

FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY
FIRE SATURDAY—A roof fire at the dwelling of Frank Hopkins, Edward Street Saturday caused slight damage before it was extinguished. Firemen were forced to do considerable cutting to reach the blaze, they explained. Chemical extinguishers were used.

—IN 'S'IDE—Mr. J. Baldwin of Goules, Florida is a recently and has joined the personnel of the Royal Canadian Air Force: Earl (Cap) Brown, Claude McEwen, Jack Macdonald, Mrs. E. M. Macdonald, all of Charlottetown; Frank Purvis of Charlottetown; David Ruckham of Hunter River, and Lorne McEwen of West St. Peters.

PASS CIVIL SERVICE—According to word received from the Civil Service Commission the following residents of Charlottetown, P. E. I., have qualified for employment with the Department of Public Works as caretaker, Grade 3, Male. They were successful in a recent competition held by the Civil Service Commission, Ottawa. John James Purcell, George Charles Butt.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of the late Mrs. Harold Cudmore was held Friday afternoon from her late residence on Gerald Street. The service was conducted by Pastor P. A. Rick, assisted by Adj. Lynch. Pall bearers were: Messrs. Harold Cudmore, Chas. Kennedy, Lorne Walker, Leslie Roper, George Roper and Arthur Roper. Interment was in People's Cemetery.

—BURGLARIZE STATION—Burglars broke the door in the Canadian National Railway station house at Borden Saturday night. Their loot was said to be in the vicinity of $800. Royal Canadian Mounted Police said entrance was made through a window after first removing an outer storm window. Nothing else of value was included in the take, it was learned.

EPIDEMIC UNDER CONTROL—The scarlet fever epidemic which has been raging in Georgetown and Murray Harbor was reported last night by Dr. B. C. Keeping, Deputy Minister of Health, to be well under control at present. No cases are reported in Murray Harbor, where the school and public buildings are closed due to the prevalence of the disease. Dr. Keeping said that no serious cases have been reported.

—VISITOR TO SUMMERSIDE—Mrs. E. Monaghan West Devon who is approaching her 96th birthday last week to see her daughter, Mrs. Constance E. Shew, was accompanied by her son Mr. J. A. Smith, and Mrs. Boyles of West Devon and another son, William Boyles of Middle Sackville, N. B. who is visiting on the island. Mrs. Monaghan has been in excellent health for a woman of her years and quite enjoyed her visit.

FAREWELL ADDRESS—A very pleasant evening was spent when the Catholic Women's League of Kinkora Parish met at the home of one of their members Mrs. M. J. O'Connell. The subject of the evening was the eulogy of the late Rev. Fr. J. J. O'Connell. The address was read by Mrs. J. H. Trainor, President, and a well filled purse presented by Mrs. J. A. Smith. Although taken by surprise Mrs. O'Connell thanked them for their kindness and asked them to call on her in her new home.

The minister Dr. R. Moorhead Legate conducted both services at St. James yesterday. His morning service was one of encouragement for those who were gathered. The text was taken from Psalm 112 "He shall not be afraid of evil tidings for his heart is fixed trusting in the Lord. The Lord God is his stronghold and he is steadfast in their faith are immune from what might otherwise be disrupting shocks in their lives. The minister took as his theme, personal service as exemplified in Paul's words in Acts 9, "Lord, what wilt thou have me do?" At the close of the service a collection was taken for the history of Christendom has there been more need for people to ask themselves this question. There is something in the words of the apostle which are so timely and so true. We are willing to subordinate private ambition to the will of God. The morning anthem was "How Long Will They Forget Me?" Soloist, Mrs. N. D. MacLean, and in the evening "But the Lord is Mindful of His Own", Mendelssohn.

—WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday evening at the Kensington Parsonage. Rev. George Somers officiating when Miss Virginia Croken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ian Markie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marks of Margate became the bride of Allie MacNeill, son of Mrs. Clara MacNeill, Kensington. The bride was very charming in a dress of white velvet with matching turban and shoes, and corsage bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride where a reception was held in honor of the young couple, about 40 guests attended. A number of friends called to congratulate the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. MacNeill left shortly after for a wedding trip to the Maritime Provinces, the bride travelling in a teal blue coat with hat to match. Upon their return they will make their home in Kensington where a host of friends wish them every happiness. Before her marriage the bride was the guest of honor at a shower at her home when the bride and groom were the recipient of many lovely things.

—CELEBRATE 35TH ANNIVERSARY—Mr. and Mrs. Hubert P. MacNeill, were given a surprise party on Wednesday evening at their home in Traveller's Rest by their many friends and neighbors on the occasion of their 35th wedding anniversary. The party was a complete surprise to Mr. and Mrs. MacNeill who were accompanied by many of their old friends and neighbors on such an auspicious occasion. After the exchange of greetings, Mrs. MacNeill read a letter from her husband, Mr. MacNeill, who was in Nova Scotia. Mr. MacNeill was called upon to read an address in which was expressed the hearty good will of those present to Mr. and Mrs. MacNeill in having attained their 35th wedding anniversary and the hope that they would live to see many more such times. Mr. MacNeill then presented Mr. and Mrs. MacNeill with a presentation. Both Mr. and Mrs. MacNeill made short speeches in which they expressed their sincere thanks for the kindness shown upon them. Refreshments were made by Mr. D. B. Macdonald and Mr. Peter MacIntyre. Mr. MacNeill, Music Director, was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Farnell Cossrove. Mr. Allie MacNeill and Joseph Arsenault, who sang several songs. They are the Good Fellows was sung by all present. Refreshments were served by the ladies.

—ACCEPTS POSITION—Mr. James Millman who has been on the office staff of Messrs. R. T. Holman, Ltd., Summerside, has accepted a position in the Customs Department of T. Eaton Company, Moncton, N. B. Mr. Millman leaves next Friday for Moncton to take up his new duties.

JOIN AIR FORCE—The following young men from Prince Edward Island left for England and joined the personnel of the Royal Canadian Air Force: Earl (Cap) Brown, Claude McEwen, Jack Macdonald, Mrs. E. M. Macdonald, all of Charlottetown; Frank Purvis of Charlottetown; David Ruckham of Hunter River, and Lorne McEwen of West St. Peters.

—RECEIVES INJURIES—Mr. Harvey Craig of Carleton is in the Prince County Hospital suffering from injuries received on Saturday when the horse he was driving started to run away. The Craig was thrown off the load of wood and wedged between the gate and the cartwheel. His injuries are not considered serious and Mr. Craig expects to go home in a few days.

—FUNERAL FROM BORDEN—The funeral of Mr. William J. Carruthers was held on Monday afternoon from his late residence at Borden and was very largely attended. Rev. Harvey Bishop, Charlottetown, conducted the service at the house and grave. The pallbearers were: Captain John L. Read; Leigh Lowther; Burpee McMiokien; Albert Muttart; James Cairns and T. B. Gillespie. Interment was in the family plot in the Church of Scotland, Cemetery, Cape Traverse.

—DEATH OF JAMES C. RAMSAY—There passed away at his late residence on St. James Street, James E. Ramsay at 72 years of age. Mr. Ramsay had been ill with pneumonia. He was a prominent resident of the district and was most highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. He leaves to mourn his widow, formerly Miss Thompson, of Darnley; one daughter, Mrs. Bruce Caseley of Spring Valley; and two sons, William in the Baltic and Russell in the West. The funeral is taking place from his late residence this afternoon to the Malpeque Cemetery.—S.

—BURIAL OF ST. GEORGE'S—The funeral of Mrs. George T. Pickering was held on Monday afternoon from her late residence at Borden and was very largely attended. Rev. Harvey Bishop, Charlottetown, conducted the service at the house and grave. The pallbearers were: Captain John L. Read; Leigh Lowther; Burpee McMiokien; Albert Muttart; James Cairns and T. B. Gillespie. Interment was in the family plot in the Church of Scotland, Cemetery, Cape Traverse.

—DEATH OF ST. GEORGE'S—The funeral of Mrs. George T. Pickering was held on Monday afternoon from her late residence at Borden and was very largely attended. Rev. Harvey Bishop, Charlottetown, conducted the service at the house and grave. The pallbearers were: Captain John L. Read; Leigh Lowther; Burpee McMiokien; Albert Muttart; James Cairns and T. B. Gillespie. Interment was in the family plot in the Church of Scotland, Cemetery, Cape Traverse.

—DEATH OF ST. GEORGE'S—The funeral of Mrs. George T. Pickering was held on Monday afternoon from her late residence at Borden and was very largely attended. Rev. Harvey Bishop, Charlottetown, conducted the service at the house and grave. The pallbearers were: Captain John L. Read; Leigh Lowther; Burpee McMiokien; Albert Muttart; James Cairns and T. B. Gillespie. Interment was in the family plot in the Church of Scotland, Cemetery, Cape Traverse.

—DEATH OF ST. GEORGE'S—The funeral of Mrs. George T. Pickering was held on Monday afternoon from her late residence at Borden and was very largely attended. Rev. Harvey Bishop, Charlottetown, conducted the service at the house and grave. The pallbearers were: Captain John L. Read; Leigh Lowther; Burpee McMiokien; Albert Muttart; James Cairns and T. B. Gillespie. Interment was in the family plot in the Church of Scotland, Cemetery, Cape Traverse.

—DEATH OF ST. GEORGE'S—The funeral of Mrs. George T. Pickering was held on Monday afternoon from her late residence at Borden and was very largely attended. Rev. Harvey Bishop, Charlottetown, conducted the service at the house and grave. The pallbearers were: Captain John L. Read; Leigh Lowther; Burpee McMiokien; Albert Muttart; James Cairns and T. B. Gillespie. Interment was in the family plot in the Church of Scotland, Cemetery, Cape Traverse.

—DEATH OF ST. GEORGE'S—The funeral of Mrs. George T. Pickering was held on Monday afternoon from her late residence at Borden and was very largely attended. Rev. Harvey Bishop, Charlottetown, conducted the service at the house and grave. The pallbearers were: Captain John L. Read; Leigh Lowther; Burpee McMiokien; Albert Muttart; James Cairns and T. B. Gillespie. Interment was in the family plot in the Church of Scotland, Cemetery, Cape Traverse.

—DEATH OF ST. GEORGE'S—The funeral of Mrs. George T. Pickering was held on Monday afternoon from her late residence at Borden and was very largely attended. Rev. Harvey Bishop, Charlottetown, conducted the service at the house and grave. The pallbearers were: Captain John L. Read; Leigh Lowther; Burpee McMiokien; Albert Muttart; James Cairns and T. B. Gillespie. Interment was in the family plot in the Church of Scotland, Cemetery, Cape Traverse.

—DEATH OF ST. GEORGE'S—The funeral of Mrs. George T. Pickering was held on Monday afternoon from her late residence at Borden and was very largely attended. Rev. Harvey Bishop, Charlottetown, conducted the service at the house and grave. The pallbearers were: Captain John L. Read; Leigh Lowther; Burpee McMiokien; Albert Muttart; James Cairns and T. B. Gillespie. Interment was in the family plot in the Church of Scotland, Cemetery, Cape Traverse.

—DEATH OF ST. GEORGE'S—The funeral of Mrs. George T. Pickering was held on Monday afternoon from her late residence at Borden and was very largely attended. Rev. Harvey Bishop, Charlottetown, conducted the service at the house and grave. The pallbearers were: Captain John L. Read; Leigh Lowther; Burpee McMiokien; Albert Muttart; James Cairns and T. B. Gillespie. Interment was in the family plot in the Church of Scotland, Cemetery, Cape Traverse.

—DEATH OF ST. GEORGE'S—The funeral of Mrs. George T. Pickering was held on Monday afternoon from her late residence at Borden and was very largely attended. Rev. Harvey Bishop, Charlottetown, conducted the service at the house and grave. The pallbearers were: Captain John L. Read; Leigh Lowther; Burpee McMiokien; Albert Muttart; James Cairns and T. B. Gillespie. Interment was in the family plot in the Church of Scotland, Cemetery, Cape Traverse.

—RECOVERING—It is pleasing to report that Mr. Alexander Deegan of Cape Traverse is making a good recovery from his recent illness of pneumonia.

—OUT AGAIN—The many friends are pleased to see Mr. Robert G. Hogg of Sherbrooke out and about again after his recent illness. Mr. Hogg had been undergoing treatment in the Prince County Hospital for the past few weeks.—S.

—NURSES ALUMNAE MEETS.—The Alumnae Association of the Prince Edward Island Hospital Graduate Nurses held a well attended meeting in the Grand Hotel on Friday, November 17th at 8 P. M. Miss Anna Bennett presided at the meeting which after a brief business session the former had a social evening under the direction of Mrs. Wendell MacKenzie. Miss Winnie Schurman, R. N. gave an interesting outline of her own experiences during the Great War. This was followed by "novels" of beautiful Prince Edward Island shown by Mr. N. D. MacLean. Refreshments were served.

FAMILY BEREAVED—Miss Nina Keenan received a telegram yesterday announcing the death of her brother-in-law, Mr. Roy F. Hunter which occurred at his home in Massillon, Ohio, on Tuesday, Nov. 21st after several months of indifferent health. Mr. Hunter, who was a native of Springfield, N.S. was married to Miss Edith Keenan, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Keenan of this city. Besides his widow, Mr. Hunter leaves three sons Harris, Robert and Don to whom the sympathy of many home friends will be extended.

—FUNERAL OF GEORGE T. PICKERING—The funeral of Mr. George T. Pickering was held on Tuesday afternoon at the Presbyterian Church and was very largely attended. Rev. Mr. Verwolf conducted the service at house and grave. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Reginald Compton, Jarvis Tanton, Major Townsend, B. MacKay, George Morrison, James Morrison, J. Willard and William Darrach. Small, interment was in the People's Cemetery.—S.

—FUNERAL OF MRS. HARRY COTTON—The funeral service for Mrs. Harry Cotton was held on Wednesday afternoon from her late residence at Borden and was very largely attended. Rev. Mr. Verwolf conducted the service at house and grave. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Reginald Compton, Jarvis Tanton, Major Townsend, B. MacKay, George Morrison, James Morrison, J. Willard and William Darrach. Small, interment was in the People's Cemetery.—S.

—QUET WEDDING—A quiet wedding was solemnized last Saturday evening at the United Church parsonage. Rev. B. C. Salter officiating, when Miss Clara Margaret MacNeill, daughter of Mrs. MacNeill of Kensington and the late William MacNeill became the bride of Mr. Edward Everett Arnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arnett, Summerside. The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Neil Bradshaw. The bride wore a lovely sheer wool dress of white tulle with accessories. The groom is a young barrister with an office in Summerside and is well and favorably known in the community. The bride is quite popular with the younger set in Kensington and was tendered a shower recently at her home. Mr. and Mrs. Arnett have the best wishes of a host of friends for their future happiness.—S.

—LADIES NIGHT—The Kinsmen Club of Charlottetown held a very enjoyable Ladies' Night in the form of a dinner-dance at the White Spot, Dunstons, Friday evening. The guests enjoyed a fine chicken dinner and spoke highly of the excellent service and accommodation provided. An interesting feature of the evening was a presentation, by acting president, Gordon Rice, of a "Presidents' Club" pin to Lieut. Stewart Ives. The retiring president spoke briefly in appreciation and expressed the hope that the club would continue in carrying on its good service work in the future as it has in the past.

—BRIDAL SHOWER—A very interesting shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Waterworth, Monague, on Thursday evening, and was attended by Mrs. Dore Caruthers, E. N. of the nursing staff of the Kings County Hospital, who is to be married on Saturday the 18th to Mr. Bruce Currie also of Monague. A feature of the evening was a musical programme presented by the following little people, Barbara Betty Ann, and Peggy Bevan, Jean Grant, Florine and Donnie Campbell, who delighted their hearers with songs suitable to the occasion. Mrs. F. Campbell was the accompanist and led a Sing Song later in the evening, two little girls wheeled in a prettily decorated carriage with beautiful gifts. Miss Helen Campbell and Mrs. Waterworth opened the parcels and Mrs. S. C. MacLean read the humorous verses. Mrs. Currie also of Monague. A number of friends who kindly remembered her in her gracious manner. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening came to a close with the best wishes of a host of friends follow the young couple who are about to enter into matrimony.—L.

—PRE-NUPITAL SHOWER—A prettily arranged shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hogg, Kelvin, Thursday evening November 2nd in honor of Mrs. Hogg's sister, Miss Ruby, who is one of this season's popular young brides. The living room was decorated very artistically for the occasion in a color scheme of yellow and white with the seat of honor strouned by an arch of running hyacinth and white bells. To the strains of the bridal chorus played by Miss Mary Marchbank, the bride to be was accompanied by Miss Louise Johnson who was escorted to the seat of honor. Many well laden baskets were carried in by Mrs. John Burrows, Mrs. Jean Campbell, Mrs. Marion Wood, to the district. The bride and groom were escorted to the seats of honor by Miss Laura Stelson and Mr. Gerald Trainor. Misses Georgina Trainor, and Marion MacKinnon opened the presents and the accompanying verses were read by Miss Myrtle Taylor. After Miss Grace Crosby arranged the gifts on the table, Mr. Hogg on behalf of his bride, thanked his friends for their kindness. A social evening followed, the special feature being a number of songs by Lorne Burdett of Charlottetown, who accompanied himself with his guitar. A dainty lunch was served by the ladies and the party broke up after the singing of Auld Lang Syne.

—CHURCH SHOWER FOR BRIDE—Upwards of one hundred friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Athol Roberts, Hignfield, to tender Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hurry a china shower and to welcome Mrs. Hurry, nee Miss Marion Wood, to the district. The bride and groom were escorted to the seats of honor by Miss Laura Stelson and Mr. Gerald Trainor. Misses Georgina Trainor, and Marion MacKinnon opened the presents and the accompanying verses were read by Miss Myrtle Taylor. After Miss Grace Crosby arranged the gifts on the table, Mr. Hurry on behalf of his bride, thanked his friends for their kindness. A social evening followed, the special feature being a number of songs by Lorne Burdett of Charlottetown, who accompanied himself with his guitar. A dainty lunch was served by the ladies and the party broke up after the singing of Auld Lang Syne.

—MURPHY-MOWEN—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the Basilica at 8:30 on October 30th, by Rev. Louis Dougan, when Anne Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Murphy of Charlottetown, was united in marriage to Joseph Louis Mowen, of Charlottetown. The bride was attended by Miss Florence Witty while Mr. George Chappelle ably supported the groom. The bride and groom had a dainty breakfast served at the bride's home in Charlottetown by her sisters, and amid showers of rice and confetti the happy couple left for their honeymoon on the evening of Nov. 2nd, and the large number of beautiful and useful gifts testified to the bride's popularity in her home town. After a dainty lunch, dancing was enjoyed until the wee sma' hours, splendid music being furnished by Mrs. Wansley Lewis of Conway, aunt of the bride, accompanied on the piano by her brother, Mr. Austin Murphy, assisted by Mr. Alfred McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Mowen have returned to Charlottetown and taken up residence at 50 Edward Street.

—FORMER ISLANDER—Mrs. Edward Flynn, King Street has received the sad news of the death in Detroit, Mich. of Mrs. Archie McKenna (nee Mackenzie) formerly of this city. The late McKenna will be remembered as a talented violinist who gave freely of her services before removing from this city.

—CELEBRATE 30th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY—Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Cairns, life long residents of Summerside, recently celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary at their home with a family gathering at which all their children and grand-children were present. Also Mrs. Cairns' brothers Mr. Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Yeo.

—ENGAGEMENT.—A Winnipeg Exchange wedding following engagement interests to many home friends. The engagement is announced of Mrs. Marguerite, daughter of Mrs. Edith and Mr. John Leader Harbottle, son of Mrs. Harriet George Harbottle. The marriage will take place early in December.

—BRIDAL SHOWER—A very successful shower was held on September 28th, at the home of Mrs. Louis MacNeil, 100 St. James Street, for Mrs. Earl Doherty of Kingston. The bride and groom were escorted to the place of honor by Miss Verna MacKinnon and Mr. William Hounan where a complimentary luncheon was served by Mrs. Lloyd MacKinnon. A well-filled purse was then presented by Mr. Stanley Newman. After the address had been read, "For They are the Good Fellows" was sung. Music for the evening was furnished by Mr. Raymond Gallant.

—DEATH OF STEWART BURNS OF SHERBROOKE—Mrs. Burns was brought to the Prince County Hospital late Monday night suffering from severe pneumonia. She was 80 years of age and was driving when she was struck by a car on the Western Road. Mrs. Burns and her husband were returning to their home at Inverness from West Devon where they had taken a visit to the mill. They were driving a truck wagon. Mrs. Burns was the owner of their own gate a car which was driving towards Summerside struck them. Mr. and Mrs. Burns were both badly lacerated and torn and is suffering from shock. Her condition is considered quite serious. Mrs. Burns received a slight wound on the head when the car struck her. The wagon was smashed to pieces. Mr. George Sharp of Bideford was driving the car. Dr. R. H. Kennedy and Dr. Ben D. MacLean were called. After her injuries were attended to Mrs. Burns was brought to the hospital. The latest report is that she is doing as well as can be expected.—S.

—BRIDE-TO-BE SHOWERED—Miss Blanche MacIvor who had been teaching in Borden for the past ten years was tendered a shower on Monday night in honor of her marriage to Mr. J. A. MacIvor, of the citizens of Borden and girl friends from Summerside and Kinkora. The party was held in the hall of Borden and the guests were plentifully decorated for the occasion. Master Francis Westhaver and little Joan Cameron dressed as a bride and groom brought the happy couple to the ceremony. Miss Tessie Sexton read an address from the Women's Institute of Borden which was accompanied by Mrs. J. A. MacIvor, Mrs. Rogers and Miss Beryl Dorrie unwrapped the gifts assisted by other young ladies present. Miss Kaye made the complimentary speeches which refreshments were served. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. The Summerside Orchestra furnished the music. The bride and groom were in very high regard by the people of Borden where she first went to teach and remained for ten years.—S.

—BOATES-MEIKLE NUPITALS—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Basilica at 8:00 on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock when Miss Elizabeth Anne, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. LeDrew Gardiner, of Charlottetown, was united in marriage to Edward Boates, C. S. M. of the P. E. I. Highlanders. (Black Watch) Summerside. The bride, who was very charming in a street length dress of brown chiffon with a smart white turban and accessories, and matching accessories. Her shower bouquet was Johanna roses. After the ceremony a dainty breakfast was served at the home of the bride and the immediate families of the bride and groom. The dining room was prettily decorated with yellow chrysanthemums. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple motored to Borden and left on the car ferry for a short trip through Nova Scotia. The staff of the Cathedral School, Charlottetown, were in the front of the bride and groom. Mr. Boates will reside in Dartmouth where the groom is attached to his regiment. Previous to her marriage the bride was given a shower by her friends, at the home of her sister-in-law Mrs. Gene Meikle Mrs. Meikle and Mrs. Lena MacQuarie being brides, hostesses. The lovely gifts were opened by Mrs. Lovell Henry and verses read by Mrs. Harry Bishop. The bride received some very lovely gifts.—S.

—RECOVERING—It is pleasing to report that Mr. Alexander Deegan of Cape Traverse is making a good recovery from his recent illness of pneumonia.

—OUT AGAIN—The many friends are pleased to see Mr. Robert G. Hogg of Sherbrooke out and about again after his recent illness. Mr. Hogg had been undergoing treatment in the Prince County Hospital for the past few weeks.—S.

—NURSES ALUMNAE MEETS.—The Alumnae Association of the Prince Edward Island Hospital Graduate Nurses held a well attended meeting in the Grand Hotel on Friday, November 17th at 8 P. M. Miss Anna Bennett presided at the meeting which after a brief business session the former had a social evening under the direction of Mrs. Wendell MacKenzie. Miss Winnie Schurman, R. N. gave an interesting outline of her own experiences during the Great War. This was followed by "novels" of beautiful Prince Edward Island shown by Mr. N. D. MacLean. Refreshments were served.

FAMILY BEREAVED—Miss Nina Keenan received a telegram yesterday announcing the death of her brother-in-law, Mr. Roy F. Hunter which occurred at his home in Massillon, Ohio, on Tuesday, Nov. 21st after several months of indifferent health. Mr. Hunter, who was a native of Springfield, N.S. was married to Miss Edith Keenan, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Keenan of this city. Besides his widow, Mr. Hunter leaves three sons Harris, Robert and Don to whom the sympathy of many home friends will be extended.

—FUNERAL OF GEORGE T. PICKERING—The funeral of Mr. George T. Pickering was held on Tuesday afternoon at the Presbyterian Church and was very largely attended. Rev. Mr. Verwolf conducted the service at house and grave. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Reginald Compton, Jarvis Tanton, Major Townsend, B. MacKay, George Morrison, James Morrison, J. Willard and William Darrach. Small, interment was in the People's Cemetery.—S.

—FUNERAL OF MRS. HARRY COTTON—The funeral service for Mrs. Harry Cotton was held on Wednesday afternoon from her late residence at Borden and was very largely attended. Rev. Mr. Verwolf conducted the service at house and grave. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Reginald Compton, Jarvis Tanton, Major Townsend, B. MacKay, George Morrison, James Morrison, J. Willard and William Darrach. Small, interment was in the People's Cemetery.—S.

—QUET WEDDING—A quiet wedding was solemnized last Saturday evening at the United Church parsonage. Rev. B. C. Salter officiating, when Miss Clara Margaret MacNeill, daughter of Mrs. MacNeill of Kensington and the late William MacNeill became the bride of Mr. Edward Everett Arnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arnett, Summerside. The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Neil Bradshaw. The bride wore a lovely sheer wool dress of white tulle with accessories. The groom is a young barrister with an office in Summerside and is well and favorably known in the community. The bride is quite popular with the younger set in Kensington and was tendered a shower recently at her home. Mr. and Mrs. Arnett have the best wishes of a host of friends for their future happiness.—S.

—LADIES NIGHT—The Kinsmen Club of Charlottetown held a very enjoyable Ladies' Night in the form of a dinner-dance at the White Spot, Dunstons, Friday evening. The guests enjoyed a fine chicken dinner and spoke highly of the excellent service and accommodation provided. An interesting feature of the evening was a presentation, by acting president, Gordon Rice, of a "Presidents' Club" pin to Lieut. Stewart Ives. The retiring president spoke briefly in appreciation and expressed the hope that the club would continue in carrying on its good service work in the future as it has in the past.

—BRIDAL SHOWER—A very interesting shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Waterworth, Monague, on Thursday evening, and was attended by Mrs. Dore Caruthers, E. N. of the nursing staff of the Kings County Hospital, who is to be married on Saturday the 18th to Mr. Bruce Currie also of Monague. A feature of the evening was a musical programme presented by the following little people, Barbara Betty Ann, and Peggy Bevan, Jean Grant, Florine and Donnie Campbell, who delighted their hearers with songs suitable to the occasion. Mrs. F. Campbell was the accompanist and led a Sing Song later in the evening, two little girls wheeled in a prettily decorated carriage with beautiful gifts. Miss Helen Campbell and Mrs. Waterworth opened the parcels and Mrs. S. C. MacLean read the humorous verses. Mrs. Currie also of Monague. A number of friends who kindly remembered her in her gracious manner. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening came to a close with the best wishes of a host of friends follow the young couple who are about to enter into matrimony.—L.

—PRE-NUPITAL SHOWER—A prettily arranged shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hogg, Kelvin, Thursday evening November 2nd in honor of Mrs. Hogg's sister, Miss Ruby, who is one of this season's popular young brides. The living room was decorated very artistically for the occasion in a color scheme of yellow and white with the seat of honor strouned by an arch of running hyacinth and white bells. To the strains of the bridal chorus played by Miss Mary Marchbank, the bride to be was accompanied by Miss Louise Johnson who was escorted to the seat of honor. Many well laden baskets were carried in by Mrs. John Burrows, Mrs. Jean Campbell, Mrs. Marion Wood, to the district. The bride and groom were escorted to the seats of honor by Miss Laura Stelson and Mr. Gerald Trainor. Misses Georgina Trainor, and Marion MacKinnon opened the presents and the accompanying verses were read by Miss Myrtle Taylor. After Miss Grace Crosby arranged the gifts on the table, Mr. Hogg on behalf of his bride, thanked his friends for their kindness. A social evening followed, the special feature being a number of songs by Lorne Burdett of Charlottetown, who accompanied himself with his guitar. A dainty lunch was served by the ladies and the party broke up after the singing of Auld Lang Syne.

—CHURCH SHOWER FOR BRIDE—Upwards of one hundred friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Athol Roberts, Hignfield, to tender Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hurry a china shower and to welcome Mrs. Hurry, nee Miss Marion Wood, to the district. The bride and groom were escorted to the seats of honor by Miss Laura Stelson and Mr. Gerald Trainor. Misses Georgina Trainor, and Marion MacKinnon opened the presents and the accompanying verses were read by Miss Myrtle Taylor. After Miss Grace Crosby arranged the gifts on the table, Mr. Hurry on behalf of his bride, thanked his friends for their kindness. A social evening followed, the special feature being a number of songs by Lorne Burdett of Charlottetown, who accompanied himself with his guitar. A dainty lunch was served by the ladies and the party broke up after the singing of Auld Lang Syne.

—MURPHY-MOWEN—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the Basilica at 8:30 on October 30th, by Rev. Louis Dougan, when Anne Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Murphy of Charlottetown, was united in marriage to Joseph Louis Mowen, of Charlottetown. The bride was attended by Miss Florence Witty while Mr. George Chappelle ably supported the groom. The bride and groom had a dainty breakfast served at the bride's home in Charlottetown by her sisters, and amid showers of rice and confetti the happy couple left for their honeymoon on the evening of Nov. 2nd, and the large number of beautiful and useful gifts testified to the bride's popularity in her home town. After a dainty lunch, dancing was enjoyed until the wee sma' hours, splendid music being furnished by Mrs. Wansley Lewis of Conway, aunt of the bride, accompanied on the piano by her brother, Mr. Austin Murphy, assisted by Mr. Alfred McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Mowen have returned to Charlottetown and taken up residence at 50 Edward Street.

—RECOVERING—It is pleasing to report that Mr. Alexander Deegan of Cape Traverse is making a good recovery from his recent illness of pneumonia.

—OUT AGAIN—The many friends are pleased to see Mr. Robert G. Hogg of Sherbrooke out and about again after his recent illness. Mr. Hogg had been undergoing treatment in the Prince County Hospital for the past few weeks.—S.

—NURSES ALUMNAE MEETS.—The Alumnae Association of the Prince Edward Island Hospital Graduate Nurses held a well attended meeting in the Grand Hotel on Friday, November 17th at 8 P. M. Miss Anna Bennett presided at the meeting which after a brief business session the former had a social evening under the direction of Mrs. Wendell MacKenzie. Miss Winnie Schurman, R. N. gave an interesting outline of her own experiences during the Great War. This was followed by "novels" of beautiful Prince Edward Island shown by Mr. N. D. MacLean. Refreshments were served.

FAMILY BEREAVED—Miss Nina Keenan received a telegram yesterday announcing the death of her brother-in-law, Mr. Roy F. Hunter which occurred at his home in Massillon, Ohio, on Tuesday, Nov. 21st after several months of indifferent health. Mr. Hunter, who was a native of Springfield, N.S. was married to Miss Edith Keenan, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Keenan of this city. Besides his widow, Mr. Hunter leaves three sons Harris, Robert and Don to whom the sympathy of many home friends will be extended.

—FUNERAL OF GEORGE T. PICKERING—The funeral of Mr. George T. Pickering was held on Tuesday afternoon at the Presbyterian Church and was very largely attended. Rev. Mr. Verwolf conducted the service at house and grave. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Reginald Compton, Jarvis Tanton, Major Townsend, B. MacKay, George Morrison, James Morrison, J. Willard and William Darrach. Small, interment was in the People's Cemetery.—S.

—FUNERAL OF MRS. HARRY COTTON—The funeral service for Mrs. Harry Cotton was held on Wednesday afternoon from her late residence at Borden and was very largely attended. Rev. Mr. Verwolf conducted the service at house and grave. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Reginald Compton, Jarvis Tanton, Major Townsend, B. MacKay, George Morrison, James Morrison, J. Willard and William Darrach. Small, interment was in the People's Cemetery.—S.

—QUET WEDDING—A quiet wedding was solemnized last Saturday evening at the United Church parsonage. Rev. B. C. Salter officiating, when Miss Clara Margaret MacNeill, daughter of Mrs. MacNeill of Kensington and the late William MacNeill became the bride of Mr. Edward Everett Arnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arnett, Summerside. The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Neil Bradshaw. The bride wore a lovely sheer wool dress of white tulle with accessories. The groom is a young barrister with an office in Summerside and is well and favorably known in the community. The bride is quite popular with the younger set in Kensington and was tendered a shower recently at her home. Mr. and Mrs. Arnett have the best wishes of a host of friends for their future happiness.—S.

—LADIES NIGHT—The Kinsmen Club of Charlottetown held a very enjoyable Ladies' Night in the form of a dinner-dance at the White Spot, Dunstons, Friday evening. The guests enjoyed a fine chicken dinner and spoke highly of the excellent service and accommodation provided. An interesting feature of the evening was a presentation, by acting president, Gordon Rice, of a "Presidents' Club" pin to Lieut. Stewart Ives. The retiring president spoke briefly in appreciation and expressed the hope that the club would continue in carrying on its good service work in the future as it has in the past.

—BRIDAL SHOWER—A very interesting shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Waterworth, Monague, on Thursday evening, and was attended by Mrs. Dore Caruthers, E. N. of the nursing staff of the Kings County Hospital, who is to be married on Saturday the 18th to Mr. Bruce Currie also of Monague. A feature of the evening was a musical programme presented by the following little people, Barbara Betty Ann, and Peggy Bevan, Jean Grant, Florine and Donnie Campbell, who delighted their hearers with songs suitable to the occasion. Mrs. F. Campbell was the accompanist and led a Sing Song later in the evening, two little girls wheeled in a prettily decorated carriage with beautiful gifts. Miss Helen Campbell and Mrs. Waterworth opened the parcels and Mrs. S. C. MacLean read the humorous verses. Mrs. Currie also of Monague. A number of friends who kindly remembered her in her gracious manner. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening came to a close with the best wishes of a host of friends follow the young couple who are about to enter into matrimony.—L.

—PRE-NUPITAL SHOWER—A prettily arranged shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hogg, Kelvin, Thursday evening November 2nd in honor of Mrs. Hogg's sister, Miss Ruby, who is one of this season's popular young brides. The living room was decorated very artistically for the occasion in a color scheme of yellow and white with the seat of honor strouned by an arch of running hyacinth and white bells. To the strains of the bridal chorus played by Miss Mary Marchbank, the bride to be was accompanied by Miss Louise Johnson who was escorted to the seat of honor. Many well laden baskets were carried in by Mrs. John Burrows, Mrs. Jean Campbell, Mrs. Marion Wood, to the district. The bride and groom were escorted to the seats of honor by Miss Laura Stelson and Mr. Gerald Trainor. Misses Georgina Trainor, and Marion MacKinnon opened the presents and the accompanying verses were read by Miss Myrtle Taylor. After Miss Grace Crosby arranged the gifts on the table, Mr. Hogg on behalf of his bride, thanked his friends for their kindness. A social evening followed, the special feature being a number of songs by Lorne Burdett of Charlottetown, who accompanied himself with his guitar. A dainty lunch was served by the ladies and the party broke up after the singing of Auld Lang Syne.

—CHURCH SHOWER FOR BRIDE—Upwards of one hundred friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Athol Roberts, Hignfield, to tender Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hurry a china shower and to welcome Mrs. Hurry, nee Miss Marion Wood, to the district. The bride and groom were escorted to the seats of honor by Miss Laura Stelson and Mr. Gerald Trainor. Misses Georgina Trainor, and Marion MacKinnon opened the presents and the accompanying verses were read by Miss Myrtle Taylor. After Miss Grace Crosby arranged the gifts on the table, Mr. Hurry on behalf of his bride, thanked his friends for their kindness. A social evening followed, the special feature being a number of songs by Lorne Burdett of Charlottetown, who accompanied himself with his guitar. A dainty lunch was served by the ladies and the party broke up after the singing of Auld Lang Syne.

—MURPHY-MOWEN—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the Basilica at 8:30 on October 30th, by Rev. Louis Dougan, when Anne Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Murphy of Charlottetown, was united in marriage to Joseph Louis Mowen, of Charlottetown. The bride was attended by Miss Florence Witty while Mr. George Chappelle ably supported the groom. The bride and groom had a dainty breakfast served at the bride's home in Charlottetown by her sisters, and amid showers of rice and confetti the happy couple left for their honeymoon on the evening of Nov. 2nd, and the large number of beautiful and useful gifts testified to the bride's popularity in her home town. After a dainty lunch, dancing was enjoyed until the wee sma' hours, splendid music being furnished by Mrs. Wansley Lewis of Conway, aunt of the bride, accompanied on the piano by her brother, Mr. Austin Murphy, assisted by Mr. Alfred McKeeney. Mr. and Mrs. Mowen have returned to Charlottetown and taken up residence at 50 Edward Street.

—RECOVERING—It is pleasing to report that Mr. Alexander Deegan of Cape Traverse is making a good recovery from his recent illness of pneumonia.

—OUT AGAIN—The many friends are pleased to see Mr. Robert G. Hogg of Sherbrooke out and about again after his recent illness. Mr. Hogg had been undergoing treatment in the Prince County Hospital for the past few weeks.—S.