Mr. and Mrs. John A. Cutcliffe Honored.

On Monday 19th, inst. Mr. and Mrs. John A. Cutcliffe were on the eve of their departure from South Melville for Fredericton, where Mr. Cutcliffe has purchased the general grocery business of Mr. A. McLean, tendered a supper and presented with an address and a beautiful sideboard, by their friends and neighbors. About thirty guests sat down to a sumptuous repast, and after ample justice had been done the goose, and other good things, Mr. James Gorman in a neat speech, proposed the health of Mr. and Mrs. Cutcliffe which was responded to in excellent style by John Bradley, Esq., Kelly's Cross. Mr. Joseph McDonald (jr) Crapaud, and Messrs J. W. Villett, Peter McGuigan, Charles Dunstford, Thos. Malone and others. All the speakers spoke in the highest terms of Mr. and Mrs. Cutcliffe, and regretted very much their removal from South Melville. The following is the address.

To MR. AND MRS. JOHN A. CUTCLIFFE.

DEAR FRIENDS,—It is with feelings of deep regret that we learn you are about to remove from your present residence to another place of abode. The announcement of this change has occasioned a feeling of universal sorrow throughout the extent of the district, which we are unable to express in the few feeble words of this address. It is said that there are times when words are found to be inadequate to express the emotions of the heart, and such we feel them to be on this occasion; yet we cannot allow you to say farewell, without conveying to you a feeble expression of our sorrow and regret at your departure, and emphasizing in some degree, our high appreciation of your worth as friends, neighbors and citizens.

As citizens we voice the sentiments of the community, irrespective of creed, when we say that socially you have endeared yourselves to all; while you have ever been distinguished as an advocate of the right and the good, and this is the chief feature of your sojourn with us, that will leave its "footprints on the sands of time."

Before saying good-bye, we beg to present you with the accompanying sideboard, and ask you to kindly accept it as a small token of our regard, which consideration we feel is the only one that would induce you to accept it, or give it any real value in your estimation. In conclusion, we pray that He who directs the destinies of man may ever shower down on both you and your family His choicest blessings; and may that prosperity and happiness which has attended you here, be ever your companion.

Peter McGuigan, James Gorman, Charles Dunstford, James E. McQuade, Arthur Monaghan, Thomas Malone, George Dunstford, George McFarlane, George Higgins, J. W. Villett, Joseph McDonald, John Bradley, J. H. Monaghan.
Mr. Cutcliffe replied in feeling and appropriate terms, thanking the people for their beautiful present, and the kind words contained in the address.

CATARRH PHILANTHROPY.

Which means, do good as well as get good. This is how it operates.—Pearl Lake Mill, Que., August, 1900. "Enclosed find $6.00, send six outfits to 'friends' as follows.—A short time ago I wrote you for an outfit for Mr. Eberage. He would not now part with it for twice its value. I secured one in Montreal, having been informed of your remedy by my father—it has acted wonderfully in Nasal Catarrh of long standing. Signed,

THOS. SISSONS.
Mr. Sissons says a great deal more but when a man sends for six outfits of Catarrhzone that means more than a bushel of words. Such action stands for conviction that he has discovered a remedy of superlative value. Druggists all sell Catarrhzone, ask them to show it to you, ask them to let you try it. We will send it to you for $1.00 or a sample for 50 cents. N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont., Hartford, Conn.
