McNaughton Statements

"Last Resort"
Mr. Brookes: And the fourth will be from N.R.M.A. as a last resort. Is that correct? That is what I understood the minister to say.
Mr. McNaughton: The press to compel obedience will be used to make up any deficit in the drafts that have been planned.
Mr. Brookes: In the next three or four months there will be 16,000 reinforcements for infantry. We know that in the training camp in this country at the present time there are men who have volunteered who are receiving their training. There are men who have been mustered out and who are receiving their training. These men will be part of this 16,000.
Mr. McNaughton: No. With reference to the 16,000 of which we have been speaking, in order to be specific I would point out that the number is to be made up of 5,000 in December, 5,000 in January, and three monthly quotas of 2,000.
Mr. Cruickshank: Is the war to be over in three months?
Mr. McNaughton: May I answer one question at a time. What I have said is additional to the plans which have been made before and which I am hoping to show you in detail later.
Mr. Brookes: Will this 5,000 for the first month be taken entirely from N.R.M.A.?
Mr. McNaughton: Substantially, yes.
Mr. Hanson (York-Sunbury): You said "all this afternoon." Have received their training?
Mr. McNaughton: I cannot answer the question yet.
Mr. Brookes: Will any of the mustering out taken men who have received their training?
Mr. McNaughton: The personnel who have been mustered are from the other stream which was arranged before we took this action.
Mr. Brookes: They are not included.
Mr. McNaughton: No.

No Definite Answer

Mr. Brookes: We cannot get a definite answer on that at the present time. As regards this 16,000 N.R.M.A. personnel, covered by to-day's order, we know that in reinforcing there are certain geographical areas which reinforce certain units at the front representative of those areas. Supposing ### band or to reduce it, or whatever the decision may be. We do not want people sitting in idleness when there is nothing to be defended against.

Mr. Brookes: What is the maximum age for infantry overseas?
Mr. McNaughton: The maximum is forty, but the man must meet the physical requirements.
Mr. Brookes: I understand that; but men are being sent over from these other corps up to forty years of age for infantry if they fulfil the requirements?
Mr. McNaughton: The thirty-ninth birthday is the bar line.
Mr. Brookes: I do not suppose the minister could tell me how many of those who have been mustered out of these other corps have been between the ages of thirty-five and forty?
Mr. McNaughton: The information I have is that there would not be many, but I have not that breakdown.
Mr. Brookes: Well, I happen to know there are quite a few. The minister stated that N. R. M. A. personnel would take the places of these men here in Canada, but I should like to ask whether he would not consider a well-trained N.R.M.A. man of twenty or twenty-one a better soldier to send overseas than these men between the ages of thirty-five and forty who were drawn from these other sources.
Mr. McNaughton: The answer is in the affirmative, but until today I had no such authority.
Mr. Brookes: I understand your position.
Mr. McNaughton: I should like to ask the minister also if at the present time his department is endeavoring to buy gifts for soldiers in Canada. School committees reported several articles needed and buying committees were asked to get them.
It was decided to send to patients of Sanatorium, also to treat school children at Christmas.
The following committees were appointed: School committee, Mrs. Gus Tierney and Mrs. Simon Cavanagh. Program committee, Mrs. Neil MacInnon and Mrs. Duncan Goss. Lunch committee, Mrs. Ivan Devereaux, Mrs. Catherine Docherty kindly invited members for next meeting. Roll call to be something for a quilt.
After a daily lunch meeting closed with "God Save The King".

NEW HAVEN W. I.

The December meeting of New Haven Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Frank McElroy with fifteen members and one visitor present. Meeting opened in the usual way. Roll call was answered with something for the soldiers boxes.
Bills amounting to $2.01 were paid. Four pairs of mitts were handed in, the remainder as soon as possible.
It was decided to quilt and pack boxes on Tuesday December 12th at the home of Mrs. Michael Murphy.
