attendance at Sunday School was 418, a gain of 39 over the same Sunday last year.
