

ENEMY OF MANKIND

It is and How to Escape His Clutches.

Save Yourself Today.

The arch enemy of human life is not Satan, but Pneumonia.

Consumption may number its thousands but Pneumonia its tens of thousands; and besides, it's much quicker in doing its deadly work. A person may catch cold, get Pneumonia and die in two or three days.

The only safeguard is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

They will, if taken in time, prevent Pneumonia from developing.

But, of course, if you wait too late from a really bad attack nothing can save you. That's why we lay so much stress on the fact that a common cold is such a dangerous thing to neglect.

You never know what may come of it. And nowadays, when we have at hand Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, such a safe, certain and perfect cure for a cold, there is no excuse whatever for letting it run along.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets act directly upon the mucous membranes of the body, the inflammation of which is generally called "Catarrh," which inflammation is nearly always caused, in the first place, by a cold.

As soon as you begin to sneeze, an your eyes and nose begin to run, fly for relief to Stuart's Catarrh Tablets. They will not fail you.

Cases of chronic, long-standing catarrhal trouble accompanied by discharge from nose and throat, coughing, hawking, spitting, offensive breath, indigestion, irritation of the stomach or bowels, are also easily cured by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

In cases of long standing, however, a cure cannot be expected in a day, as it will take some time to build up the weakened, inflamed and flabby membranes to their original tonic state of health.

It will take time, but perseverance will win the day—if assisted by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

It is important, however, to remember to use Stuart's.

No others are genuine. No other tablets, or any other medicine, will give you the real, positive, permanent curative results that Stuart's will.

Try them. All druggists sell them at 50 cents a box.

SATURDAY MORNING, JANUARY 20, 1905.

MAKING A SOBBER CITY.

It is a matter of congratulation to all lovers of sobriety that for months past we have had a prevalence of sobriety in this city under the prohibitory law such as we believe to be unexcelled in any city of Canada. In the time under review we have had a provincial exhibition, a federal and a provincial election followed by the holiday season, all of which events usually lead to increased drinking. There has been an occasional drunk seen on our streets, but the cases have been few, and probably not in the memory of persons now living has Charlottetown been so free from drunkenness as in the closing months of 1904 and the opening month of 1905.

Every market day affords the strongest contrast to the market days of past years. Our country friends now come to town, sell their produce, transact their business and return to their homes so sober—a most favorable contrast to the drinking, quarreling and furious driving of former years. This change has been brought about by the prohibitory law, judiciously enforced by Inspector Jenkins, resulting in the closing down of the saloons and drinking places, and the removal of temptation from the way of the people. The prohibitory law in Charlottetown stands abundantly approved by its fruits, because it is a good law and it has been looked after and enforced. No law however good will enforce itself. All honor to the faithful band who through good and evil report have stood by the law and been ever ready to support it with their efforts and their dollars.

Moreover the good results that have come from the steady enforcement of the law has greatly strengthened the popular sentiment in its favor. Never before was prohibition so firmly seated in public favor as at present. But we know that eternal vigilance is the price at which all of these benefits can only be retained. It would be very easy to lose the ground that has been won and to open wide the flood-gates of drunkenness in our city again. Therefore every effort should be made to hold the ground that has been captured, to keep the liquor traffic discredited as it is today, and to repress with a prompt and vigorous hand every known violation of the law. The war is not over, but in a year or two it is distinctly in the ascendant, and it is of vital import to maintain and increase this ascendancy.

Yesterday was the last day for filing election petitions against members elected to the Local Legislature, and the day seems to have passed without a single petition being entered. The members returned will therefore keep their seats undisturbed by litigation. We believe this result will be accepted by the country with satisfaction. The new House as it stands will compare not unfavorably with any we have had for a good many years past.

It is gratifying to learn from the estimates that this Island has not been very severely punished for having elected three Conservatives at the late election. There was at the time much talk about the importance of electing supporters of the Government in order that they might exercise a pull and get things for us. But the fact is that we seem to be doing about as well as usual at Ottawa after having demonstrated our independence at the polls. Even The Patriot can still point with pride to the estimates at a time when three out of four of our representatives in the Commons are Conservatives.

Lieutenant Governor Snowball of New Brunswick was a conspicuous figure at the recent vice regal reception in Ottawa. His uniform is described as "a dream of gorgeousness," and excited both envy and admiration. Under a previous regime when Major Maude was master of ceremonies it is said that he objected to the too superb sartorial outfit of New Brunswick's chief magistrate, but nothing particular came of it. His own Province stands proudly at his back, and The Telegraph adds: "We know uniforms when we see them. As for the Governor's the Alake of Abeokuta himself has not the like." Over here on Prince Edward Island we feel a pride in our Governor himself, rather than his raiment—the tallest, the handsomest and at the same time the youngest of the seven or more Lieutenant Governors in this big Dominion.

BAPTIST CONFERENCE.

The P. E. I. Baptist Quarterly Conference was held at the Baptist church at North River on the 16th and 17th inst., with Rev. G. R. White in the chair.

The first session opened on Monday evening. After a devotional service Rev. Josiah Webb preached from the words—Psalm 19:2 "Day unto day uttereth speech." Yesterday, today and tomorrow were personified and made to speak of the past, the present and the future. The sermon was greatly appreciated by the large audience. An evangelistic service was conducted by the new pastor, Rev. David Price.

Second session, Tuesday morning—Minutes of last conference were read. The general business of the Conference was transacted. The reports from the church were very encouraging. North River and Summerside churches were happy in securing the services of Rev. David Price and Rev. J. D. Wetmore. The church at Tryon had extended a call to a very energetic clergyman. His name will be announced later.

Third session, afternoon—Devotional service, led by Rev. J. W. Wetmore. Reports from churches continued. Letters from absent pastors were read. The Conference was sorry to hear of the illness of Rev. D. W. Crandall of Murray River. In the absence of Deacon A. W. Sterns, Rev. G. R. White presented the report of the Denominational Funds. This was spoken to by several of the brethren. At the close of this session Rev. G. R. White gave a review of Rev. J. Webb's new booklet entitled "Heart to Heart Talks with Christians." He spoke of the good work that has been done and of the good words that have been said about it by some prominent men. The president strongly recommended the work.

Closing session, Tuesday evening. A full house listened to eloquent platform speeches from Rev. F. D. Davidson, Rev. J. D. Wetmore and Rev. David Price on the subject of Foreign and Home Missions. The hand of welcome was extended to the new pastors.

The usual vote of thanks and compliments closed one of the most interesting and profitable quarterly meetings that have been held on the Island. The Baptists of North River are to be congratulated in having secured the services of Rev. David Price who is well known on the Island as a scholarly preacher and an enthusiastic Christian worker.
