WEDDING BELLS—St. Mary's Road was the scene of a very pretty wedding on January 24th when Miss Clary McCarron, one of the popular young ladies of the district was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Joseph McGuigan of St. Mary's Road. The bride was dressed in a suit of blue velvet with a white picture hat and furs and was attended by her sister Miss Nellie McCarron. The groom was supported by Mr. James McCarron. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to the home of the bride's parents where a wedding dinner was served in Mrs. McCarron's usual grand style and in a manner worthy of the occasion. Many lovely gifts were received by the happy married couple. The evening was spent very quietly, wishes of prosperity and happiness being showered on the happy young couple.

INSTITUTE MEETING—At a meeting of Morell Farmers' Institute held on the 16th February, the question of the running of automobile buses on the country roads was taken up, as requested by the delegates of the Central Farmers' Institute. The following resolution was moved and seconded: Resolved: That the members of this Institute do fully accord with the resolution passed at the annual meeting of delegates, held at the Prince of Wales College, January 18th, 1917, that the present law regulating the running of automobiles be repealed and that the original act totally prohibiting them be again enforced. After a thorough discussion in which all (21 in number) took part a vote was taken which resulted 21 for 1 against resolution. John Mc Dougall, Sec'y.

Since then she had been practically bedfast and at times a great sufferer. She bore her affliction with cheerfulness and resignation and was blessed with the loving care and sympathy of her children and a large circle of friends by whom she was held in affectionate regard.

Mrs. Stewart was for many years an earnest and consistent member of the Baptist Church. A woman of high character, pure life and truly religious spirit. Her funeral took place on Jan. 3rd, 1917, conducted by Rev. C. R. Freeman of Charlottetown, assisted by Rev. L. L. Coffin of Marshfield. A very large number of people gathered to pay their tribute of respect to her memory and follow her remains to their last resting place in Marshfield Cemetery.

FRECKLES

March Brings Out Unsightly Spots. How to Remove Easily.

The woman with tender skin dreads March because it is likely to cover her face with ugly freckles. No matter how thick her veil, the sun and wind have a strong tendency to make her freckle.

Fortunately for her peace of mind the prescription othine—double strength makes it possible for even those most susceptible to freckles to keep their skin clear and white. No matter how stubborn a case of freckles you have, the double strength othine should remove them.

Get an ounce from your druggist and banish the freckles. Money back if it fails.
