THE Philadelphia Times, in a recent issue, discussed the various uses old linen could be put to.

Perhaps it was a political allegory? The fact still remains that when table linen is worn out, only one course is open to the housekeeper.

Napkins may indeed be used for a while to cover up the ravages of time, but as the rents increase in size, this mode of hiding them has to be abandoned.

For several years our linen department has been a leading success.

Modern designs, large variety, and low prices have built up our large business.

In Napkins we have 20 qualities, between 60 cts. and $5 per dozen. The value of these is self-apparent.

Novelty in design makes our Tableings very attractive. We show 17 qualities in bleached, ranging from 58 cts. to $1.30 per yard, and 20 lines of grey, from 18 cts. to 88 cts. per yard.

SPECIAL MEETING.—A special meeting of the Volunteers' Association is called for Saturday next, at 8 p.m., in their hall. A full attendance requested. Interesting business.

POLICE COURT.—At the police court yesterday Wm. Simpson was fined $2 or 8 days for being drunk and using firearms on the street. William only fired a shot or two for his own amusement.

CARDINAL GIBBONS has completed for The Ladies' Home Journal what he considers one of the most important articles written by him. It will tell the complete story of "The Life of a Sister of Charity."

Rev. John Gillies from Ontario, will conduct Divine Service at Dundas on Sabbath, Dec. 11th. Preaching in Gaelic at 11 a.m., and English at 3 p.m. There will be a meeting of the congregation on Monday, at 10 a.m.

THE little ice on the platform is the joy of the small boy. It was well said that "every dog has his day," for dogs big and little, fat and lean might be seen yesterday drawing their more fortunate masters over the sidewalks on sleds.

We regret to hear from the Examiner that another railway employe has been dismissed on the score of economy. Mr. Charles Smith, tinsmith, yesterday received notice that the services would not be required after the 17th inst.

THE MARKETS.—There was a small market yesterday. There was little produce in. Very little change in prices. Potatoes 20 to 22 cents per bushel. Turnips 10 to 12 cents per bushel. Pork 54 to 55 cents per lb., and hay 35 to 40 cents per ton.

FOR XMAS.—A few nice Odor Cases were sent us by mistake, and, as they MUST be disposed of before Xmas, will be sold cheap. We also have a splendid line of new and old PERFUMES suitable for Xmas presents, which we are offering at our usual low prices.—A. S. Johnson.

J. F. WHELAN & SON of Halifax have received advices from Boston to the effect that the North Atlantic Steamship Co., of which they are Halifax agents, were negotiating for the purchase of a new fast steamer to run on the Boston and Halifax route with the Britannia. It is expected negotiations will end satisfactorily and the steamer will be placed on the route early in the spring.

A NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT.—On Wednesday evening the 21st inst., a French play, "Les Caisimeres," and the cantata, the Garden of singing flowers, together with some choice Piano solos and duets, will be given by the pupils of Miss Russell's school. Some talented vocalists have kindly consented to sing solos. The price of admission to cover expenses is 25 cents, by invitation only.

THE Countess of Aberdeen, whose husband is expected to be our next Governor-General, who keeps eighty servants in her home in Scotland, and is considered to be the one woman in Great Britain who has come closest to a solution of the servant-girl problem, will tell of her methods of treating her help, etc., in an article for The Ladies' Home Journal entitled "How I Keep My Servants."

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—I herein gratefully acknowledge the receipt of forty dollars from the Presbyterian congregations of Hartsville and Rose Valley. In my distress on the death of my husband and the destitute circumstances in which I was left, the above was very acceptable. My friends in the above named congregations and especially their minister, the Rev. Mr. Campbell, will please accept my sincere thanks for their Christian kindness.—Sarah Lamont, Norboro, Sept. 1892.

YESTERDAY afternoon we were shown by the agent, Mr. H. E. Cameron, Gardner's patent can labeller. The machine is very simple and the principle on which it is worked can be seen at a glance. The tin cans are put in one end of the machine and come out of the other end neatly covered with a label. From 50 to 60 cans can easily be labelled by hand and upwards of 100 by power per minute. Mr. Cameron also represents A. W. Spooners lace leather Copperine Box metal and Phenyle Disinfectant.

DISTRICT Division No. 4 met in York Hall on Monday afternoon, but owing to the bad roads and weather, there was not a large representation. Quite a lot of routine work was gone through. The meeting then adjourned to meet at Winsloe at two o'clock in the afternoon (public meeting at 7.30) of the 27th Dec. At the public meeting at night there was a full house and the following programme carried out: Singing—"There is danger in the Wine Cup." Speech by the chairman, Rev. Mr. James. Recitation by Miss Emily Ayers. Singing by Miss S. Ross. Speech by Rev. Mr. Goldsmith. Recitation by W. H. Reynolds. Dialogue by Misses Ross and Seller. Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Hamlin entertain the young men of St. Paul's congregation at the rectory Tuesday evening. The rooms were crowded and a very enjoyable evening was spent. The rector of St. Paul's is to be heartily commended for the interest he always takes in young men. Kindly acts like this on the part of clergymen and laymen contribute much to the life and vigor of a church.

Masonic Bazaar Notes.

The Bazaar opened yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. During the afternoon and evening many people went in to see the sights and to buy.

There are over a hundred attendants at the booths, tables, doors etc. Over seven hundred tickets were sold at the door yesterday. The probabilities are that the number will exceed the thousand to-day.

About 150 sat down yesterday to partake of the good things set before them at the tea tables. The eatables were all that could be desired and would tempt the most delicate appetite. Tea will be on the tables from 6 to 7.30 this evening.

The Citizens' Band discoursed sweet music during the afternoon and evening. It will also be in attendance to-night from 7 till 10 o'clock.

The colored lights hung around among the spruce presented a beautiful appearance.

All the lady attendants wear badges of blue with the Masonic Emblem—the square and compass. The young ladies were dressed in beautiful costumes and many admiring glances were cast at them as they fitted to and fro like fairies.

A lot of flowers are expected by the Stanley to-night—and will be put on sale as soon as they arrive.

An art gallery will be opened to night where a pleasant hour may be spent in looking over the various articles exhibited there.

Many favorable comments were made about the Gypsy. She is dressed in a most picturesque costume. By the appearance of the crowd around her booth not much will be left for those who attend to night, unless she uses some of her alleged witchcraft and conjures up some of her very saleable wares.

An election will be held to night for the Dominion and local leaders, and the most popular man in the city.

The Booths were all well patronized. The committee were in a happy frame of mind after counting the spoils last night.

Everybody who did not go yesterday should make it a point to attend to day. The Booths as well as the attendants are a great attraction. The smiling faces all around showed that every one was having a good time.

The Masonic Hall will be a beauty and a credit to Charlottetown. Everybody should help it by attending the Bazaar.
