

WESTERN GUARDIAN

AGENTS: J. Elmer Murphy, 126 Haver Street, and George Clow, 125 Ottawa Street.

The Guardian may be bought at any of the following stores in Summerside: Bourles Drugstore, 21 Central Street; Water Street; Mark Gaudet, 67 Grandville Street; Russell Street; Alroy Doucette's Grocery, Second Street; Island Motor Transport, Water Street.

GENERAL INSURANCE Ralph Muttart, Summerside. HEAR Morley M. Bell, K.C., House election issues over C.F.W. election, Tuesday, May 31, 10:30 to 12:15 noon.

IMMUNIZATION Clinic, Summerside Town, Wednesday, June 1st, 1:30 p.m. Children who have had their second dose, may receive it at this time. Third doses and reinforcing doses will also be given.

DRAMA FESTIVAL semi-finals of Prince County in King George, New Brunswick, Tuesday, May 31, 8:30 sharp. Tryon in "Sardines"; Cape Traverse in "The Whirlwind"; Kolin Grove, "She Married Well". Late comers not seated until close of first act.

HOLD CLOSING MEETING—On Friday night, May 20th, the C.O.L.T., Tux and Trail Rangers Club, met for a social evening to wind up activities until next year. The program began with a musical presentation by Rev. Lewis Murray. Group games, stunts and contests were enjoyed and refreshments were served by members of the club. On behalf of the boys and girls, a sincere word of thanks was extended to the ladies for the interest they have shown in the group on different occasions. A dramatization of the play "Janet Informers" was presented by the senior girls, and a brief worship service, with prayer by the minister, brought the meeting to a close.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER—Mr. and Mrs. Byron MacEwan, of Gladys Fitzsimmons, were tendered a miscellaneous shower at their home in Sherbrooke, when they received many lovely gifts. The bride and groom were escorted to the home by Miss Hilda Fitzsimmons and Mr. Russell Waite. Among those taking part in the presentation were Mrs. Thomas Chapple, Mrs. Hazel Matthews, Gladys Ray Laughlin, Lunch was served by Mrs. Katherine Ker, aunt of the groom, assisted by Mrs. Roy Laughlin, Mrs. Thomas Chapple and Mr. Ray Laughlin. Music for dancing was furnished by Mr. Samuel McAusland and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Laughlin.

KENNINGTON WEDDING—The wedding of the Holy Family, Kennington, was the scene of a great wedding on Tuesday, May 24, 1949, at 7:30 in the morning, when the Rev. R. F. McDonald, united in the bonds of matrimony, Gladys Elizabeth, daughter of Mrs. Lina Fitzsimmons and the late Mr. Fitzsimmons, Long River, and William Byron, son of Mr. and Mrs. William MacEwan, Sherbrooke. The youthful bride was very lovely in a light blue silk jersey gown with black lace trim, black hat trimmed with blue and other accessories. A black fur coat was Poppy red, lined with black. Her only ornament was a gold locket, the gift of the groom. She was attended by her sister, Hilda, attractively dressed in pale blue tulle, with navy hat and other accessories in black. The groom wore a tuxedo, with a white shirt and a black bow tie. The ceremony was officiated by Mr. McDonald. The bride and groom were escorted to the altar by Mr. Samuel McAusland and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Laughlin.

POST-NUPTIAL SHOWER—The home of Mrs. Lina Fitzsimmons, Long River, was the scene of a happy gathering on Thursday evening, when friends gathered to honor Mr. and Mrs. Byron MacEwan, and Gladys Fitzsimmons, with a post-nuptial shower. To the strains of "Here Comes the Bride," by Miss Mae Pound, the bride and groom were escorted to the living room, decorated in pink and white, by Miss Betty Tuplin and Mr. Ernest Waite. A prettily trimmed basket, piled high with gifts was carried in by two charming little girls, Ethel Fitzsimmons and Amy Brown. Others assisting in the presentation of the gifts were Misses Margaret Campbell, Muriel Paynter, Ruth Pearson and Evelyn Bernard. On behalf of his bride, the groom expressed his thanks and all joined in the singing "For They are Jolly Good Fellows." Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Mae Pound, Mrs. Allan Brown, Mrs. Olive Paynter, Mrs. Edwin Bernard and Mrs. James Bernard. After the dancing was furnished by Bill Durant and Charles Cole. A special and enjoyable feature of the evening was songs by Charlie Cole, and exhibition of the box and other accessories brought rounds of fun and laughter. —Bur.

PERSONALS—Miss Dora Somers, Charlottetown spent the past weekend at her home at New London. —Bur.

—Misses Marion and Jean Carr, Charlottetown spent the past weekend at their home at New London. —Bur.

—Among those entertaining at Kennington during the week was Mrs. Joseph Woodside who was hostess at three tables of bridge. —Bur.

—Recent guests at "Treholme" Kennington were Mr. Vernon Munn of the Provincial Treasury, Charlottetown, J. B. McAlister, Sheldale and W. K. Meyer, St. John. —Bur.

—Mr. Daniel Hickox has returned to his home in Burlington after spending a few days with his son in law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Younker, Kingston. —Bur.

—Mrs. George Cousins has returned to her home at Kennington after spending a week with her son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. James Cousins, Charlottetown. —Bur.

—Miss Phelicia Clark entertained a number of friends at a delightful party at her home at Kennington on Thursday evening with delicious lobster supper as the highlight of the evening. —Bur.

—Vicki and Susanne Cooke, little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cooke, Kennington, are gradually improving, after having been ill with colds and complications. —Bur.

—Miss Marion Carr who has been employed as invoice clerk for the past two and a half years, with the firm of R. T. Holman, Charlottetown, has resigned her position and accepted a position as stenographer at Beach Grove Hospital. Before leaving she was presented with lovely gifts. Her many friends wish her every success in her new undertaking. —Bur.

800 YEARS OLD—The printing press was invented about the middle of the 15th century.

MORLEY M. BELL, Solicitor, Summerside

Sealed Tenders addressed to the undersigned will be received up to June 10th A.D. 1949 for the fox ranch property of the late Brewer W. Robinson at Summerside consisting of approximately twelve (12) acres of land including ranch pens and duns, double fox house eighty (80) feet long in good condition, barn approximately 40 x 20 feet long in good condition; also a double garage and ranch house in fair condition.

MORLEY M. BELL, Solicitor, Summerside

MORLEY M. BELL, Solicitor, Summerside

Returns From Interesting Trip To Pacific Coast

—Mr. and Mrs. William A. Bernard, French River, who recently returned from the Pacific Coast, had a delightful and most interesting trip. They left P. E. I. on December 10th for San Diego, California, stopping en route in Boston, Massachusetts, and Houston, Texas, travelling by rail through 16 states to California. While in Houston, Texas, they were the guests of Mr. Bernard's brother, Mr. Cameron Bernard, and family. Points of interest visited were the San Jacinto Memorial Monument and Museum, over 570 feet high, the world's tallest monument, commemorating the heroes of the battle of San Jacinto in the War of Texan Independence in 1836; also the Baytown Oil Refinery, one of the largest in the world.

—ATTEND the large clearing auction sale on the premises of Kenneth Leckie, Central Lot 16, on Friday, June 3rd, beginning at 12 o'clock noon.

—"LITTLE TIN GODS", 3-act play of life in Prince Edward Island, written by Norman J. Macdonald, will be presented at Long River Hall, Tuesday, May 31, at 8:30. Specialties between acts.

—HOME DESTROYED—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gallant, Central Bedouque, was destroyed by fire on Saturday morning, their loss was a severe one as they were unable to save any of the furniture and belongings in the house. —B.

—THE ANNUAL Sunday School convention of Kennington-Summerside branch of The Maritime Religious Educational Council will be held at the United Church, Free-town, Wednesday, June 1, Sessions 2:30 p.m., 7:30 p.m. Guest speaker Rev. James B. Wilson, Basket lunch.

—LEFT HOME 41 YEARS AGO—Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hill of Rose Town, Sask., are visiting at the home of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wright, Central Bedouque. Mr. Hill left this Province as a young man 41 years ago and this is his first visit back and naturally he sees many changes in that time. He is one of our successful Islanders in the West. His wife was formerly from British Columbia. They have six sons and three daughters. They own 960 acres of land, and beside growing a large acreage of wheat carry on mixed farming as well. His first mission was a bull and the civilization of California started. Included among the former Islanders met were Mrs. Loren Alfred (Ruby Brown) from Clifton, Long River, French River; Mr. Donald Campbell, Park Corner; Mr. Grafton Campbell, Long River; Mr. Russell Dawson, Tryon; Mr. Frank Gillespie, Long River; Mrs. Lawrence (Miss MacDougall), Charlottetown; Miss Christine MacKay, R.N. Clifton; Mr. Henry MacKay, Darnley; and Mrs. MacKay (Bertha Pickering), Clifton; Mr. Stephen (Christy MacKay), Darnley; Mrs. John Sutherland (Alva Jos), French River; Mrs. Wilson (Estelle Campbell), Park Corner; Mrs. Webster (Miss Jenkins), Vernon River.

—The regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Monday evening, May 16th, Mayor C. P. Profit presided. Councillors Moran, Corbett, Weeks and Currie were present. Bills amounting to $267.14 were moved, paid. Mr. Howard Clark was appointed magistrate to replace the late Mr. J. E. C. Hunter. There was a discussion re street work to be taken up as soon as possible, and it was decided to check up on speeding and reckless driving within the town limits. Committee reported dump cleaned up and ready to accommodate citizens for clean-up-work every day and thereafter, on each Wednesday afternoon. Meeting adjourned.

—On Thursday night, May 19th the Charlottetown Hockey Club held their annual banquet in the beautifully decorated dining room of the Hillside Restaurant. A sumptuous chicken dinner was tendered the diners, who did full justice to the excellently cooked dinner. Among the guests of honor were Mr. Charles MacLeod who kept the diners in a constant state of hilarity with many witticisms. The members are all well pleased with the co-operation received during the past year and since bigger plans are being made for the future it is hoped that similar co-operation will be forthcoming, thereby benefiting the community as a whole and each individual in particular.

—The regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Monday evening, May 16th, Mayor C. P. Profit presided. Councillors Moran, Corbett, Weeks and Currie were present. Bills amounting to $267.14 were moved, paid. Mr. Howard Clark was appointed magistrate to replace the late Mr. J. E. C. Hunter. There was a discussion re street work to be taken up as soon as possible, and it was decided to check up on speeding and reckless driving within the town limits. Committee reported dump cleaned up and ready to accommodate citizens for clean-up-work every day and thereafter, on each Wednesday afternoon. Meeting adjourned.

—On Wednesday, May 11, large audiences in the afternoon and evening witnessed the presentation of a three-act drama "My Irish Rose" in Kinkora Hall, sponsored by the Kinkora Credit Union, and directed by Mrs. Henry Trainor, the play was pronounced by all a huge success.

—"My Irish Rose" is the story of an Irish country lass, the pride of her bachelor uncle, Colum McCormack, and her aunt, Ann Mary. Maurice Fitzgerald, a wealthy Dublin artist, falls in love with her while painting her picture, but the course of their love is far from smooth. The intrigue of a heartless rival, and obstacles that seem well-nigh insurmountable threaten a tragic end, and even after their marriage, she is led to suspect his fidelity. But the play is well spiced with laughter and all that makes an enjoyable entertainment. The cast was as follows: Colum McCormack, a prosperous Irish Farmer of County Kildare — Emmett Trainor. Maurice Fitzgerald, a rich young Dublin artist—Lloyd Smith. Terry Creigan — McCormack's nephew, a young Irish patriot in exile — Wilfred Trainor. Mr. Archibald Pennywit, a wealthy English tourist—Raymond Smith. Mr. Michael Pepperdine, an eminent Dublin barrister—Edwin Smith.

—The regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Monday evening, May 16th, Mayor C. P. Profit presided. Councillors Moran, Corbett, Weeks and Currie were present. Bills amounting to $267.14 were moved, paid. Mr. Howard Clark was appointed magistrate to replace the late Mr. J. E. C. Hunter. There was a discussion re street work to be taken up as soon as possible, and it was decided to check up on speeding and reckless driving within the town limits. Committee reported dump cleaned up and ready to accommodate citizens for clean-up-work every day and thereafter, on each Wednesday afternoon. Meeting adjourned.

—On Wednesday, May 11, large audiences in the afternoon and evening witnessed the presentation of a three-act drama "My Irish Rose" in Kinkora Hall, sponsored by the Kinkora Credit Union, and directed by Mrs. Henry Trainor, the play was pronounced by all a huge success.

—"My Irish Rose" is the story of an Irish country lass, the pride of her bachelor uncle, Colum McCormack, and her aunt, Ann Mary. Maurice Fitzgerald, a wealthy Dublin artist, falls in love with her while painting her picture, but the course of their love is far from smooth. The intrigue of a heartless rival, and obstacles that seem well-nigh insurmountable threaten a tragic end, and even after their marriage, she is led to suspect his fidelity. But the play is well spiced with laughter and all that makes an enjoyable entertainment. The cast was as follows: Colum McCormack, a prosperous Irish Farmer of County Kildare — Emmett Trainor. Maurice Fitzgerald, a rich young Dublin artist—Lloyd Smith. Terry Creigan — McCormack's nephew, a young Irish patriot in exile — Wilfred Trainor. Mr. Archibald Pennywit, a wealthy English tourist—Raymond Smith. Mr. Michael Pepperdine, an eminent Dublin barrister—Edwin Smith.

—The regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Monday evening, May 16th, Mayor C. P. Profit presided. Councillors Moran, Corbett, Weeks and Currie were present. Bills amounting to $267.14 were moved, paid. Mr. Howard Clark was appointed magistrate to replace the late Mr. J. E. C. Hunter. There was a discussion re street work to be taken up as soon as possible, and it was decided to check up on speeding and reckless driving within the town limits. Committee reported dump cleaned up and ready to accommodate citizens for clean-up-work every day and thereafter, on each Wednesday afternoon. Meeting adjourned.

—On Wednesday, May 11, large audiences in the afternoon and evening witnessed the presentation of a three-act drama "My Irish Rose" in Kinkora Hall, sponsored by the Kinkora Credit Union, and directed by Mrs. Henry Trainor, the play was pronounced by all a huge success.

—"My Irish Rose" is the story of an Irish country lass, the pride of her bachelor uncle, Colum McCormack, and her aunt, Ann Mary. Maurice Fitzgerald, a wealthy Dublin artist, falls in love with her while painting her picture, but the course of their love is far from smooth. The intrigue of a heartless rival, and obstacles that seem well-nigh insurmountable threaten a tragic end, and even after their marriage, she is led to suspect his fidelity. But the play is well spiced with laughter and all that makes an enjoyable entertainment. The cast was as follows: Colum McCormack, a prosperous Irish Farmer of County Kildare — Emmett Trainor. Maurice Fitzgerald, a rich young Dublin artist—Lloyd Smith. Terry Creigan — McCormack's nephew, a young Irish patriot in exile — Wilfred Trainor. Mr. Archibald Pennywit, a wealthy English tourist—Raymond Smith. Mr. Michael Pepperdine, an eminent Dublin barrister—Edwin Smith.

—The regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Monday evening, May 16th, Mayor C. P. Profit presided. Councillors Moran, Corbett, Weeks and Currie were present. Bills amounting to $267.14 were moved, paid. Mr. Howard Clark was appointed magistrate to replace the late Mr. J. E. C. Hunter. There was a discussion re street work to be taken up as soon as possible, and it was decided to check up on speeding and reckless driving within the town limits. Committee reported dump cleaned up and ready to accommodate citizens for clean-up-work every day and thereafter, on each Wednesday afternoon. Meeting adjourned.

—On Wednesday, May 11, large audiences in the afternoon and evening witnessed the presentation of a three-act drama "My Irish Rose" in Kinkora Hall, sponsored by the Kinkora Credit Union, and directed by Mrs. Henry Trainor, the play was pronounced by all a huge success.

—"My Irish Rose" is the story of an Irish country lass, the pride of her bachelor uncle, Colum McCormack, and her aunt, Ann Mary. Maurice Fitzgerald, a wealthy Dublin artist, falls in love with her while painting her picture, but the course of their love is far from smooth. The intrigue of a heartless rival, and obstacles that seem well-nigh insurmountable threaten a tragic end, and even after their marriage, she is led to suspect his fidelity. But the play is well spiced with laughter and all that makes an enjoyable entertainment. The cast was as follows: Colum McCormack, a prosperous Irish Farmer of County Kildare — Emmett Trainor. Maurice Fitzgerald, a rich young Dublin artist—Lloyd Smith. Terry Creigan — McCormack's nephew, a young Irish patriot in exile — Wilfred Trainor. Mr. Archibald Pennywit, a wealthy English tourist—Raymond Smith. Mr. Michael Pepperdine, an eminent Dublin barrister—Edwin Smith.

—The regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Monday evening, May 16th, Mayor C. P. Profit presided. Councillors Moran, Corbett, Weeks and Currie were present. Bills amounting to $267.14 were moved, paid. Mr. Howard Clark was appointed magistrate to replace the late Mr. J. E. C. Hunter. There was a discussion re street work to be taken up as soon as possible, and it was decided to check up on speeding and reckless driving within the town limits. Committee reported dump cleaned up and ready to accommodate citizens for clean-up-work every day and thereafter, on each Wednesday afternoon. Meeting adjourned.

—On Wednesday, May 11, large audiences in the afternoon and evening witnessed the presentation of a three-act drama "My Irish Rose" in Kinkora Hall, sponsored by the Kinkora Credit Union, and directed by Mrs. Henry Trainor, the play was pronounced by all a huge success.

—"My Irish Rose" is the story of an Irish country lass, the pride of her bachelor uncle, Colum McCormack, and her aunt, Ann Mary. Maurice Fitzgerald, a wealthy Dublin artist, falls in love with her while painting her picture, but the course of their love is far from smooth. The intrigue of a heartless rival, and obstacles that seem well-nigh insurmountable threaten a tragic end, and even after their marriage, she is led to suspect his fidelity. But the play is well spiced with laughter and all that makes an enjoyable entertainment. The cast was as follows: Colum McCormack, a prosperous Irish Farmer of County Kildare — Emmett Trainor. Maurice Fitzgerald, a rich young Dublin artist—Lloyd Smith. Terry Creigan — McCormack's nephew, a young Irish patriot in exile — Wilfred Trainor. Mr. Archibald Pennywit, a wealthy English tourist—Raymond Smith. Mr. Michael Pepperdine, an eminent Dublin barrister—Edwin Smith.

Alberton and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Crockett, Summerside, spent the holiday in Montrose.

—Mrs. E. A. McRae, Charlottetown, enjoyed a brief visit with friends in Alberton.

—Miss Delma Peake, Charlottetown spent the weekend at the home of her friend Miss Fernie Wilkie.

—Hon. G. H. Barbour and Mrs. Barbour spent the holiday visiting relatives and friends in Montrose and Alberton.

—Mrs. Thomas Fox and son Jack, Myrtle, Conn., spent the week-end in Alberton, the welcome guests of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Murphy.

—Miss Iris MacDonald, assistant telephone operator, Tignish, spent the weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin MacDonald.

—Mrs. Andrew Frizell and daughter, Miss Roberta Frizell, Springfield West, spent the week-end with relatives in Alberton.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lawson had as their guests during the past week their daughter, Mrs. Thomas DeBlois and little son Thomas of Charlottetown.

—Mr. Claude Callaghan, student at St. Dunstan's University, Mr. Jimmie Pike, University of N. B., and Miss Fernie Wilkie, Prince of Wales College are home for the holidays.

—Mrs. Parnell McWilliams, Lot 6, Mrs. Roseford Locke, O'Leary, and Mrs. Lloyd Leard, Victoria West, recently visited their mother, Mrs. Henry Leard who is ill at her home in Alberton.

—A jolly party was held on Saturday afternoon when Belle Wilkie celebrated her ninth birthday at her home in Alberton with 11 of her little friends. Games were enjoyed until time for refreshments when a dainty supper was served. The beautiful candle-light birthday cake was the centre of attraction.

—"The Concert in the Loft" a service of praise in song and story was presented in the Alberton United Church Sunday evening. The Reverend P. A. Fitzpatrick was narrator. The choir was under the direction of Mr. C. R. S. Leard with Miss Annie Leard at the organ.

—On Thursday night, May 19th the Charlottetown Hockey Club held their annual banquet in the beautifully decorated dining room of the Hillside Restaurant. A sumptuous chicken dinner was tendered the diners, who did full justice to the excellently cooked dinner. Among the guests of honor were Mr. Charles MacLeod who kept the diners in a constant state of hilarity with many witticisms. The members are all well pleased with the co-operation received during the past year and since bigger plans are being made for the future it is hoped that similar co-operation will be forthcoming, thereby benefiting the community as a whole and each individual in particular.

—The regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Monday evening, May 16th, Mayor C. P. Profit presided. Councillors Moran, Corbett, Weeks and Currie were present. Bills amounting to $267.14 were moved, paid. Mr. Howard Clark was appointed magistrate to replace the late Mr. J. E. C. Hunter. There was a discussion re street work to be taken up as soon as possible, and it was decided to check up on speeding and reckless driving within the town limits. Committee reported dump cleaned up and ready to accommodate citizens for clean-up-work every day and thereafter, on each Wednesday afternoon. Meeting adjourned.

—On Wednesday, May 11, large audiences in the afternoon and evening witnessed the presentation of a three-act drama "My Irish Rose" in Kinkora Hall, sponsored by the Kinkora Credit Union, and directed by Mrs. Henry Trainor, the play was pronounced by all a huge success.

—"My Irish Rose" is the story of an Irish country lass, the pride of her bachelor uncle, Colum McCormack, and her aunt, Ann Mary. Maurice Fitzgerald, a wealthy Dublin artist, falls in love with her while painting her picture, but the course of their love is far from smooth. The intrigue of a heartless rival, and obstacles that seem well-nigh insurmountable threaten a tragic end, and even after their marriage, she is led to suspect his fidelity. But the play is well spiced with laughter and all that makes an enjoyable entertainment. The cast was as follows: Colum McCormack, a prosperous Irish Farmer of County Kildare — Emmett Trainor. Maurice Fitzgerald, a rich young Dublin artist—Lloyd Smith. Terry Creigan — McCormack's nephew, a young Irish patriot in exile — Wilfred Trainor. Mr. Archibald Pennywit, a wealthy English tourist—Raymond Smith. Mr. Michael Pepperdine, an eminent Dublin barrister—Edwin Smith.

—The regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Monday evening, May 16th, Mayor C. P. Profit presided. Councillors Moran, Corbett, Weeks and Currie were present. Bills amounting to $267.14 were moved, paid. Mr. Howard Clark was appointed magistrate to replace the late Mr. J. E. C. Hunter. There was a discussion re street work to be taken up as soon as possible, and it was decided to check up on speeding and reckless driving within the town limits. Committee reported dump cleaned up and ready to accommodate citizens for clean-up-work every day and thereafter, on each Wednesday afternoon. Meeting adjourned.

—On Wednesday, May 11, large audiences in the afternoon and evening witnessed the presentation of a three-act drama "My Irish Rose" in Kinkora Hall, sponsored by the Kinkora Credit Union, and directed by Mrs. Henry Trainor, the play was pronounced by all a huge success.

—"My Irish Rose" is the story of an Irish country lass, the pride of her bachelor uncle, Colum McCormack, and her aunt, Ann Mary. Maurice Fitzgerald, a wealthy Dublin artist, falls in love with her while painting her picture, but the course of their love is far from smooth. The intrigue of a heartless rival, and obstacles that seem well-nigh insurmountable threaten a tragic end, and even after their marriage, she is led to suspect his fidelity. But the play is well spiced with laughter and all that makes an enjoyable entertainment. The cast was as follows: Colum McCormack, a prosperous Irish Farmer of County Kildare — Emmett Trainor. Maurice Fitzgerald, a rich young Dublin artist—Lloyd Smith. Terry Creigan — McCormack's nephew, a young Irish patriot in exile — Wilfred Trainor. Mr. Archibald Pennywit, a wealthy English tourist—Raymond Smith. Mr. Michael Pepperdine, an eminent Dublin barrister—Edwin Smith.

—The regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Monday evening, May 16th, Mayor C. P. Profit presided. Councillors Moran, Corbett, Weeks and Currie were present. Bills amounting to $267.14 were moved, paid. Mr. Howard Clark was appointed magistrate to replace the late Mr. J. E. C. Hunter. There was a discussion re street work to be taken up as soon as possible, and it was decided to check up on speeding and reckless driving within the town limits. Committee reported dump cleaned up and ready to accommodate citizens for clean-up-work every day and thereafter, on each Wednesday afternoon. Meeting adjourned.

—On Wednesday, May 11, large audiences in the afternoon and evening witnessed the presentation of a three-act drama "My Irish Rose" in Kinkora Hall, sponsored by the Kinkora Credit Union, and directed by Mrs. Henry Trainor, the play was pronounced by all a huge success.

—"My Irish Rose" is the story of an Irish country lass, the pride of her bachelor uncle, Colum McCormack, and her aunt, Ann Mary. Maurice Fitzgerald, a wealthy Dublin artist, falls in love with her while painting her picture, but the course of their love is far from smooth. The intrigue of a heartless rival, and obstacles that seem well-nigh insurmountable threaten a tragic end, and even after their marriage, she is led to suspect his fidelity. But the play is well spiced with laughter and all that makes an enjoyable entertainment. The cast was as follows: Colum McCormack, a prosperous Irish Farmer of County Kildare — Emmett Trainor. Maurice Fitzgerald, a rich young Dublin artist—Lloyd Smith. Terry Creigan — McCormack's nephew, a young Irish patriot in exile — Wilfred Trainor. Mr. Archibald Pennywit, a wealthy English tourist—Raymond Smith. Mr. Michael Pepperdine, an eminent Dublin barrister—Edwin Smith.

—The regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Monday evening, May 16th, Mayor C. P. Profit presided. Councillors Moran, Corbett, Weeks and Currie were present. Bills amounting to $267.14 were moved, paid. Mr. Howard Clark was appointed magistrate to replace the late Mr. J. E. C. Hunter. There was a discussion re street work to be taken up as soon as possible, and it was decided to check up on speeding and reckless driving within the town limits. Committee reported dump cleaned up and ready to accommodate citizens for clean-up-work every day and thereafter, on each Wednesday afternoon. Meeting adjourned.

—On Wednesday, May 11, large audiences in the afternoon and evening witnessed the presentation of a three-act drama "My Irish Rose" in Kinkora Hall, sponsored by the Kinkora Credit Union, and directed by Mrs. Henry Trainor, the play was pronounced by all a huge success.

Summer Styles Are In - At SMALLMANN'S

The right suit . . . the right coat . . . the right topper . . . to take you on your Summer travels . . .

Week-end holidays . . . Vacation anywhere . . . in well dressed ease.

Exciting Fashions

White crepe suits with four button fastening. Set-in pockets. Sizes 12 to 18. 35.00

White flannel shortie coats. Fly-away type, with set-in pockets and 2 button trim. Sizes 12 to 16. 29.75

Upper Floor—Main Store

SMALLMANN'S

White crepe suit, double breasted with half belt. Junior type. Sizes 12 to 16. 29.75

Shawn McGilly, the laziest man in County Kildare — Wilfred Greenan. Ann Mary McCormack, Colum's sister with a true Irish heart — Mrs. Wilfred Greenan. The Widow Hannigan, with money in the bank and an eye on Colum — Mary Gallant. Ellen Fitzgerald, a Dublin heiress, Mrs. Edwin Smith. Lady Agnes Barichlow, who hesitates at nothing, Wanda Greenan. Pegeen Burke, a servant on the McCormack farm. Elizabeth McCormack.

—On Wednesday, May 11, large audiences in the afternoon and evening witnessed the presentation of a three-act drama "My Irish Rose" in Kinkora Hall, sponsored by the Kinkora Credit Union, and directed by Mrs. Henry Trainor, the play was pronounced by all a huge success.

—"My Irish Rose" is the story of an Irish country lass, the pride of her bachelor uncle, Colum McCormack, and her aunt, Ann Mary. Maurice Fitzgerald, a wealthy Dublin artist, falls in love with her while painting her picture, but the course of their love is far from smooth. The intrigue of a heartless rival, and obstacles that seem well-nigh insurmountable threaten a tragic end, and even after their marriage, she is led to suspect his fidelity. But the play is well spiced with laughter and all that makes an enjoyable entertainment. The cast was as follows: Colum McCormack, a prosperous Irish Farmer of County Kildare — Emmett Trainor. Maurice Fitzgerald, a rich young Dublin artist—Lloyd Smith. Terry Creigan — McCormack's nephew, a young Irish patriot in exile — Wilfred Trainor. Mr. Archibald Pennywit, a wealthy English tourist—Raymond Smith. Mr. Michael Pepperdine, an eminent Dublin barrister—Edwin Smith.

—The regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Monday evening, May 16th, Mayor C. P. Profit presided. Councillors Moran, Corbett, Weeks and Currie were present. Bills amounting to $267.14 were moved, paid. Mr. Howard Clark was appointed magistrate to replace the late Mr. J. E. C. Hunter. There was a discussion re street work to be taken up as soon as possible, and it was decided to check up on speeding and reckless driving within the town limits. Committee reported dump cleaned up and ready to accommodate citizens for clean-up-work every day and thereafter, on each Wednesday afternoon. Meeting adjourned.

—On Wednesday, May 11, large audiences in the afternoon and evening witnessed the presentation of a three-act drama "My Irish Rose" in Kinkora Hall, sponsored by the Kinkora Credit Union, and directed by Mrs. Henry Trainor, the play was pronounced by all a huge success.

—"My Irish Rose" is the story of an Irish country lass, the pride of her bachelor uncle, Colum McCormack, and her aunt, Ann Mary. Maurice Fitzgerald, a wealthy Dublin artist, falls in love with her while painting her picture, but the course of their love is far from smooth. The intrigue of a heartless rival, and obstacles that seem well-nigh insurmountable threaten a tragic end, and even after their marriage, she is led to suspect his fidelity. But the play is well spiced with laughter and all that makes an enjoyable entertainment. The cast was as follows: Colum McCormack, a prosperous Irish Farmer of County Kildare — Emmett Trainor. Maurice Fitzgerald, a rich young Dublin artist—Lloyd Smith. Terry Creigan — McCormack's nephew, a young Irish patriot in exile — Wilfred Trainor. Mr. Archibald Pennywit, a wealthy English tourist—Raymond Smith. Mr. Michael Pepperdine, an eminent Dublin barrister—Edwin Smith.

—The regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Monday evening, May 16th, Mayor C. P. Profit presided. Councillors Moran, Corbett, Weeks and Currie were present. Bills amounting to $267.14 were moved, paid. Mr. Howard Clark was appointed magistrate to replace the late Mr. J. E. C. Hunter. There was a discussion re street work to be taken up as soon as possible, and it was decided to check up on speeding and reckless driving within the town limits. Committee reported dump cleaned up and ready to accommodate citizens for clean-up-work every day and thereafter, on each Wednesday afternoon. Meeting adjourned.

—On Wednesday, May 11, large audiences in the afternoon and evening witnessed the presentation of a three-act drama "My Irish Rose" in Kinkora Hall, sponsored by the Kinkora Credit Union, and directed by Mrs. Henry Trainor, the play was pronounced by all a huge success.

—"My Irish Rose" is the story of an Irish country lass, the pride of her bachelor uncle, Colum McCormack, and her aunt, Ann Mary. Maurice Fitzgerald, a wealthy Dublin artist, falls in love with her while painting her picture, but the course of their love is far from smooth. The intrigue of a heartless rival, and obstacles that seem well-nigh insurmountable threaten a tragic end, and even after their marriage, she is led to suspect his fidelity. But the play is well spiced with laughter and all that makes an enjoyable entertainment. The cast was as follows: Colum McCormack, a prosperous Irish Farmer of County Kildare — Emmett Trainor. Maurice Fitzgerald, a rich young Dublin artist—Lloyd Smith. Terry Creigan — McCormack's nephew, a young Irish patriot in exile — Wilfred Trainor. Mr. Archibald Pennywit, a wealthy English tourist—Raymond Smith. Mr. Michael Pepperdine, an eminent Dublin barrister—Edwin Smith.

—The regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Monday evening, May 16th, Mayor C. P. Profit presided. Councillors Moran, Corbett, Weeks and Currie were present. Bills amounting to $267.14 were moved, paid. Mr. Howard Clark was appointed magistrate to replace the late Mr. J. E. C. Hunter. There was a discussion re street work to be taken up as soon as possible, and it was decided to check up on speeding and reckless driving within the town limits. Committee reported dump cleaned up and ready to accommodate citizens for clean-up-work every day and thereafter, on each Wednesday afternoon. Meeting adjourned.

—On Wednesday, May 11, large audiences in the afternoon and evening witnessed the presentation of a three-act drama "My Irish Rose" in Kinkora Hall, sponsored by the Kinkora Credit Union, and directed by Mrs. Henry Trainor, the play was pronounced by all a huge success.

—"My Irish Rose" is the story of an Irish country lass, the pride of her bachelor uncle, Colum McCormack, and her aunt, Ann Mary. Maurice Fitzgerald, a wealthy Dublin artist, falls in love with her while painting her picture, but the course of their love is far from smooth. The intrigue of a heartless rival, and obstacles that seem well-nigh insurmountable threaten a tragic end, and even after their marriage, she is led to suspect his fidelity. But the play is well spiced with laughter and all that makes an enjoyable entertainment. The cast was as follows: Colum McCormack, a prosperous Irish Farmer of County Kildare — Emmett Trainor. Maurice Fitzgerald, a rich young Dublin artist—Lloyd Smith. Terry Creigan — McCormack's nephew, a young Irish patriot in exile — Wilfred Trainor. Mr. Archibald Pennywit, a wealthy English tourist—Raymond Smith. Mr. Michael Pepperdine, an eminent Dublin barrister—Edwin Smith.

—The regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Monday evening, May 16th, Mayor C. P. Profit presided. Councillors Moran, Corbett, Weeks and Currie were present. Bills amounting to $267.14 were moved, paid. Mr. Howard Clark was appointed magistrate to replace the late Mr. J. E. C. Hunter. There was a discussion re street work to be taken up as soon as possible, and it was decided to check up on speeding and reckless driving within the town limits. Committee reported dump cleaned up and ready to accommodate citizens for clean-up-work every day and thereafter, on each Wednesday afternoon. Meeting adjourned.

—On Wednesday, May 11, large audiences in the afternoon and evening witnessed the presentation of a three-act drama "My Irish Rose" in Kinkora Hall, sponsored by the Kinkora Credit Union, and directed by Mrs. Henry Trainor, the play was pronounced by all a huge success.

—"My Irish Rose" is the story of an Irish country lass, the pride of her bachelor uncle, Colum McCormack, and her aunt, Ann Mary. Maurice Fitzgerald, a wealthy Dublin artist, falls in love with her while painting her picture, but the course of their love is far from smooth. The intrigue of a heartless rival, and obstacles that seem well-nigh insurmountable threaten a tragic end, and even after their marriage, she is led to suspect his fidelity. But the play is well spiced with laughter and all that makes an enjoyable entertainment. The cast was as follows: Colum McCormack, a prosperous Irish Farmer of County Kildare — Emmett Trainor. Maurice Fitzgerald, a rich young Dublin artist—Lloyd Smith. Terry Creigan — McCormack's nephew, a young Irish patriot in exile — Wilfred Trainor. Mr. Archibald Pennywit, a wealthy English tourist—Raymond Smith. Mr. Michael Pepperdine, an eminent Dublin barrister—Edwin Smith.

—The regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Monday evening, May 16th, Mayor C. P. Profit presided. Councillors Moran, Corbett, Weeks and Currie were present. Bills amounting to $267.14 were moved, paid. Mr. Howard Clark was appointed magistrate to replace the late Mr. J. E. C. Hunter. There was a discussion re street work to be taken up as